

Review of HSCA Security Classified Files and extract all references to Mexico City surveillance:

- Dan Hardway notes dealing with CIA's Mexico City tape transcripts (B4 F89-90)

Summary: Hardway reporting on lack of cooperation from CIA, were ever provided with the LIFEAT tapes apparently because they never asked specifically for those.

Interview of David Atlee Phillips, Chief of Covert Action in Mex City, 1961-63.

Asked about contents of Win Scott's safe.

Aksed about transcript of Luisa Calderon and other info on Tereza Proenza but didn't remember much.

Stated did not recall Mex St. developed any infor that LHO was in contact with anyone else at CubEmbassy other than Azcue and Duran.

Claimed Angelton never told him anything about his ops.

Didn't know anything about special discretionary funds.

Asked about Barney Hidalgo

- 35-page report and Hardway-Lopez 5-page chronology of LHO in Mexico City(B4, F125)
- Nine page Hardway memo on LHO in Mexico City (B4, F142)
- Seven page summary of interview w/CIA employee who worked in Mexico City monitoring station. (B5, F151)
- Six page summary of CIA employee who worked on photographic surveillance in Mexico City. (B5, F152)
- Three page summary of interview w/Daniel Watson re: Win Scott's safe. (B5, F153)
- FBI to HSCA, re: issue of existence of Oswald tapes (B5, F162)