Dear Andy,

Thank you for your phone message of last Friday. All the ARRB participants in our meeting of January 18 found the get together very useful, and we appreciate your ongoing interest and assistance.

I wanted to let you know that the deposition of Dr. Humes is scheduled for next week, February 13, with Dr. Boswell to follow on the 26th. We thought your suggestion concerning the order of the depositions an astute one but, unfortunately, scheduling difficulties precluded following up on it.

If you are amenable, we'd like to get back to you after the depositions, fill you in and get your reaction. Jeremy Gunn -- ARRB General Counsel and head of our Research and Analysis staff -- will be leading the depositions. He's listened to the tape of our meeting with you, and will probably be the one getting back to you.

Thanks again for all your help.

Sincerely yours,

Joseph P. Freeman
