

MEMORANDUM

June 29, 1995

To: Jeremy Gunn
From: Joe Freeman
Subject: HSCA Collection

A walking tour/visual scan of the HSCA collection at Archives I, conducted with Matt this afternoon, yielded the results below, listed in order of visual inspection as we walked down the aisle (all documents in Hollinger boxes):

Numbered files	298 Hollinger boxes
Transcripts and steno types of Immunized Executive Session Hearings	12
Security Classified	6
Security Classified Testimony	10
Transcripts of Executive Session Hearings	4
Regis Blahut File	1
Azcue & Cubela Interviews	1
Priority 1 Telephone Logs	1
Staff Payroll Records	3
Mail and Document Register	3
Classified Documents Control Files	1
Public Hearing Exhibits/Special Media	3
Numbered Photographic Material	1

Slips from Oversize Boxes	1
Security Classified Artifacts	2
Public Hearing Exhibits	1
Numbered Files Artifacts	2
Staffer Notes formerly held at CIA - "SECRET"	15
Other	28
Member Briefing Books	11
TOTAL	400 approx.

In addition to the above Hollinger boxes, there are a half-dozen or so special-sized boxes that hold things like the JFK skull model, the replica of Oswald's pistol, rifle, etc.

There is also the HSCA card file, which is boxed in undersized Hollinger-style boxes.

The above survey can be compared to the following description from a 4/10/92 letter from the Center for Legislative Archives to the House Administration Committee:

Administrative Records:	122 boxes representing approx. 97,600 pages
JFK:	518 boxes representing approx. 414,400 pages
MLK:	295 boxes representing approx. 236,000 pages
TOTAL:	935 boxes 747,000 pages

Without looking into it more thoroughly, I'd guess the discrepancy between my visual survey numbers from today and the CLA's numbers is due to the fact that (with the exception of the 3 staff payroll record boxes listed above) the administrative records of HSCA (I'm told my Matt) are out at Archives II.

Hope this helps. I'll be here till 6:15-6:30 and, if you're working at home this evening and need any clarification of above, you can call me at 202-363-1913.
