

Attachment A

- (a) All documents used by agencies during their declassification review of JFK assassination records as well as all other documents, indices, and records that disclose cryptonyms, code names, or other identification material in assassination records.
- (b) All training manuals, instructional materials, and guidelines created or used by the agencies in furtherance of their review of assassination records.
- (c) All records, lists, and documents describing the procedure by which the agencies identified or selected assassination records for review.