

Sources and Information

Jeff Goldberg (202) 686-2516.
Angleton expert. Past 8 years producer for BBC/PBS etc. Formerly Assassination Information Bureau. Perhaps has pending FOIA requests re Angleton.

AIB: launched in Cambridge in 1974. Moved to DC during HSCA at which point Goldberg became director. Participants: Bob Katz; Carl Oglesby; Harvey Izidjian.

Goldberg's bias is that the mafia did it. Principal reason: Ruby.

Goldberg principally recommends talking to:

Bob Blakey

Michael Ewing (most knowledgeable person; major investigator)

Dick Billings (friend of Goldberg)

Paul Hoch (510) 525-1980 (top 5 to talk to)

Has no agenda; keeps low profile; Computer Scientist at U.Cal.; crit since 1964; co-authored book with Scott (though his views are different); knows all minutiae of case;
knows who good and bad researchers are; his main goal
is release of information.

Earl Golz; Dallas Morning News

Hugh Ainsworth; Texas Theater Witness; Newseek Reporter

Goldberg book recommendations:

Blakey and Billings, Fatal Hour

John Davis, Mafia Kingfish

mostly reliable; uses others without attribution; not as good as Blakey; best compendium on organized crime. See also Contract on America (perhaps updated version of Kingfish).

Seth Kantor Who Was Jack Ruby

James Kirkwood, American Grotesque (about Garrison)

Priscilla McMillan, Marina & Lee useful, parts may not be accurate;
allegations about her CIA role are inflated

Silvia Meaghar: index very important; Accessories mostly out of date

Albert Newman, Assassination of President Kennedy

John Newman (ask Hock for his opinion on)

David Schein, Contract on America (valuable for research, poorly written; knows mob well; no fresh research)

Hoffa:

Walter Sheridan, Rise and Fall. Very authoritative and careful

Dan Moldea, Hoffa Wars esp chapters on assassination.

Steven Brill, The Teamsters

Clark Marlinoff, Tentacles of Power

Hoover:

Gentry

Git Powers

Summers

Sanford Unger

Thea Harris, The Boss

Arvid DeMaris, The Director

RFK, Enemy Within

Meyer Lansky

Robert Lacey, Little Man

Hank Messick, Lansky (many mistakes)

Virgil Peterson, The Mob: 200 years best book on the mob

Ralph Salerno, excellent book. Ask Blakey where he is.

Summers (not totally trustworthy)

Josiah Thompson, good guy, book is dated.

Cyril Wecht, most respected doctor critical of WR.

Fensterwald: Coincidence or Conspiracy. Lesar will have copy.

Judy Exner bio. Her later statements are less trustworthy. Get her statements to the Church Committee.

Goldberg book pans:

Henry Hurt

Epstein Inquest is the only one to read.

Garrison

Mark North

O'Toole, Assassination Tapes

Howard Rothman, Presumed Guilty

Avoid like the plague: Webberman; Michael Edows; Penn Jones; Mark

Lane; Robert Morrow; Prouty;

Dick Russell (not really solid)

Harold Weisberg -- too cranky.

Jim Lesar

suggests looking at:

Lonny Hudkins (testimony to Church Committee)

People involved with Arbenz coup: Johnny Roselli; E. Howard Hunt;
David Phillips; John Martino.

Frank Lawrence

See Dallas interview notes.

If Oswald in ONI, he would have been in a group. The group would have a number. Get his group number. Get all ONI group numbers for 57-63.

SS firing range is in National Arboretum.
