

*Assassination Records Review Board
Analysis and Review Staff
Initial Assignments*

Christopher Barger (Analyst). Chris resigned from his position as an Intelligence Specialist in the Navy in order to join us. He graduated in 1993 from the University of Minnesota in history and political science. (Military/CIA)

Gene Burpoe (Senior Analyst). Gene comes most recently from the Pentagon, where he served as a Policy and Missions Staff Specialist in the Office of the Secretary of Defense/Assistant Secretary for Special Operations and Low Intensity Conflict. He served in that position as a Presidential appointee. (Military)

Carolyn Carpenter (Senior Analyst). Carolyn was formerly with CIA where she worked in Counterintelligence and in the Soviet Russia Division. While at CIA she worked with Soviet defectors and helped write the Cram history of the Counterintelligence Division during the Angleton years. (CIA)

Laura Denk (Attorney-Analyst). Laura is an honors graduate from the University of Kansas Law School and from William & Mary, where she majored in philosophy and government. She has most recently been working at the public interest law firm Bernabei & Katz. (FBI/Justice)

Joe Freeman (Senior Analyst). Joe comes to us from Capitol Hill where he served, most recently, as a Legislative Assistant to Congressman

Swett. He was graduated from Harvard with a magna cum laude in Government. (Congress/ HSCA/GAO)

Phil Golrick (Senior Attorney-Analyst). Phil was a litigator at Covington & Burling where he earned a reputation as a brilliant and hardworking attorney. He received his B.A. from the University of Virginia (with highest honors) and graduated first in his class from the UVA Law School. (FBI/Justice/Treasury)

Doug Horne (Senior Analyst). Doug comes farther than anyone else to join us. He has worked for the Navy (within the service and as a civilian) at Pearl Harbor in Hawaii. He has had a longstanding interest in the Kennedy assassination. (unassigned)

Manuel Legaspi (Analyst). Manuel received his B.A. in Political Science from Berkeley and an M.A. in National Security Studies at Georgetown. He recently worked as an Analyst at Los Alamos National Laboratory in the International Security Division. (CIA/NSC/State)

Tammi Long (Attorney-Analyst). Tammi will be joining us at the end of the academic year. She currently is a third-year student at Emory University School of Law. She received her B.A. in International Politics from Georgetown. (unassigned)

Mary McAuliffe (Supervisory Analyst). Mary received her Ph.D. in American History from the University of Maryland. She was on the CIA history staff from 1986 to 1994. She has written several works on intelligence and national security matters. (CIA).

Dennis Quinn (Senior Attorney-Analyst). Dennis is a lawyer who worked most recently as Special Counsel to the President. At the White House he worked on background investigations of potential presidential nominees. He earlier served as General Counsel to an amphibious squadron in matters related to the Persian Gulf War. (FBI/Justice/Treasury)

Eric Scheinkopf (Analyst). Eric was a Legislative Assistant for International Affairs for Senator Inouye. As a specialist in foreign relations matters, he received a top secret clearance. He graduated with distinction from the Johns Hopkins School for Advanced International Studies. (CIA/State)

Michelle Seguin (Analyst). Michelle, a political science and French graduate from the University of Michigan, has been a Legal Assistant at Covington & Burling for the past two and one half years. She has decided to postpone attending graduate school in international relations in order to participate in this project. Her references speak of her in extremely glowing terms as smart, organized, and professional. (CIA/State)

Robert Skwirot (Analyst). Bob, like Tammi, will be joining us at the end of the academic year. He currently is a history graduate student at Villanova where he is carrying a straight-A GPA. He graduated maxima cum laude in history from LaSalle University. (unassigned)

Kevin Tiernan (Analyst). Kevin has experience that is more immediately relevant than any other analyst. He worked on the JFK project at the National Archives. His references praised him as their best Archives Technician on the JFK project and as a person who went out of his way to assist others. Kevin graduated from Mary Washington College in American Studies. (FBI/DEA/Justice)

Joan Zimmerman (Senior Analyst). Joan received her Ph.D. in American History from the University of Virginia. She has taught at Harvard, UCLA, Oberlin, Colgate, and the University of Maryland. She also obtained a Master of Studies in Law from Yale University. (FBI/Secret Service)