

The FBI appealed a vote of the Review Board in a petition to the President dated August 3, 1998. The members of the FBI team spent several days this month researching the issues surrounding the appealed records, and the Executive Director wrote the Review Board's response. The F.B.I. team also continued the processing of F.B.I. records by negotiating 5,771 pages of F.B.I. documents in the August. Subjects negotiated include the following: Anthony Giacalone, CIA Liaison, Quentin Pino Machado, John Howard Lawson, and Fred Randaccio.
