

1302 North Jackson Street
Arlington, Virginia 22201
October 15, 1996

Justice William J. Brennan
Supreme Court of the United States
One First Street, NE
Washington, D.C. 20543

Dear Justice Brennan:

It was a real honor to be your guest for lunch with Father O'Hara last week. It is a memory that I will always treasure. I must admit that I was a bit intimidated at the notion of coming to the Court, but the good graces of you and your staff put me instantly at ease.

You have been a true friend and hero to Father Jack, and you should know that he feels blessed by your friendship. Thank you, again.

Sincerely,

Kevin Tiernan