

K. Judith Campbell Exner (FBI-42)

Judith Campbell Exner claims to have been the link between President Kennedy and the Mafia, specifically Sam Giancana and Johnny Roselli. She was introduced to JFK by Frank Sinatra during the Presidential primary campaign in the spring of 1960. She claims to have had a love affair with JFK that lasted from January (February?) of 1960 until March of 1962. In 1975 she gained attention in the national media when she made these allegations in testimony before the Church Committee in its investigation of the CIA plots to assassinate Fidel Castro. Between 1976 and 1997, Ms. Exner filed numerous lawsuits against the FBI seeking access to all information held in government records on her. The Review Board requested access to all FBI headquarters and field office main files on Judith Campbell Exner.

The FBI produced several small field office files containing press clipping collected on Ms. Exner, as well as several files which reflect Ms. Campbell's efforts to gain access to information on her in the FBI's files. The FBI also produced several files with references women with names similar to Judith Campbell Exner. The Review Board designated as assassination records all serials which were either main files on Ms. Exner, or made reference to Ms. Exner. The Review Board also designated the entire FBI file on the murder of Johnny Roselli which was produced under this request.

L. H.L. Hunt and family/Clint Murchison and family (FBI-38)

There have been allegations that the assassination of President Kennedy was masterminded by wealthy Dallas oilmen H.L. Hunt and Clint Murchison. The Review Board requested access to all FBI headquarters and Dallas field office files on the following individuals during the period 1960 through 1969: H.L. Hunt; Nelson Bunker Hunt; Lamar Hunt; Clint Murchison, Sr.; Clint Murchison, Jr.; and Paul M. Rothermel. There were many documents with references to the Hunts, the Murchisons and Rothermel, but the documents were primarily concerned with their business dealings or their political activities. The Review Board designated ten documents from the files produced in response to this request. Each of these newly designated assassination records were dated after President Kennedy's assassination, and were concerned with allegations that either the Hunts or the Murchisons were involved in the assassination.
