

Jeremy:

I have reviewed this stack of internship applications and although none of the applicants are bad, none strike me as particularly great, either. If you would like to quickly review their applications and perhaps save someone from a rejection letter, please do. Otherwise, I will have Noelle send them the bad news.

I did set up an interview with Krista LaBelle (Northwestern undergrad/GW law school/Jenner & Block project assistant in Chicago). She will be coming in next Friday, March 29, at 2:00.

Thanks.

Laura
