

From the CIA Team:

We read your draft;
It looked fine to us four.
We expect no chaff;
Let the CIA roar.

Though a tardy reply
We have the CIA to carry.
We ask them to comply
And write questions for Barry.

With Barry and company
We scan, point, and click,
To do the Board's bidding
and make it really stick.

The documents move by us.
We believe it a coup,
That this year's grand total
Is 2-8-5-2.

Perhaps next year's report
Will have a big section
On our efforts to sort
The Sequestered Collection.

On this year's missive,
There is little to add.
We are not dismissive,
We think it not bad.
