

Permindex

“Permanent Industrial Exhibition”

based in Basel, Switzerland

“Parent Company” (usually referred to as “associated with”) is Centro Mondiale Commerciale (CMC)

creation announced on December 28, 1956

plans included a trade center, a hotel, and an office center

moved to Italy in 1958

Ferenc Nagy

Hans Seligman (?)

George Mandel (Mantello)

Clay Shaw

Jean DeMenil (Schlumberger Corporation)

CMC created in 1961, by Louis Bloomfield (former OSS)

Nagy on CMC board

Gutierrez di Spadaforo

Giuseppe Zigiotti (Italian fascist)

accused of funneling money to the Secret Army Organization (OAS) which had targeted Charles de Gaulle for assassination.

Moved to Rome in 1958

Italian press exposed CMC’s mission and the company moved to South Africa