David G. Marwell
Executive Director
Assassination Records Review Board
600 E Street, NW
Washington, D.C. 20530

Dear David:

I am writing to inform you of my intention to resign as Analyst from the Assassination Records Review Board, effective July 26, 1996. As you know, I will be attending the School of International and Public Affairs at Columbia University in the fall. Because I am uncertain of my relocation date, I may wish to stay with the Review Board for a couple of days or up to a week more than the date referenced above. If this is a problem, please let me know.

My experience with the Review Board has been rewarding, both professionally and personally. I have learned much about post-World War II history and the intelligence community and have been exposed to many aspects of government and public administration. I hope to use the knowledge that I have gained here in improving my future career. More importantly, I have truly enjoyed working with the staff of the Review Board. Some of the relationships that I have developed will probably be the one thing that will remain permanent in my life after my departure.

Thank you for the opportunity to have been part of this very important historical endeavor. I wish you and the rest of the staff the best of luck in completing the enormous task ahead.

Sincerely yours,

Michelle Seguin
