

In addition, after consultations with ARRB staff, the FBI has agreed to open in full the following assassination records, which previously contained postponements.