For the period October 1, 1996 through March 31, 1997, the Assassination Records Review Board accepted payments in excess of $250 from non-Federal sources as authorized by 31 U.S.C. § 1353 as listed below:

1) November 19, 1996 - - Review Board Chair John R. Tunheim received airfare, ground transportation from the airport and a breakfast allowance from Harpo Productions in relation to his appearance as a guest on an episode of the Oprah Winfrey Show. The ground transportation for both employees was valued at a total of $134, and the total breakfast allowance was $20 (provided in cash). I have attached a receipt for Chairman Tunheim's airfare to this report. The episode was taped at 110 N. Carpenter Street, Chicago, IL 60607.
