

December 31, 1996

Ms. Carolyn V. Amato
1929 Shiver Drive
Alexandria, VA 22307

Dear Ms. Amato:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Giulia M. Barrow
136 13th Street, S.E.
Washington, DC 20003

Dear Ms. Barrow:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Colleen T. Boland
3529 O Street, NW
Washington, DC 20007

Dear Ms. Boland:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Sheryl Lynn Bonifer
1521 Colonial Dr.
Apt. T-1
Woodbridge, VA 22192

Dear Ms. Bonifer:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Kenneth E. Brooten , Jr.
631 W. Fairbanks Avenue
Winter Park, FL 32789

Dear Mr. Brooten:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. William Brown
13620 Landers Drive
Hudson, FL 34667

Dear Mr. Brown:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Claire L. Brown
715 Westcliff Road
Wilmington, DE 19803

Dear Ms. Brown:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. James K. Conzelman
1530 O Street, N.W.
Washington, DC 20005

Dear Mr. Conzelman:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Cynthia S. Cooper
98 Elkwood Avenue
New Providence, NJ 07974

Dear Ms. Cooper:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Gary T. Cornwell
11 Pleasure Cove
Spring, TX 77381

Dear Mr. Cornwell:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. William H. Cross
3760 Laurel Drive
Indian Head, MD 20640

Dear Mr. Cross:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Clarence J. Day
4729 10th Street, N.E.
Washington, DC 20017

Dear Mr. Day:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Eileen G. Dinneen
2602 Arbor Trl
Colleyville, TX 76034

Dear Ms. Dinneen:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Paul A. Dipaolo
2495 Sanders Road
Sebastopol, CA 95472

Dear Mr. Dipaolo:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Jane L. Downey
2123 Beach Village Court
Apt. 201
Annapolis, MD 21403

Dear Ms. Downey:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Kevin Sean Doyle
54 Revere Place
Buffalo, NY 14214

Dear Mr. Doyle:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Linda Mae Eanes
301 Washington Street
Hampton, VA 23669

Dear Ms. Eanes:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Michael Ewing
1068 Woodland Park Drive
West Des Moines, IA 50266

Dear Mr. Ewing:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Richard J. Feeney
4845 Glenbrook Road, N.W.
Washington, DC 20016

Dear Mr. Feeney:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Clifford E. Fenton , Jr.
108 Swinley Forest Drive
Williamsburg, VA 23188

Dear Mr. Fenton:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Dorothy ("Sue") Ferrari
3025 North Military Road
Arlington, VA 22207

Dear Ms. Ferrari:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. T. M. Flanagan , Jr.
805 Olde Georgetown Ct.
Great Falls, VA 22066

Dear Mr. Flanagan:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Thomas M. Gannon
5607 Durbin Road
Bethesda, MD 20814

Dear Mr. Gannon:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Donovan Lamar Gay
6202 Swords Way
Bethesda, MD 20817

Dear Mr. Gay:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Robert W. Genzman
1851 Wind Harbor Road
Orlando, FL 32809

Dear Mr. Genzman:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Howard M. Gilbert
1950 Bronson Way
Riverside, CA 92506

Dear Mr. Gilbert:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Michael E. Goldsmith
2697 Cottage LP
Park City, UT 84098

Dear Mr. Goldsmith:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Albert Gonzales
3232 Military Avenue
Los Angeles, CA 90034

Dear Mr. Gonzales:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Mary S. Grimes
2732 P Street, N.W.
Washington, DC 20007

Dear Ms. Grimes:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Jacqueline Hess
7408 Beverly Manor Drive
Annandale, VA 22003

Dear Ms. Hess:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Thomas A. Howarth
24 Fairway Lane
Berlin, MD 21811

Dear Mr. Howarth:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Margo E. Jackson
1605 Aragona Boulevard
Fort Washington, MD 20744

Dear Ms. Jackson:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Francis J. Kelly
6621 Billings Drive
Annandale, VA 22003

Dear Mr. Kelly:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Kenneth D. Klein
24112 Wildwood Canyon Road
Newhall, CA 91321

Dear Mr. Klein:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Dorothy W. Kuhn
11620 Ranch Lane
Gaithersburg, MD 20878

Dear Ms. Kuhn:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Johanna S. Lapiere
1814 Drury Lane
Alexandria, VA 22307

Dear Ms. Lapiere:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Joyce A. Larkin
1807 Barrington Court
Bowie, MD 20721

Dear Ms. Larkin:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Billie Gay Larson
422 Kentucky Avenue, S.E.
Washington, DC 20003

Dear Ms. Larson:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Belford V. Lawson III
5425 Grove Ridge Way
Rockville, MD 20852

Dear Mr. Lawson:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Alvin B. Lewis Jr, Esq.
121 S. Duke Street
Lancaster, PA 17602

Dear Mr. Lewis:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Edwin J. Lopez
51 Bellview Drive
Rochester, NY 14609

Dear Mr. Lopez:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Mitchell A. Mars
201 N. Delaplaine Road
Riverside, IL 60546

Dear Mr. Mars:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Rebecca W. Martin
462 Luna Court
Escordido, CA 92124

Dear Ms. Martin:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Margaret C. Mason
111 Murray Fork Drive
Fayetteville, NC 28314

Dear Ms. Mason:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Isaiah C. Mathews
20 Canterbury Street
Hartford, CT 06112

Dear Mr. Mathews:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Leodis C. Matthews
621 Bay Street
Santa Monica, CA 90405

Dear Mr. Matthews:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Denise Louise McCray
1813 Clark Place
Capital Heights, MD 20743

Dear Ms. McCray:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. James E. McDonald
7260 SW 132nd Street
Miami, FL 33156

Dear Mr. McDonald:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Vivian L. McPherson
234 Washington Street
Hampton, VA 23669

Dear Ms. McPherson:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Dawne C. Miller
702 Bay Front Avenue
North Beach, MD 20714

Dear Ms. Miller:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Ida J. Ross
4201 Cathedral Avenue, N.W.
Apt. 1116E
Washington, DC 20016

Dear Mr. Ross:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Ann T. Schaeffer
5611 N. 15th Street
Arlington, VA 23205

Dear Ms. Schaeffer:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Howard L. Shapiro
6365 Old Dominion Drive
McLean, VA 22101

Dear Mr. Shapiro:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Rev. Constance C. Smith
1912 Forest Park Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21207

Dear Rev. Smith:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Richard A. Sprague
135 S. 19th Street
Apt, 400
Philadelphia, PA 19130

Dear Mr. Sprague:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Lance W. Svendsen
722 Sawgrass Lane
Mount Pleasant, SC 29464

Dear Mr. Svendsen:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Mr. Robert Karl Tanenbaum
708 N. Roxbury Drive
Beverly Hills, CA 90210

Dear Mr. Tanenbaum:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Joan Talbert Thornell
113 56th Street, S.E.
Washington, DC 20019

Dear Ms. Thornell:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Beth L. Veihmeyer
10024 Kendale Rd
Potomac, MD 20854

Dear Ms. Veihmeyer:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

December 31, 1996

Ms. Nancy S. Wallace
2007 Paseo Laro
San Clemente, CA 92673

Dear Ms. Wallace:

As you may be aware, Congress enacted the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992, 44 U.S.C. § 2107 (Supp. V 1994), for the purpose of collecting records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. The Act established the Assassination Records Review Board to oversee the process of locating assassination records, declassifying them, and transferring them to the JFK Collection at the National Archives. Much of the Review Board's work thus far has been devoted to declassifying records from the CIA, FBI, and the HSCA. The Review Board has taken a vigorous approach to declassifying formerly sensitive agency records.

I am writing in regard to your work as an HSCA staff member. We are appealing to you – as well as your former colleagues – to contact us regarding records that you may have preserved from the time of your work with the HSCA. We believe that there are significant – and unique – records in the hands of former staffers. One of your former colleagues, for example, sent us her copies of records that were no longer available from the relevant agency. These records are now an important part of the collection.

We understand that some of you may have concerns about your possessing such records. I wish to assure you that we are not inquiring into the propriety of why such records may have been kept, but in seeing that all assassination records become available to the American public. To the extent that this assurance is insufficient, please call Brian Rosen of our staff, who would be pleased to discuss the matter with you further.

We very much hope that you will get in touch with us.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director

Ms. Carolyn V. Amato
1929 Shiver Drive
Alexandria, VA 22307

Ms. Giulia M. Barrow
136 13th Street, S.E.
Washington, DC 20003

Ms. Colleen T. Boland
3529 O Street, NW
Washington, DC 20007

Ms. Sheryl Lynn Bonifer
1521 Colonial Dr.
Apt. T-1
Woodbridge, VA 22192

Mr. Kenneth E. Brooten
631 W. Fairbanks Avenue
Winter Park, FL 32789

Mr. William Brown
13620 Landers Drive
Hudson, FL 34667

Ms. Claire L. Brown
715 Westcliff Road
Wilmington, DE 19803

Mr. James K. Conzelman
1530 O Street, N.W.
Washington, DC 20005

Ms. Cynthia S. Cooper
98 Elkwood Avenue
New Providence, NJ 07974

Mr. Gary T. Cornwell
11 Pleasure Cove
Spring, TX 77381

Mr. William H. Cross
3760 Laurel Drive
Indian Head, MD 20640

Mr. Clarence J. Day
4729 10th Street, N.E.
Washington, DC 20017

Ms. Eileen G. Dinneen
2602 Arbor Trl
Colleyville, TX 76034

Mr. Paul A. Dipaolo
2495 Sanders Road
Sebastopol, CA 95472

Ms. Jane L. Downey
2123 Beach Village Court
Apt. 201
Annapolis, MD 21403

Mr. Kevin Sean Doyle
54 Revere Place
Buffalo, NY 14214

Ms. Linda Mae Eanes
301 Washington Street
Hampton, VA 23669

Mr. Michael Ewing
1068 Woodland Park Drive
West Des Moines, IA 50266

Mr. Richard J. Feeney
4845 Glenbrook Road, N.W.
Washington, DC 20016

Mr. Clifford E. Fenton
108 Swinley Forest Drive
Williamsburg, VA 23188

Ms. Dorothy ("Sue") Ferrari
3025 North Military Road
Arlington, VA 22207

Mr. T. M. Flanagan
805 Olde Georgetown Ct.
Great Falls, VA 22066

Mr. Thomas M. Gannon
5607 Durbin Road
Bethesda, MD 20814

Mr. Donovan Lamar Gay
6202 Swords Way
Bethesda, MD 20817

Mr. Robert W. Genzman
1851 Wind Harbor Road
Orlando, FL 32809

Mr. Howard M. Gilbert
1950 Bronson Way
Riverside, CA 92506

Mr. Michael E. Goldsmith
2697 Cottage LP
Park City, UT 84098

Mr. Albert Gonzales
3232 Military Avenue
Los Angeles, CA 90034

Ms. Mary S. Grimes
2732 P Street, N.W.
Washington, DC 20007

Ms. Jacqueline Hess
7408 Beverly Manor Drive
Annandale, VA 22003

Mr. Thomas A. Howarth
24 Fairway Lane
Berlin, MD 21811

Ms. Margo E. Jackson
1605 Aragona Boulevard
Fort Washington, MD 20744

Mr. Francis J. Kelly
6621 Billings Drive
Annandale, VA 22003

Mr. Kenneth D. Klein
24112 Wildwood Canyon Road
Newhall, CA 91321

Ms. Dorothy W. Kuhn
11620 Ranch Lane
Gaithersburg, MD 20878

Ms. Johanna S. Lapierre
1814 Drury Lane
Alexandria, VA 22307

Ms. Joyce A. Larkin
1807 Barrington Court
Bowie, MD 20721

Ms. Billie Gay Larson
422 Kentucky Avenue, S.E.
Washington, DC 20003

Mr. Belford V. Lawson
5425 Grove Ridge Way
Rockville, MD 20852

Mr. Alvin B. Lewis
121 S. Duke Street
Lancaster, PA 17602

Mr. Edwin J. Lopez
51 Bellview Drive
Rochester, NY 14609

Mr. Mitchell A. Mars
201 N. Delaplaine Road
Riverside, IL 60546

Ms. Rebecca W. Martin
462 Luna Court
Escordido, CA 92124

Ms. Margaret C. Mason
111 Murray Fork Drive
Fayetteville, NC 28314

Mr. Isaiah C. Mathews
20 Canterbury Street
Hartford, CT 06112

Mr. Leodis C. Matthews
621 Bay Street
Santa Monica, CA 90405

Ms. Denise Louise McCray
1813 Clark Place
Capital Heights, MD 20743

Mr. James E. McDonald
7260 SW 132nd Street
Miami, FL 33156

Ms. Vivian L. McPherson
234 Washington Street
Hampton, VA 23669

Ms. Dawne C. Miller
702 Bay Front Avenue
North Beach, MD 20714

Mr. Ida J. Ross
4201 Cathedral Avenue, N.W.
Apt. 1116E
Washington, DC 20016

Ms. Ann T. Schaeffer
5611 N. 15th Street
Arlington, VA 23205

Mr. Howard L. Shapiro
6365 Old Dominion Drive
McLean, VA 22101

Rev. Constance C. Smith
1912 Forest Park Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21207

Mr. Richard A. Sprague
135 S. 19th Street
Apt, 400
Philadelphia, PA 19130

Mr. Lance W. Svendsen
722 Sawgrass Lane
Mount Pleasant, SC 29464

Mr. Robert Karl Tanenbaum
708 N. Roxbury Drive
Beverly Hills, CA 90210

Ms. Joan Talbert Thornell
113 56th Street, S.E.
Washington, DC 20019

Ms. Beth L. Veihmeyer
10024 Kendale Rd
Potomac, MD 20854

Ms. Nancy S. Wallace
2007 Paseo Laro
San Clemente, CA 92673