Dear Sara:

I would like to thank you and Stanford in Government for the kind offer to have me come and discuss the assassination of President Kennedy and the work of the Review Board. I accept your offer with pleasure, including the offer of transportation, although I must decline the offer of an honorarium.

As we discussed by e-mail, I can be at Stanford on March 2, and I will be at your disposition for the time of the talk.

I look forward to being in touch with you further.

Sincerely,

T. Jeremy Gunn
Executive Director
