Dear Dan:

I would like to thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to meet with Tom Samoluk and me on December 3, 1997. We appreciate your interest and ready willingness to assist us in completing our work in a timely manner. As we noted at the meeting, your proactive monitoring of our progress has already had a positive impact.

Again, thank you for all of your assistance. It was a pleasure meeting you on Wednesday and I look forward to continuing to work with you. Please do not hesitate to call me if you have any questions, comments or require additional information.

Sincerely,

T. Jeremy Gunn
Executive Director
