Re: Public Release of Church Committee Records under the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act

Dear Ms. Wilhelm:

Enclosed are additional Church Committee records to be released or processed under the JFK Act, as follows:

1. Records Released in Full

The following records have been approved for release in full by the relevant agencies.¹ Accordingly, please process and transmit these records to the JFK Collection:

- October 24, 1975 Affidavit of Marion Boggs
- July 8, 1975 Memorandum from Bob Kelley to Files re: Summary of Interview with McGeorge Bundy

2. Records Released in Part

The following records have been approved for release, but the relevant agencies have sought to postpone release of certain portions. Accordingly, please process these records (i.e., prepare record identification forms) and return them to the Review Board so that the Board can vote on the proposed postponements. These records are:

- February 11, 1976 Testimony of AMLASH Case Officer
- June 20, 1975 Testimony of William Colby
- July 11, 1975 Testimony of McGeorge Bundy

Thank you for your assistance in processing these records under the JFK Act. As I have mentioned to you, we anticipate designating and processing, in coordination with the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence and the Center for Legislative Archives (NARA), additional Church Committee records.

Sincerely,

Ronald G. Haron
Associate General Counsel
