Dear Jim:

This fax is to follow up on the one I sent you on August 4, 1995. I would appreciate any documents you can send (fax) that indicate the docket number and case name of the law suit Jim Garrison filed in the DC Court of General Sessions.

On the matter of Mr. Hemard and the tape he had, please send copies of whatever references you have to this lead (the memo). It may help me identify just which Hemard in the telephone book I should contact.

I just spoke with Zach Sklar (I'd called him just after your August 3 fax, but I think he's been away). We spoke about the footnote in Garrison's book about Gochenaur's story concerning Carver Gayton. He said he had no information beyond what was in the footnote, but I was glad to have spoken with him.

I saw on the fax machine early this morning that you sent a letter to Tom Samoluk. Tom is on vacation until next Monday, and I think you'd be best talking to him about your requests. I put your fax in his "in-box."

Thank you for sending the information I requested. Please call or fax if anything else comes up. The leads you've been able to provide have been helpful and very informative. On behalf of the Review Board, I appreciate your time and interest.

Sincerely,

Anne Buttimer, Esq.
Chief Investigator
