

STIPULATION DATED AUGUST 30, 1995

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and the Assassination Records Review Board (ARRB) stipulate and agree to the following:

1. The ARRB hereby withdraws from Presidential consideration its recommendations regarding the release of the documents identified in Attachments A and B hereto.
2. The FBI hereby withdraws from Presidential consideration its appeal of the ARRB's recommendations regarding the release of the documents identified in Attachments A and B hereto.
3. The FBI shall have thirty days from the date of this Stipulation to provide the ARRB with additional evidence in support of the FBI's postponements of information in the documents identified in Attachment A hereto, after which the ARRB will issue an appropriate determination.
4. The FBI will cooperate with the ARRB in asking the Department of State to approach through appropriate diplomatic channels the foreign government in question, on an expedited basis, to seek its consent to release of the information postponed in the documents identified in Attachment B hereto. The ARRB will issue an appropriate determination upon receipt of a response from the government in question, but in any event, no later than thirty days from the date of this Stipulation.

John R. Tunheim, Chairman
Assassination Records Review Board

The Honorable Louis J. Freeh, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
