

STIPULATION DATED AUGUST 30, 1995

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and the Assassination Records Review Board (ARRB) stipulate and agree to the following:

1. The ARRB hereby withdraws from Presidential consideration its recommendations regarding the release of the documents identified in Attachments A and B hereto.
2. The FBI hereby withdraws from Presidential consideration its appeal of the ARRB's recommendations regarding the release of the documents identified in Attachments A and B hereto.
3. The FBI shall have thirty days from the date of this Stipulation to provide the ARRB with additional evidence in support of the FBI's postponements in the documents identified in Attachment A hereto, after which the ARRB will resubmit recommendations regarding the postponements.
4. The FBI and the ARRB understand that the Department of State shall, on an expedited basis, approach through appropriate diplomatic channels the foreign government in question to seek its consent to release of the information postponed in the documents identified in Attachment B hereto. The ARRB will resubmit recommendations regarding these postponements no earlier than thirty days from the date of this Stipulation.

John R. Tunheim, Chairman
Assassination Records Review Board

The Honorable Louis J. Freeh, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
