

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Ben Nighthorse Campbell
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Campbell:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Daniel P. Moynihan
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Moynihan:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable J. Robert Kerrey
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Kerrey:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Paul D. Wellstone
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Wellstone:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Strom Thurmond
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Thurmond:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Trent Lott
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Lott:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Don Nickles
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Nickles:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Larry E. Craig
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Craig:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Thomas A. Daschle
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Daschle:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Wendell H. Ford
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Ford:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Gary Sisco
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Sisco:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Gregory S. Casey
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Casey:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Elizabeth Greene
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Greene:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Marty Paone
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Paone:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Robert Dove
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Dove:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Sharon Zelaska
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Zelaska:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Fred Thompson
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Thompson:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable William V. Roth, Jr.
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Roth, Jr.:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Ted Stevens
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Stevens:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Susan M. Collins
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Collins:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Sam Brownback
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Brownback:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Pete V. Domenici
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Domenici:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Thad Cochran
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Cochran:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Don Nickles
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Nickles:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Arlen Specter
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Specter:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable John Glenn
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Glenn:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Carl Levin
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Levin:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Joseph I. Lieberman
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Lieberman:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Daniel K. Akaka
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Akaka:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Richard J. Durbin
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Durbin:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Robert G. Torricelli
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Torricelli:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director

September 24, 1998

The Honorable Max W. Cleland
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Cleland:

The Assassination Records Review Board will present its Final Report to the United States Congress on Tuesday, September 29, 1998 at 2:00 p.m. in Room EF-100 of the Capitol building.

The Review Board is the independent federal agency that Congress established as part of the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 (JFK Act.) The Board has endeavored to obtain records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy and to release those records to the fullest extent possible. The Review Board has successfully completed its work as mandated by the JFK Act and will cease operations on September 30, 1998.

The Review Board is honored to have participated with you in this important declassification project that, we believe, will go a long way in restoring the American public's trust in its government. We would be delighted if you could attend.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Denk, Esq.
Executive Director