New York, NY 10010

Dear Mr. Agel:

Per your request, I have enclosed the selected portions of the AP wire copy that was made available to the public recently by the Review Board.

This material is now available in its entirety in the JFK Collection at the National Archives and Records Administration in College Park, Maryland. The language in section 9(a) of the Deed of Gift states, "It is the Donor's wish that the Donated Materials be made available for use by the public as soon after and to the fullest extent possible following their inclusion in the JFK Collection. For this reason, the Donor places no restrictions on the use of the Donated Materials." I hope this clarifies the status of the material. If you have additional questions about this, you may wish to contact a representative at the National Archives.

Sincerely,

Eileen A. Sullivan
Press and Public Affairs Officer
