re: Advance copy -- ARRB Federal Register notice
date: July 5, 2017
pages: 8, including cover sheet.

Dear Brian:

Per our conversation yesterday, accompanying this cover sheet is an advance copy of the Assassination Records Review Board's proposed interpretive regulations, scheduled for publication tomorrow. These regulations are intended to provide guidance for interpretation of certain terms in the Act, including the definition of "assassination record." The proposed regulations also provide guidance for the implementation of other provisions of the Act.

These proposed regulations will be published in the February 8 Federal Register and are in the Federal Register reading room today. The Board has requested public comment and set a 30 day comment period (which will end at close of business, March 10).

If you have any questions or comments or know of anyone else who should receive a courtesy copy, please let me know. Thanks for all of your assistance on this; I look forward to getting together with you soon.

Best regards,

From the desk of...
