Dear Ron:

Thanks for lending me your copy of the report of the Privacy Commission, Personal Privacy in an Information Age. I've had a copy made for the Board's reference of certain chapters that touch on issues with which they'll be dealing, and I believe it will be a very useful resource for the Board's staff as well.

Given that this volume is out of print, your generous loan to us is especially appreciated. I hope I'll be able to call on you again in the future for your advice and assistance.

Let's get together for lunch sometime soon!

Best regards,

*Sheryl L. Walter
General Counsel*

P.S. -- I spoke with Janlori Goldman per my conversation with your secretary, Phyllis, who said she doesn't need an extra photocopy made so I'm sending this directly back to you. Thanks again!
