NATIONAL SECURITY FILE

Files of the Special Committee of the National Security Council

These are the files of McGeorge Bundy when he served as Executive Secretary of the Special Committee of the National Security Council established on June 7, 1967, by President Johnson to coordinate handling of the Middle East crisis. The Committee ended its formal work in mid-August, and the files contain an August 24, 1967, letter from Bundy to the President recommending arrangements for continuing the work of the Committee through the normal machinery of government.

NATIONAL SECURITY FILE

National Security Council Histories

Compiled by the NSC staff in 1968, these collections of documents deal with twenty-one international crises or issues during the Johnson Administration. The histories consist mainly of xerox copies of key documents from the National Security File and other files, usually arranged in chronological order. Most of the histories also include introductory and background material, such as chronologies, document lists, and brief narrative overviews.
