

Floyd Riebe Comments on Film Exposed and Cameras Used at JFK Autopsy

	HSCA Interview in April 1978	Lifton Interview in November 1979	Lifton Interview in July 1989	Livingstone Interview(s) in 1991	Craig Colgan Newspaper Interview in November 1993	ARRB Interview in July 1996
Film He Exposed	Not Specified	6 total frames (from 3 duplex holders)--not specified whether color or B & W; also 35 mm color--Ektachrome "X" type film (# exp. not specified)	2 B & W Film Packs which held 12 ea 4" X 5" sheets of film--total of 24 B & W 4" X 5" sheets; also 1 roll of 35 mm color (20 exp.); also denied taking any 120 film	5 rolls of 35 mm film; also 4 ea B & W film packs (which held 12 each sheets of film)	5 rolls of 35 mm film	2 B & W Press Packs of 12 ea sheets of film; also 3 or 4 duplex film holders of color positive transparency film; and 1 roll of 35 mm color Ektachrome (20 exp.). "Could have" taken 120 film
Cameras He Used (Aside from Stringer's Tripod-Mounted View Camera)	35 mm Canon and Speed-graph 4" X 5" View Camera	35 mm Canon --and 4" X 5" Graflex View Camera	35 mm and Speed Graflex 4" X 5" View Camera	Not Specified	Not Specified	Not Specified

