

10/2/95; 12:38 p.m.

On the Record on the Four FBI Informant Documents

On these four documents (some of which have duplicates), the Review Board has voted to release all substantive information.

The Review Board voted to keep a small portion of three of the documents redacted because they viewed the redacted information as not furthering an understanding of the assassination.