Reference is made to your letterhead memorandum dated November 27, 1978, at Memphis, Tennessee, and captioned "Assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr., April 4, 1968, Memphis, Tennessee." Reference is also made to your teletype dated November 21, 1978, at Memphis, Tennessee, of the same caption.

These documents were released to the Criminal Division by Robert L. Keuch, Special Counsel for the Attorney General, for a determination as to whether or not any possible criminal violations were indicated which merited further investigation. The Criminal Division has carefully reviewed these documents and has determined that no further investigation is necessary.

Louis Stokes
Chairman
House Select Committee on Assassinations
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Chairman:

As you may recall on November 18, 1978, I voluntarily appeared to testify before the House Select Committee on Assassinations concerning certain remarks that I allegedly made to former Special Agent Arthur Murtaugh.

On January 5, 1979, portions of the subsequent testimony of Mr. Charles Brennan, retired FBI Agent, were made known to me. During Mr. Brennan's testimony you stated that I had admitted under oath that I was racially prejudiced. I wish to bring to your attention that at no time during my testimony did I ever make any statement concerning racial prejudice toward Dr. King. I have carefully reviewed my testimony and at no time did the matter of race ever arise. I testified before you that my "personal prejudice" toward Dr. King was based on my conviction that his reported association with the Communist Party was the basis for his being a threat to national security.

As it was the purpose of the House Select Committee on Assassinations to seek the truth regarding the King assassination, I feel it is incumbent that this matter be clarified.

I completely refute your statement that I was racially prejudiced, as racial bigotry is personally repugnant to me. For these reasons I respectfully request that a copy of this communication be included as an addendum to the House Select Committee on Assassinations report.

Respectfully,

JAMES J. ROSE
Special Agent
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Albany, New York
