THE HEARST CASE. The San Francisco Office contacted WFO, who advised that the area code 212 was a New York area code and not Washington, D.C. FBI, San Francisco, telephoned the number 212-924-7586. A male answered the phone and a request was made to speak with ROBERT LEE LEWIS, who then came to the phone. The San Francisco agent identified himself as an FBI agent to LEWIS and told him that he was inquiring about the telephone call that had been made by him to ED MONTGOMERY, a reporter in San Francisco. LEWIS admitted making the telephone call and stated that he did not represent himself to be an investigator for the CHURCH Committee. He went on at some length and in a rambling manner relating to many of his past investigative experiences, including his contacts with EUNICE SHRIVER; a priest at Georgetown; representatives of the Secret Service, especially Agent DON CHACOS, and others. He again denied impersonating a government investigator; stated that his life was an open book and that he would have to contact representatives of the CHURCH Committee concerning this matter. He also stated that SA DON CHACOS of Secret Service in Washington, D.C., could vouch for him. He was told that in all probability that an agent from the New York Office would contact him for an additional interview. He stated that would be fine and that he would request that a telephonic appointment be made.

SA BOB TITTLE of WFO telephonically advised that Secret Service Agent DON CHACOS had advised him that he was aware of LEWIS and his activities and described him as an over-zealous, aggressive reporter; also, that he had received a letter from Senator CHURCH for some reporting that he had done.

New York is requested to review enclosed communications, and in line with Bureau instructions, interview ROBERT LEE LEWIS. He should be cautioned against any further situations which might lead someone to believe he is a government investigator.

There does not appear to be anything of value obtained by LEWIS in this matter. There does not seem to be any reason to present this case to the USA. It is believed by San Francisco that upon completion of the interview by New York that this case should be closed.

Information copy furnished Boston inasmuch as they had a similar situation concerning ROBERT LEE LEWIS, 8/75.

Investigation conducted by the NYO to date has determined that telephone number (212) 924-7586 is listed to one JOHN BARRY, 162 West 13th Street, NY, NY. Numerous attempts to locate and contact LEWIS through this telephone number has determined from unidentified males that LEWIS only periodically resides at this location on an overnight basis as a friend, and has just recently departed the NYC area by bus for an undisclosed location in Florida, to "work on his book" while staying with friends who are unknown to ~~them~~ in Florida.

Initially, on March 19, 1976, when contact was made to locate LEWIS at this phone number the unidentified party who answered the phone stated that he was in Boston, with the exact nature and purpose and location where he was staying were unknown, and a request was left for LEWIS on his return to the NYC area to contact the NYO. To date, LEWIS has not contacted the NYO.

On 5/3/76, SA ROBERT S. TITTLE was contacted by SA DON CHACOS, U.S. Secret Service (USSS), Washington, D. C. SA CHACOS additionally advised he had no idea how long LEWIS would be in Florida.

On 5/3/76, SA TITTLE telephonically contacted LEWIS at the above number to determine his length of stay in Florida. Initially, LEWIS was very outraged at being contacted by the FBI and felt that any interview by the FBI should be set up through Senator FRANK CHURCH or his aides, Mr. ED GREENFIEND or LARRY KEVES. LEWIS further advised that he is an Investigative Reporter and has done a considerable amount of work on organized crime. LEWIS stated he is now doing some work on alleged FBI-Mafia connections.

LEWIS was advised by SA TITTLE that the FBI wished to interview him regarding the possible violation of the impersonation statute. LEWIS stated that he felt he had resolved this matter when he talked to the FBI in San Francisco on the telephone while he was staying in New York City.

After a lengthy conversation in which LEWIS described his past journalistic endeavors regarding organized crime, he advised he would explain the misunderstanding regarding the impersonation violation to SA TITTLE.

Thereafter, LEWIS advised that in March, 1974, he was staying with a Mrs. MC CARTHY in California. Mrs. MC CARTHY was the wife of California State Senator MC CARTHY.

LEWIS said he had been informed of the following series of events by Mr. T. V. MC GUIRE. LEWIS advised MC GUIRE was the Democratic candidate for Congress in the 6th District in California in 1974. MC GUIRE advised LEWIS that he (MC GUIRE) had been soliciting for campaign funds in San Rafael, California. While campaigning for funds, MC GUIRE talked to someone who he believed to be EMILY HARRIS. MC GUIRE told LEWIS that HARRIS answered the door of her residence where he was soliciting for funds. MC GUIRE said he talked to HARRIS at length regarding women's lib.

MC GUIRE then told LEWIS that through a third person he advised the FBI of HARRIS' location. MC GUIRE said he was then informed through this third person that the FBI knew of HARRIS's whereabouts and he should keep the matter in confidence. LEWIS stated he related this information to Mrs. MC CARTHY.

LEWIS advised that he then forgot about the incident until February, 1976, when he was setting up a lecture at New York University Law School in New York City. LEWIS advised he was reading the New York Times regarding the HEARST trial and noted that HEARST and the HARRIS' were accused of participating in a bank robbery in California on April 15, 1974. LEWIS said he then remembered hearing that EMILY HARRIS had been located by the FBI in March, 1974.

LEWIS said he then called LARRY KEVES at Senator CHURCH's committee and told him that he (LEWIS) knew a man in California who had information that the FBI had mishandled the PATTY HEARST investigation.

LEWIS said he was advised by KEVES to call T. V. MC GUIRE and determine the identity of MC GUIRE's source who related the information to the FBI. LEWIS called MC GUIRE and was advised that ED MONTGOMERY, a retired San Francisco Examiner Reporter, was the individual contacted by MC GUIRE regarding MC GUIRE's seeing EMILY HARRIS in March, 1974. According to MC GUIRE, MONTGOMERY called the FBI in San Francisco and told them that MC GUIRE had seen EMILY HARRIS. MONTGOMERY was told by the FBI to tell MC GUIRE to forget that he had seen EMILY HARRIS and the FBI knew HARRIS' whereabouts.

LEWIS said he tried to contact MONTGOMERY but was unable to as MONTGOMERY had an unlisted telephone number. LEWIS obtained the number of a Mr. WELSH, a friend of MONTGOMERY, from T. V. MC GUIRE and was told by MC GUIRE to call WELSH and he would be able to get MONTGOMERY's telephone number.

LEWIS advised that he called WELSH and Mrs. WELSH answered the telephone. LEWIS told Mrs. WELSH that he wanted to talk to ED MONTGOMERY. LEWIS said he advised Mrs. WELSH that he was an investigative journalist working on organized crime and that he was doing work with the CHURCH committee on organized crime. Mrs. WELSH then asked LEWIS if he was a reporter and he replied "yes". Mrs. WELSH then asked LEWIS for his telephone number and said MONTGOMERY would call him back.

LEWIS advised that he never said he was an investigator for the CHURCH committee. He further advised he can not remember if MONTGOMERY ever tried to call him and he said that to his knowledge, he did not believe he ever talked to MONTGOMERY. LEWIS believed that his next contact in this matter was with Agent HARTER of the FBI in San Francisco.

WFO 47-10681

LEWIS then went on to describe additional experiences with organized crime figures and his feelings regarding the KENNEDY assassination and other events. LEWIS further advised that he was being interviewed by a reporter from a St. Petersburg paper at the time of this telephone conversation.

LEWIS asked SA TITTLE where SA TITTLE had obtained his telephone number. LEWIS was advised by SA TITTLE that this is confidential information and could not be disclosed.

Upon conclusion of the telephone conversation, LEWIS seemed to be much more cooperative and had a better attitude toward the FBI. WFO sees no basis for further contact with LEWIS regarding this matter. It is apparent the possible impersonation violation may have arisen from a misunderstanding between LEWIS and Mrs. WELSH regarding LEWIS's occupation. It is felt that any additional contact with LEWIS would again bring up a problem with FBI harassment and would serve no useful purpose.

On 5/4/76, SA TITTLE was telephonically contacted by an unknown female reporter from a St. Petersburg newspaper who advised she was with LEWIS when he was contacted by the FBI on 5/3/76. The reporter wanted to verify that LEWIS had actually talked to SA TITTLE from the FBI. The reporter asked SA TITTLE what the phone call on 5/3/76 concerned. SA TITTLE replied the contents of the conversation was not public information. The reporter asked if the conversation concerned ED MONTGOMERY. SA TITTLE advised he would not comment on the conversation. The conversation was terminated at this point by the reporter.

SA CHACOS additionally advised he had no idea how long LEWIS would be in Florida.

On 5/3/76, SA TITTLE telephonically contacted LEWIS at the above number to determine his length of stay in Florida. Initially, LEWIS was very outraged at being contacted by the FBI and felt that any interview by the FBI should be set up through Senator FRANK CHURCH or his aides, Mr. ED GREENFIEND or LARRY KEVES. LEWIS further advised that he is an Investigative Reporter and has done a considerable amount of work on organized crime. LEWIS stated he is now doing some work on alleged FBI-Mafia connections.

LEWIS was advised by SA TITTLE that the FBI wished to interview him regarding the possible violation of the impersonation statute. LEWIS stated that he felt he had resolved this matter when he talked to the FBI in San Francisco on the telephone while he was staying in New York City.

After a lengthy conversation in which LEWIS described his past journalistic endeavors regarding organized crime, he advised he would explain the misunderstanding regarding the impersonation violation to SA TITTLE.

Thereafter, LEWIS advised that in March, 1974, he was staying with a Mrs. MC CARTHY in California. Mrs. MC CARTHY was the wife of California State Senator MC CARTHY.

LEWIS said he had been informed of the following series of events by Mr. T. V. MC GUIRE. LEWIS advised MC GUIRE was the Democratic candidate for Congress in the 6th District in California in 1974. MC GUIRE advised LEWIS that he (MC GUIRE) had been soliciting for campaign funds in San Rafael, California. While campaigning for funds, MC GUIRE talked to someone who he believed to be EMILY HARRIS. MC GUIRE told LEWIS that HARRIS answered the door of her residence where he was soliciting for funds. MC GUIRE said he talked to HARRIS at length regarding women's lib.

MC GUIRE then told LEWIS that through a third person he advised the FBI of HARRIS' location. MC GUIRE said he was then informed through this third person that the FBI knew of HARRIS's whereabouts and he should keep the matter in confidence. LEWIS stated he related this information to Mrs. MC CARTHY.

LEWIS advised that he then forgot about the incident until February, 1976, when he was setting up a lecture at New York University Law School in New York City. LEWIS advised he was reading the New York Times regarding the HEARST trial and noted that HEARST and the HARRIS' were accused of participating in a bank robbery in California on April 15, 1974. LEWIS said he then remembered hearing that EMILY HARRIS had been located by the FBI in March, 1974.

LEWIS said he then called LARRY KEVES at Senator CHURCH's committee and told him that he (LEWIS) knew a man in California who had information that the FBI had mishandled the PATTY HEARST investigation.

LEWIS said he was advised by KEVES to call T. V. MC GUIRE and determine the identity of MC GUIRE's source who related the information to the FBI. LEWIS called MC GUIRE and was advised that ED MONTGOMERY, a retired San Francisco Examiner Reporter, was the individual contacted by MC GUIRE regarding MC GUIRE's seeing EMILY HARRIS in March, 1974. According to MC GUIRE, MONTGOMERY called the FBI in San Francisco and told them that MC GUIRE had seen EMILY HARRIS. MONTGOMERY was told by the FBI to tell MC GUIRE to forget that he had seen EMILY HARRIS and the FBI knew HARRIS' whereabouts.

LEWIS said he tried to contact MONTGOMERY but was unable to as MONTGOMERY had an unlisted telephone number. LEWIS obtained the number of a Mr. WELSH, a friend of MONTGOMERY, from T. V. MC GUIRE and was told by MC GUIRE to call WELSH and he would be able to get MONTGOMERY's telephone number.

LEWIS advised that he called WELSH and Mrs. WELSH answered the telephone. LEWIS told Mrs. WELSH that he wanted to talk to ED MONTGOMERY. LEWIS said he advised Mrs. WELSH that he was an investigative journalist working on organized crime and that he was doing work with the CHURCH committee on organized crime. Mrs. WELSH then asked LEWIS if he was a reporter and he replied "yes". Mrs. WELSH then asked LEWIS for his telephone number and said MONTGOMERY would call him back.

LEWIS advised that he never said he was an investigator for the CHURCH committee. He further advised he can not remember if MONTGOMERY ever tried to call him and he said that to his knowledge, he did not believe he ever talked to MONTGOMERY. LEWIS believed that his next contact in this matter was with Agent HARTER of the FBI in San Francisco.

LEWIS then went on to describe additional experiences with organized crime figures and his feelings regarding the KENNEDY assassination and other events. LEWIS further advised that he was being interviewed by a reporter from a St. Petersburg paper at the time of this telephone conversation.

LEWIS asked SA TITTLE where SA TITTLE had obtained his telephone number. LEWIS was advised by SA TITTLE that this is confidential information and could not be disclosed.

Upon conclusion of the telephone conversation, LEWIS seemed to be much more cooperative and had a better attitude toward the FBI. WFO sees no basis for further contact with LEWIS regarding this matter. It is apparant the possible impersonation violation may have arisen from a misunderstanding between LEWIS and Mrs. WELSH regarding LEWIS's occupation. It is felt that any additional contact with LEWIS would again bring up a problem with FBI harassment and would serve no useful purpose.

On 5/4/76, SA TITTLE was telephonically contacted by an unknown female reporter from a St. Petersburg newspaper who advised she was with LEWIS when he was contacted by the FBI on 5/3/76. The reporter wanted to verify that LEWIS had actually talked to SA TITTLE from the FBI. The reporter asked SA TITTLE what the phone call on 5/3/76 concerned. SA TITTLE replied the contents of the conversation was not public information. The reporter asked if the conversation concerned ED MONTGOMERY. SA TITTLE advised he would not comment on the conversation. The conversation was terminated at this point by the reporter.

Mr. ROBERT LEE LEWIS, was telephonically contacted at telephone number 813-441-9014 which is located in the St. Petersburg, Florida area. At the outset of the conversation Special Agent (SA) TITTLE identified himself and advised LEWIS he was contacting him (LEWIS) regarding a possible violation of the Impersonation Statute.

Initially, LEWIS became very outraged at being contacted by the FBI and stated he felt that any interview by the FBI should be set up through the Office of Senator FRANK CHURCH and his aides, Mr. ED GREENFIEND or LARRY KEVES. LEWIS then stated that he felt he was being harassed by the FBI and saw no purpose of the interview. LEWIS further advised that he is an Investigative-Reporter and has done a considerable amount of work on organized crime. LEWIS stated he is now doing some work on alleged FBI-Mafia connections.

LEWIS was again advised by SA TITTLE that the FBI only wanted to talk to him regarding the possible impersonation violation and would contact Senator CHURCH's office if that was what LEWIS' desired.

LEWIS stated that he felt he had resolved the impersonation matter when he talked to the FBI in San Francisco on the telephone while he was staying in New York City.

LEWIS then began relating his past journalistic endeavors regarding his work on organized crime and possible threats on his life by organized crime figures. LEWIS stated he believed some corruption existed in the FBI but stated it probably only concerned one or two percent of the agents. LEWIS then talked about corruption in other agencies.

After a somewhat lengthy conversation of approximately 20 to 30 minutes, LEWIS advised he would explain the misunderstanding regarding the impersonation violation to SA TITTLE.
