On 6/9/60, MM T-1 reported receiving information from a usually reliable source that [redacted] Miami, had [S] stated flights were being made from Florida to Cuba for the purpose of dropping bundles of newspapers "Patria" and "Cuba Libre." [redacted] interviewed by FBI [S] [S] [S] Miami, and stated he could furnish no information re allegation, although he had heard rumors that such flights had been made in 1959. Source at Colonial Press, Miami, reports "Cuba Libre" still being edited by JOSE ACOSTA. Three thousand copies of newspaper being published weekly but ACOSTA has requested reduction to 2,000 copies. Source states ACOSTA destroys approximately half of weekly printing, and ACOSTA believed to be making a living from funds which he solicits for the purpose of printing newspaper. Summaries of typical articles set forth.

On June 9, 1960, MM T-1, another Government agency which conducts security and intelligence investigations, reported it had received the following information from a usually reliable source in Mexico City ~~(S)~~ ~~(U)~~

According to <sup>Cuba</sup> [redacted] [S]

[redacted] small planes were making two or three trips from Florida to Cuba weekly in order to drop bundles of "Patria" and "Cuba Libre," described as publications. Approximately five thousand copies of the publications are printed weekly and sent to different parts of Cuba. The newspapers are printed at the Colonial Press, 3265 N. W. 37th Street, Miami, Florida, by JOSE ACOSTA, RAFAEL GUAS <sup>ALL</sup> <sup>Cuba</sup> <sup>Fla</sup> ~~INCLAN~~, former Cuban Vice-President, and (FNU) MONTANE. JOSE ACOSTA resides at 701 S. W. 5th Street, motel apartment 4, Miami, Florida. ~~(S)~~ ~~(U)~~

On August 11, 1960, [redacted] [S]

[redacted] informed that he is a U. S. citizen of Cuban descent who has been residing in Miami for many years. He described himself as a television-radio repairman by trade. Among other things, [redacted] furnished the following information:

(S) [redacted] said he had no knowledge that any plane trips are being made from the United States to drop any type of propaganda in Cuba. He said it is too risky and dangerous in view of the restrictions which have been imposed on plane flights by the U. S. Border Patrol.

(S) [redacted] said he had heard numerous rumors that some flights were made in 1959, but he could furnish no specific information, could identify no pilots, nor could he give the names of airports which were reportedly used. He could furnish no other pertinent information concerning that matter.

(S) [redacted] personally denied being engaged in any type of revolutionary activity. He said he is residing

Activities in Miami." ~~(S)~~ (U)

Promptly interview [redacted] (S) Patria Libre, Cuba Libre and Jose Acosta are subjects of pending investigations in your office. [Pertinent data developed concerning alleged plane flights from Florida to Cuba] (S) (SS) should be made available to INS, Customs and FAA, locally.
Determine from [redacted] the basis for his allegations. Pin (S) him down particularly concerning his belief that the counterrevolution will begin in Cuba in about June, 1960.
Elicit from him any concrete data he may have concerning the alleged clandestine air base being prepared in Yucatan Province, Mexico. ~~(S)~~ (U)

No identifiable information concerning Grana was located in Bufiles on the basis of information furnished.
If Grana is active in anti-Castro activities, consideration should be given to instituting a separate investigation of him to determine if he is working in behalf of a foreign principal and to determine the nature and extent of his involvement in anti-Castro activities.

New York check with Rafael Diaz Salart for any substantiation of [redacted] (S)

Mexico promptly advise the Bureau if the event there is any substantiation to the report that a clandestine air base is being prepared somewhere in Yucatan Province.
It is noted that previous inquiries by your office have failed to substantiate similar allegations. (S) (U)

NOTE: CIA furnished information originating with [redacted] [S] [redacted] Cuban exile in Miami. He allegedly stated that small planes make two or three trips weekly from Florida to Cuba to drop bundles of Cuba and Patria Libre, anti-Castro publications. Jose Acosta reportedly is connected with these publications. [redacted] also stated that Diaz Barlat (with whom [S] [S] NY has been in contact) was a main figure in the counter-revolutionary army. [redacted] also believes that counterrevolution will begin in June, 1960, and that a clandestine air base is being prepared in Mexico. We should interview [redacted] [S]
