On September 6, 1966, after subject's arrival at INS Cuban Refugee Screening Center, Opa Locka, Florida, WALLY DEL TORO, USAFAD (Covert Army Intelligence), Miami Springs, Florida, advised his office and [redacted] had an interest in talking to subject DUARTE as DUARTE was in contact while in Cuba with people of interest to USAFAD and CIA. DEL TORO stated the two agencies were working together on this matter. (S)(u)

[redacted] It was later determined Customs was attempting to have the action against DUARTE nol-prossed. (u)

(S) [redacted] CIA, Miami, expressed an interest in the subject and requested a copy of any FBI report. (S)

DUARTE appeared to be overly impressed with his importance when interviewed. He stressed that he was the ideological and inspirational leader of Unidad Nacional Revolucionaria (UNARE), the anti-CASTRO organization in Havana.

However, he admitted he never led any actions in the field and was not present when several skirmishes occurred. DUARTE apparently wishes to be known for his great writings. He claims to be an economist. He exaggerates the effect of his efforts.

On November 16, 1966, STANLEY SCHACHTER, U. S. Customs Agency Service, Miami, advised the U. S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York was very slow in obtaining court action; therefore, he was not sure when the nol pros action against DUARTE might be consummated. He had attempted to expedite this matter through his New York Office but without success.

Therefore, this case is being closed as all investigation has been completed.

Copies have been sent to Los Angeles and Atlanta so they will be aware of the background of DUARTE and the fact that he entered the United States on the Cuban Airlift with the permission of both the Cuban and the United States Governments.

DUARTE stated he does not desire to work with CIA or elsewhere as he feels the CIA has lost its prestige. CIA, according to [redacted] Miami, is not interested in using DUARTE. (S)
