~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ SECRET

For information of all offices, RUBEN MIRO, according to CIA, has served as a source of information for CIA, but at no time has CIA controlled his activities nor been in a position to give him guidance. The subject was imprisoned for 35 months in Panama and was subsequently acquitted of the assassination of Panamanian President JOSE ANTONIO REMON. The subject has emerged as a revolutionary figure opposed to the present Panamanian Government headed by President ERNESTO de la GUARDIA, JR. MIRO is a first cousin of ROBERTO E. ARIAS GUARDIA, a Panamanian revolutionary figure who, in April, 1959, took refuge in the Brazilian Embassy in Panama City, Panama as he was being sought by Panamanian authorities. (S) (u)

For information of all offices, MIRO has been in contact with [redacted] a known CIA representative who resides in Panama City, Panama. [redacted] came to Miami from Panama April 22, 1959, and attempted to contact MIRO. However, he was not aware that MIRO had departed for New York City April 21, 1959. [redacted] contacted JOSEPH MEROLA, Miami source furnishing information on a voluntary, confidential basis, who is a close associate of MIRO. [redacted] did not reveal his official identity to MEROLA; however, in view of MIRO's previous admissions regarding [redacted] MEROLA suspects [redacted] as an intelligence agent. MEROLA stated that [redacted] had told him he is an insurance representative and also deals in stocks and bonds. (S) (u)
