ATTENTION: SACS, MIAMI, NEW YORK AND WFO AND LEGAL ATTACHES, MADRID AND ROME

(u) Single copies of CIA letter 4/17/63 are enclosed for each office.

WFO should make expeditious checks with Central Office, INS, and State Department for any identifying information concerning subject and her husband. Miami and New York should make similar checks with INS locally and New York should also check with its source at the U. S. United Nations Mission regarding them. Positive data developed should be submitted in memorandum suitable for dissemination.

NOTE:

Classified "Secret" since information received from CIA was so classified and since the data concerning Ester Rodriguez Colon was received from [redacted] under the same classification. CIA reported that a usually reliable sensitive source has learned that subject, wife of the First Secretary of Cuban Embassy in Montevideo, Uruguay, had spent four months clandestinely in the U. S. at an unspecified period. CIA claimed its source is unable to obtain or furnish any additional information. CIA had been previously advised that the subject's husband was scheduled to arrive in Montevideo in November, 1962, with his wife, two children and an employee named Maria Teresa Rivalta
