2 Mr. Baron. Mr. Halley, is it true that you are here
3 testifying today under alias, and that Halley is not actually 4 your true identity?

5 Mr. Halley. That is correct.

6 Mr. Baron. Your true identity will be on file with the 7 review staff of the CIA and available for verification by the 8 Committee if that becomes necessary?

9 Mr. Halley. That is my understanding.

10 Mr. Baron. Let me show you a piece of paper marked 11 "Statement Regarding Testimony and Alias" and let me ask you 12 whether this is the statement you signed as we were beginning 13 here today which indicates your true identity and which I have 14 witnessed?

15 Mr. Halley. Yes, that is the correct statement that I 16 signed today. There is a blank there where we have not filled 17 in the Senator's name.

18 Mr. Baron. All right.

19 For the moment, let us leave that blank and enter it into 20 the record as is, as Exhibit 1.

was marked Halley Exhibit

1 Mr. Baron. It is your understanding, is it not, that we 2 have worked out an arrangement with the review staff whereby 3 the statement will be attached to your transcript as an Exhibit 4 and in a sanitized form, leaving out either of the two references 5 to your true identity which will only be available at this 6 Agency.

7 Mr. Halley. That is my understanding.

8 Mr. Baron. Are you aware that you have the right to counsel 9 before the Committee?

10 Mr. Halley. Yes, I am.

11 Mr. Baron. Are you appearing here, voluntarily here today 12 without counsel?

13 Mr. Halley. Yes, I am.

14 Mr. Baron. Are you also aware that at any point you are 15 entitled to cease answering any questions and consult with 16 counsel if you wish?

17 Mr. Halley. Yes, I am aware of that.

18 Mr. Baron. Finally, are you aware that all your Constitu-19 tional rights are intact before the Committee here today, 20 including your Fifth Amendment rights to remain silent?

21 Mr. Halley. Yes, I am.

22 Mr. Baron. I think we should put into the record the 23 arrangement that we made before we began, and correct me if this 24 is not your understanding of the arrangement, that we are 25 testifying here today without placing you under oath because

1 there is no Senator available for that purpose, but both you and 2 I are contemplating having a Senator swear you in and ask you if 3 your transcript is true to the best of your knowledge at some 4 point as soon as possible as it can be arranged after today's 5 session.

6 Mr. Halley. Yes. The statement that you have just made 7 is my understanding of the agreement that we entered into prior 8 to this conversation going on the record.

9 Mr. Baron. Thank you.

10 Let us begin then with some very broad questions
11 about your background in the Agency. Can you tell me what you 12 were doing in the Agency prior to your involvement with the 13 JMWAVE station?

14 Mr. Halley. I became involved with the Cuban affair in 15 approximately February of 1962. At that time, I was in Head-16 quarters. I was Chief of Foreign Intelligence Activities for the 17 Eastern European Division. I was asked to be released from those 18 duties to conduct a survey of the opportunities for running 19 intelligence operations against Cuba. I was released from those 20 duties; I did engage in a survey of the possibilities for running 21 intelligence, counterintelligence, paramilitary operations 22 against Cuba.

23 Mr. Baron. Your position as Chief of Foreign Intelligence 24 for Eastern Europe did not involve Cuba in any way? That was 25 your last position before you became involved in Cuban affairs,

1 is that correct?

2 Mr. Halley. That is correct.

3 I want to qualify that. Undoubtedly, there were some 4 actions that were being conducted in the Eastern European area
5 that reflected on Cuba, but I was not involved in the Bay of Pigs 6 operation. I was not fully focused on Cuban operations until 7 approximately February of 1962.

8 Mr. Baron. At what point did you join the Agency?

9 Mr. Halley. I joined the Agency originally in 1951.

10 Mr. Baron. In a very general way, can you describe the 11 nature of your activities at the Agency prior to February of '62?

12 Mr. Halley. When I was first assigned to the Agency, I was 13 an Army officer on active duty. I went through the usual Agency 14 training program. I was assigned to Eastern European activities 15 where I originally was focused on Polish and German operations.

16 I subsequently served from 1952 to 1959 in Germany. In the 17 course of that service, I spent most of my time working on the 18 Eastern European satellites, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, 19 Romania, Bulgaria. In addition, I was involved on occasion in 20 Soviet operations and East German operations.

21 Mr. Baron. Did you have any involvement in Latin American 22 affairs prior to February of '62?

23 Mr. Halley. Yes. In the period 1960-62, I was responsible 24 for setting up operational activity in Latin America that

1 [redacted] This was in a period of time 2 where [redacted] were expanding their

4 [redacted] I was responsible for getting this program going in 5 Latin America, so I did have an extensive exposure to Latin 6 America in the period '60 to '62, as I recall those dates.

7 The accuracy of those dates can be checked from my official 8 travel records, and so on.

9 Mr. Baron. During that period of time you were actually 10 in Latin America helping to set up this program?

11 Mr. Halley. No, I was stationed in Washington, but I 12 travelled to Latin America during this particular period of 13 time.

14 Mr. Baron. Did you travel to Cuba at any point during the 15 course of that operation?

16 Mr. Halley. Not specifically. I think I transitted Cuba 17 on air stops being routed to various countries. I think I was 18 at one or two Cuban airfields, but simply in transit.

19 Mr. Baron. Not long enough even to talk to the people at 20 the Station in Cuba?

21 Mr. Halley. No, I had no contact at any time with the 22 Havana Station.

23 Mr. Baron. Did you pick up, during this period of time, 24 a general sense of the attitude of Latin American governments 25 toward the Castro government? Could you characterize that

1 attitude, if you did?

2 Mr. Halley. I certainly was aware, I think, of the broad 3 political trend in the Hemisphere at that time, my interest was 4 much more narrowly focused at that time on [redacted]

5 [redacted] and I was not certainly 6 specializing in Cuban affairs at that juncture.

7 Mr. Baron. Cuba was not viewed at that juncture as part of 8 the Soviet target, as a Soviet satellite?

9 Mr. Halley. No, it was not.

10 Mr. Baron. Coming then to February of '62, is that the 11 point at which you joined the JMWAVE Station in Miami?

12 Mr. Halley. No. When I first entered into this survey, 13 it was to do this on a TDY basis, temporary duty assignment, 14 to complete a report on my findings, to report those at that 15 particular juncture to Mr. Harvey who was the head of the Task 16 Force that was attempting to expand intelligence coverage of 17 Cuba and I was not assigned to the station at that particular 18 point in time.

19 Mr. Baron. At what point did you join the JMWAVE Station?

20 Mr. Halley. Shortly after having completed this survey.
21 These dates are blurred now because the survey soon turned into 22 a permanent assignment. I would have to check the exact dates 23 from my service records, but after having completed the survey 24 report, shortly thereafter I was asked to go to Miami to become 25 permanently assigned to the station in Miami. I do not recall

1 the exact date at which that permanent change of station took 2 place.

3 Mr. Baron. Would you assume that that was sometime before 4 the end of May of '62?

5 Mr. Halley. Yes. It was probably before that, but as I 6 say, there are a couple of weeks gap that we would have to look 7 at my service record to get the exact dates, but certainly it 8 could have been March, it could have been April. But I reserve, 9 you know, the right to check my record if that is a critical 10 point in terms of what you are trying to establish.

11 Mr. Baron. Certainly.

12 I should say generally at this point, if anything we cover 13 today gives you that kind of problem it would be immensely 14 helpful to us if you would check your answers against documents 15 that might be available in the CIA.

16 Mr. Halley. Yes, all right.

17 Mr. Baron. In fact, let me ask you if you would check that 18 one out, because it would be useful to know exactly when you 19 joined the JMWAVE station.

20 During the period of time before you joined JMWAVE, while 21 you were conducting the survey, did you report to anyone other 22 than William Harvey?

23 Mr. Halley. In a formal sense, this TDY was conducted on 24 behalf of the task force commander, who was Mr. Harvey. While 25 I was in Miami conducting the survey, I obviously discussed

1 matters pertaining to that survey to the team who was then in 2 charge of the operational activity in Miami. That team was 3 essentially headed by Mr. Al Cox, who has since died.

4 Mr. Baron. Was that team the equivalent of JMWAVE station?

5 Mr. Halley. Yes. Mr. Cox was the head, then, of what would 6 be the equivalent of the JMWAVE Station.

7 Mr. Baron. Was he the head of JMWAVE until the point when 8 you replaced him, or until the point you became Chief of the 9 JMWAVE Station?

10 Mr. Halley. That is correct. He was the head of that 11 unit until such time as I replaced him.

12 Mr. Baron. Were you aware during this survey that you 13 were conducting of any link between Task Force W and the so-called 14 Special Group in the White House which was part of the National 15 Security Council structure and used the project name: MONGOOSE 16 for anti-Cuban operations?

17 Mr. Halley. My understanding at the time that I conducted 18 this survey was that there was a three-man group in existence 19 which was headed by Mr. Robert Kennedy that was conducting a 20 survey to see what kind of activities could be conducted against 21 Cuba. The other members of that particular group were General 22 Lansdale and Mr. Helms.

23 This three-man group had subordinate to it for all practical 24 purposes the task force unit which was managed by Mr. Harvey.
25 I am not familiar, however, with the other terminology that you

1 used, that is Project MONGOOSE, or whatever you said. I do not 2 know the exact words you used. I am not familiar with that 3 terminology.

4 Mr Baron. During the whole period of your involvement 5 with JMWAVE, you were not made aware of Project MONGOOSE as 6 such?

7 Mr. Halley. I am not aware of Project MONGOOSE. I do not 8 recall it as an acronym, cryptonym or anything else that was in 9 common usage in my conversations.

10 Also, you have to understand that during that particular 11 time, Mr. Harvey was subordinate to the normal Agency chain of 12 command. In other words, he had parallel lines, if you will.
13 There was this three-man Task Force to whom he was reporting 14 regularly. At the same time, as the Task Force Commander, he 15 was reporting to the then-DDP who was Mr. Helms.

16 Mr Baron. You began your survey just about the time that 17 Mr. Helms replaced Mr. Bissell as DDP?

18 Mr. Halley. That is right.

19 Mr. Baron. Were you aware of the command relationship 20 between the three-man group that you have mentioned and William 21 Harvey as head of Task Force W? Did that group task Harvey 22 directly, or did Harvey's assignments have to come through Helms 23 and through the DCI as opposed to this group that did not include 24 the DCI?

25 Mr. Halley. My understanding of it at the time was we were

1 really talking about parallel lines. In other words, this 2 three-man group was meeting. Mr. Helms was both a member of 3 that particular group and the DDP. Therefore, when he came back 4 from one of these meetings and issued instructions to Mr. Harvey, 5 it was, you know, tantamount to these things coming through two 6 channels simultaneously, one coming from this three-man task 7 force and the other instruction simultaneously coming from Mr.
8 Helms who was the DDP.

9 Mr. Baron. As far as Mr. Harvey was concerned, an assign-10 ment or order from Richard Helms was an order to be taken at 11 face value? Harvey did not have to question whether it had the 12 stamp of approval from the DCI or not? Would that have been 13 your operating understanding?

14 Mr. Halley. That would have been my understanding, yes.
15 Certainly an instruction received from Mr. Helms was a valid 16 Agency instruction.

17 Mr. Baron. The DCI at this point was John McCone.

18 Mr. Halley. That is correct.

19 Mr. Baron. Do you have any knowledge of the relationship 20 between this three-man group and John McCone at that point?

21 Mr. Halley. Not on a day to day basis. Once I went to 22 Miami, I came back on a regular basis to review operational 23 plans and programs. On one occasion I accompanied Mr. McCone 24 to the White House to give a presentation or sit in while the 25 presentation was being made.

1 Mr. Baron. Where was this? What was the forum in which 2 the presentation was made.

3 Mr. Halley. This was a meeting with President Kennedy and 4 other members of the then-Cabinet were present at that particular 5 meeting.

6 Mr. Baron. Was that a Cabinet meeting or was it a Special 7 Group meeting as a sub-unit of the National Security Council?

8 Mr. Halley. You know, that happened in 1962. This is 9 1975. I do not recall then with precision as to whether it was 10 a meeting of the Cabinet or whether it was a meeting of the 11 National Security Council, or whether it was a meeting of the 12 Special Group.

13 Mr. Baron. That is perfectly understandable. Do you recall 14 which Cabinet members were present at that meeting?

15 Mr. Halley. Yes. My recollection of that was that Mr.
16 McNamara was present, Mr. Rusk was present, Mr. Kennedy, the 17 Attorney General, was present. You know, I am just vague now 18 at this particular point. Those are the ones that stick out in 19 my memory as being present.

20 Mr. Baron. Was the DCI present?

21 Mr. Halley. Yes, the DCI was present, and he gave a 22 portion of the presentation. As I recall, Mr. FitzGerald gave 23 the other portion of the presentation.

24 Mr. Baron. Who at that point replaced William Harvey as 25 Chief of Task Force W?

4 This was a very active period, you know, with precision, I cannot

9 Mr. Baron. What was the substance of this meeting that 10 they had in which the President was present?

11 Mr. Halley. This was a general review of activities that 12 were being conducted against Cuba.

13 Mr. Baron. Was there any mention of any assassination 14 effort at that meeting?

15 Mr. Halley. No, there was not.

16 Mr. Baron. You were attending at that point in connection 17 with the survey you conducted?

18 Mr. Halley. No. I was attending at that point as the 19 Station Chief from Miami in order to make a contribution to the 20 issues that were being discussed, to the fact that detailed, 21 substantive back-up for whatever questions might be put to the 22 Agency spokesmen. I made reference to that because you asked 23 me if I knew the relationship between Mr. McCone and this 24 three-man group. I said no, on a day-to-day basis I did not 25 know the relationship, but that there were meetings that were

1 attended by me in which Mr. McCone was talking to individuals 2 like Mr. Kennedy, the Attorney General, who was a member of that 3 group.

4 Mr. Baron. Were you aware that that group might have gone 5 by any particular name or designation?

6 Mr. Halley. No, I am not.

7 Mr. Baron. You are not familiar with the term Special
8 Group?

9 Mr. Halley. Yes, I am aware of the term Special Group.
10 I am aware that the chronology of the 303 Committee, Special 11 Group, 40 Committee and so forth, but as I mentioned to you 12 earlier, that particular time, I cannot distinguish between 13 whether this was an ad hoc meeting or this was a Special Group 14 meeting, or what it was.

15 Mr. Baron. Did you assume at that time that the three-man 16 group that you referred to, including the Attorney General, 17 General Lansdale and Richard Helms, had a formal relationship 18 to this larger Special Group? In other words, was that three-19 man group a kind of decision-making sub-unit of the Special 20 Group, or do you think it operated entirely independent from 21 the National Security Council structure.

22 Mr. Halley. I do not think I can give you an authoritative 23 answer to that. I would go back to what I previously told 24 you. When I entered into this project in February of '62, the 25 chain of command that I was familiar with was this three-man

1 group in constant contact with Mr. Harvey. The second chain 2 of command, paralleling that, was Mr. Harvey reporting to the 3 DDP and the DDP subsequently reporting through his chain of 4 command to the Director, and that would be the only way that 5 I could characterize that with any accuracy.

6 Mr. Baron. Did those two chains of command continue...
7 as the channels of decision-making and tasking when you were...
8 or during your tenure as Chief of Station at JMWAVE?

9 Mr. Halley. That relationship changed, and again I do 10 not have the date at my fingertips at what time that changed.

11 I know that shortly thereafter I was in Miami, General 12 Lansdale came down to visit me, to talk with me, about the 13 progress that was being made in the operational program. At 14 some point after that, this three-man group for all intents 15 and purposes disappeared. General Lansdale was reassigned; 16 the group broke up; subsequent reviews of the program were made 17 at the Special Group level. As an example, we would have to 18 submit every month the number of operations that we were going 19 to run, such as infiltrations into Cuba through what would be 20 paramilitary means, and these were approved by the Special 21 Group. There was an approval procedure for setting those up, 22 so subsequently the three-man group disappeared and the regular 23 mechanism of the Special Group came into play.

24 I am sorry, I cannot give you a precise date for that 25 change, but I am sure it is in the record and I am sure you even

1 have the date because the Agency has been researching all sorts 2 of material for you. I feel that you would just have to get 3 those dates for the record.

4 Mr. Baron. We can do that.

5 Would you say that every major operation that you undertook 6 at JMWAVE would have been approved by the Special Group or at 7 least they would have been put on notice of the nature of any 8 major operation that you were planning?

9 Mr. Halley. Why do you not define for me what you consider 10 to be a major operation so we do not get into, you know, a 11 problem? If you feel that you cannot do that.

12 Mr. Baron. Perhaps we can turn it around and say, could 13 you characterize the kinds of operations generally that you 14 would refer to this three-man group initially, ^{to} in the Special 15 Group later, for their approval, or at least to put them on 16 notice, the kinds that you might not refer and instead proceed 17 unilaterally?

18 Mr. Halley. Initially, the three-man group was seized 19 with the problem of conducting the survey of what could be 20 done against Cuba. As soon as that was more or less agreed 21 upon, my understanding of this, as I told you, the three-man 22 group was disbanded or atrophied or went on to other things 23 and then the formal mechanism came in for approval, that is, 24 the Special Group. As procedures became more formalized, we 25 had to submit a monthly schedule of the kind of operations that

1 would be conducted against Cuba in the paramilitary fields.

2 In other words, if we were going to run an operation that 3 was going to be a cache replacement in the Cuban mainland, that 4 had to be put in, say in our October schedule, that October 5 schedule had to be submitted to the Washington Headquarters so 6 they could make it available to the Special Group sometime in 7 September. So I would regard a cache, say the lowest kind of 8 operation in terms of sensitivity, and then you could move up 9 from team infiltrations that had to be approved in advance, 10 resupply missions, paramilitary operations against fixed instal-11 lations would all be approved.

12 Mr. Baron. If there had been any operation with the 13 assassination of Fidel Castro, or other high Cuban government 14 leaders as its objective, would such an operation have been 15 referred to either the three-man group or later the Special
16 Group.

17 Mr. Halley. If such an operation had been proposed from 18 Miami, it would have had to have gone through that particular 19 process.

20 Mr. Baron. Your answer seems to indicate that only 21 operations that originated at the JMWAVE Station would be 22 referred up for approval. Is that correct?

23 Mr. Halley. That is the kind of activity that I have 24 firsthand knowledge of. When I became the Station Chief, I told 25 you my time at this was essentially February of 1962 through

1 either June or July of '65. That was my stewardship. That was 2 my involvement in the Cuban operation.

3 During that particular period of time, my firsthand knowledge 4 of these events would be, if that kind of operation were to go 5 forward it would have had to go through this approval mechanism, 6 it would have had to have been some formal action taken. If it 7 were something that certainly would -- for some reason might not 8 be committed to paper, somebody may have wanted to discuss it 9 orally from Miami, the chain of command would have been from me 10 to whomever was the head of the Task Force in Washington, or 11 later, when the Task Force became reintegrated into the Western 12 Hemisphere Division, I would have had to talk to the Chief of 13 the Western Hemisphere Division, who at one time was FitzGerald.

14 Mr. Baron. But a plan that originated at the CIA above 15 the level of the Chief of Station at JMWAVE would not necessarily 16 have been referred to Special Group for approval, is that 17 correct?

18 Mr. Halley. I have no firsthand knowledge of that, there-19 fore I am trying to restrict myself to those things that I have 20 personal knowledge of. In other words, that is the kind of 21 thing that I think you should talk to, you know, those who were 22 involved directly, because I think you can talk to Mr. Harvey 23 or or others who would be able to give you a better 24 perception of that.

25 I want to make one point here, that once I went to Miami,

1 I was a regular visitor to Washington, but always for one or 2 two days at a time when there was always a full agenda of events
3 to be discussed that related to the Station in Miami. I did not 4 carry here, I did not engage, you know, in idle conversation with 5 my associates. Therefore, I was not aware of the firsthand

7 on items that did not immediately impact on Miami.

8 Mr. Baron. Do you have any personal knowledge of any 9 operation run out of the JMWAVE Station that could be construed 10 as an assassination effort?

11 Mr. Halley. No, I do not.

12 Mr. Baron. Do you have firsthand knowledge of any operation 13 run out of Florida with CIA involvement that could be construed 14 as an assassination effort?

15 Mr. Halley. No, I do not have any firsthand knowledge.
16 You also have to put this in a historical perspective. In 17 other words, from what I have read in the Press since then, 18 obviously I could put certain things together. You are asking 19 me in this timeframe, 1962 to 1965, did I have any firsthand 20 knowledge at that particular time?

21 Mr. Baron. Exactly.

22 Mr. Halley. The answer to that is no, I did not.

23 You also have to put yourself in the historical context of 24 that particular time. Thousands of refugees were coming out of 25 Cuba, coming into Miami, Dade County up and down the Florida

1 Keys. There was a regular mechanism to screen these people.
2 Any number of these people had plans or ideas for changing the 3 situation in Cuba, among those ideas for changing the situation 4 in Cuba were plans to assassinate any number of people in Cuba.
5 This was something that was talked about, you could go down to 6 any coffee house in downtown Miami and Cubans would be talking 7 that kind of language.

8 So I do not want to leave you with the impression that the 9 word assassination never came across my radar screen, but we 10 are talking about, and my answer was geared to a planned opera-11 tion by CIA.

12 Mr. Baron. Or with CIA involvement of any sort?

13 Mr. Halley. CIA involvement? I know of no operation that 14 was a planned operational activity, you know, for the sole 15 purpose of assassinating, you know, Mr. A, B or Mr. C. This was 16 the ^{ambiente} ~~allente~~ of the time. People were talking about these 17 things in the refugee community, these kind of things were 18 being discussed.

19 Mr. Baron. Mr. A, B or C could have been Fidel Castro, 20 Raul Castro?

21 Mr. Halley. It could have been anyone. This was the mood 22 of the Latin American revolutionary where a coup, you know, is 23 a way of life, where restaurants and coffee houses abound with 24 conversation about how to run a coup. In the running of a coup, 25 one of the things that people talk about is how do you control

2 Mr. Baron. Are you saying that you are not aware of any 3 operation which could have had as one of its subsidiary objec-4 tives, whether the primary objective or not, the assassination 5 of Fidel Castro, Raul Castro, or Che Guevara, which was run with 6 CIA involvement?

7 Mr. Halley. I would like to phrase that question slightly 8 differently, because I think, you know, you have several things 9 tied together. I would like to answer your question this way.

10 During my tenure in Miami, I did not put forth any proposals 11 to mount an assassination operation. In other words, there 12 was no formal plan, I did not put forth any operational proposals 13 along this line.

14 Secondly, I am not aware of any assassination plans being 15 put forth, you know, by Mr. Harvey or by anyone else at that 16 particular time. That is the way I would prefer to answer that.

17 Mr. Baron. What kind of problem did you have with the 18 question as it was asked?

19 Mr. Halley. Well, you lumped a number of things together.
20 I am trying to separate these out. In other words, you put in 21 there a secondary or tertiary consideration.

22 Mr. Baron. Right, I am interested in that.

23 Mr. Halley. That is what bothers me, because I did not 24 put forth any plans. On the other hand, I do not want to be 25 held responsible for such things as CIA being in touch with a

1 paramilitary group in Cuba whose primary mission was the 2 collection of intelligence, whose secondary mission might be to 3 organize a resistance and, unbeknownst to me, might have had 4 their own ideas which were never consulted with us, you know, 5 never discussed with us, through the communications channels 6 that we had, who may have been thinking, may have planned, and 7 may have attempted, to implement assassination operations.

8 I do not feel under the command and control mechanism that 9 existed that I could exercise through the Station over such a 10 situation that I could be held responsible for that. Therefore, 11 I cannot accept your question on the secondary or tertiary 12 situation because I have no knowledge of those. You may have 13 some knowledge and you can confront me with some statement by 14 some Cuban who said that this was part of his mission. I have 15 to look at that at the time.

16 Mr. Baron. We will go over some statements, but in trying 17 to recover this ground one more time, I think it is important 18 to distinguish an attempt to pin the responsibility on you, 19 which I am not trying to do by my questioning --

20 Mr. Halley. That is a complicated question.

21 Mr. Baron. The attempt to simply -- undoubtedly, the 22 attempt to simply bring out your knowledge and any awareness 23 that you may have had of any kind of operation that had assassina-24 tion as one of its objectives, and also involved the CIA to 25 any extent. That is what I am asking you for.

1 Mr. Halley. Right, and I will stand by my answer, that is,
2 I put forth no plans, I know of no plans put forth, you know, 3 during my tenure in Miami in which assassination was part of 4 the operational rationale. You know, the only way we can clarify 5 this perhaps to your satisfaction is to discuss some specifics.
6 If you are prepared to talk about specifics, maybe I can deal 7 with those within the framework of that general statement that 8 I made, you know. I know how Cubans talk. I know the rumors 9 that have existed over the years. I simply do not want to be 10 identified with any action conducted by some group over which 11 I had no knowledge or control. That is my key point.

12 Mr. Baron. I think that answers it for now, and we will 13 cover some specifics later.

14 One more question on this dual chain of command: on the 15 one hand, the Agency chain of command from the DDP to Harvey 16 to you at JMWAVE, and on the other hand, the three-man decision 17 making group consisting of the Attorney General, Lansdale and 18 Helms. Would you say in the early days that this three-man 19 group appeared to you to be in control of the decision making 20 before the Special Group stepped in, that decisions were made 21 in a less formal way than they were later under the Special
22 Group?

23 Mr. Halley. I really could not address myself to that.
24 In other words, I never sat in on a meeting of the three-man 25 group. In other words --

24

1 Mr. Baron. What about the kind of reporting that was 2 required of you by the three-man group as opposed to the Special
3 Group?

4 Mr. Halley. My requirements for reporting really stemmed
5 in the early days from Harvey. If there were any special 6 requirements, he was taking them from the three-man group and 7 translating them and, in fact, much of the system of reporting
8 in those early days was generated by me and what I thought 9 was required to keep Mr. Harvey as a Task Force Commander 10 fully informed. I think that you undoubtedly know from the 11 record that I worked for Mr. Harvey prior to 1962 and therefore 12 I was familiar, you know, with his style of operation and thought 13 I had a clear understanding of what he needed in an informational 14 sense. So when I went to Miami, I organized much of the 15 reporting flow upward, if you will, from the field unit to 16 Headquarters.

17 Mr. Baron. Had you worked for Mr. Harvey in Germany?

18 Mr. Halley. Yes, I had.

19 Mr. Baron. In Berlin?

20 Mr. Halley. Yes, sir.

21 Mr. Baron. This was on the famous and successful tunnel 22 operation?

23 Mr. Halley. No, I do not deserve any credit for the tunnel 24 operation. That is Mr. Harvey's activity. He kept that very 25 tightly compartmented and in the days when that was going on, I

1 was involved primarily with Eastern European activities.

2 Mr. Baron. You were aware of Mr. Harvey's style of 3 operating?

4 Mr. Halley. Yes. I worked with him -- I think the date is 5 somewhere in June or July of '54 to somewhere in '59. I would 6 have to look that up in the record, the exact date.

7 Mr. Baron. But you say you not only had a close working 8 relationship with Mr. Harvey, but you came to be a personal 9 friend of his?

10 Mr. Halley. Yes, I would like to say I am a personal friend 11 of Mr. Harvey.

12 Mr. Baron. Returning to your statements about the chain 13 of command, you seem to be saying that Mr. Harvey served as the 14 funnel for both of these chains of command; as far as you were 15 concerned, you received directives from him, whatever the source 16 may have been originally, is that correct?

17 Mr. Halley. Correct.

18 I want to make a point. Insofar as the three-man group was 19 concerned, I would see Helms in his role as the DDP in the three-20 man group. I would see Lansdale -- as I told you, Lansdale came 21 down to visit me in Miami on one occasion. He came as part of 22 that three-man group. But my chain of command, during my 23 visit was still from me to Harvey. Lansdale was down there, 24 I was to be, you know, straightforward, candid, discuss plans, 25 programs, problems. But I received my orders and instructions

1 the control of money and so forth was vested in the Task Force 2 Commander, Mr. Harvey.

3 Therefore, I never dealt with this three-man group as a 4 body. I dealt with the individuals, you know, and various 5 mutations.

6 Mr. Baron. Would you say that the three-man group had a 7 less formal, more free-wheeling style of decision making, and 8 there was a real change in the rigor with which you were required 9 to report after the Special Group took over?

10 Mr. Halley. I would have to say that the total reporting 11 became more formalized the longer we stayed in business. I 12 cannot ascribe this to the difference of style of the three-man 13 group as opposed to the Agency chain of command or subsequent 14 with the requirements of the Special Group. This evolved from 15 a body of experience that was gained as the operation was 16 established and got some experience.

17 So I would not want to characterize that as being a result 18 of the groups.

19 Mr. Baron. You did not have any problem with the propriety 20 of the three-man group in the early stages?

21 Mr. Halley. No, I had no reason to believe that it was 22 not a duly constituted body. In other words, the officers that 23 I reported to, in that particular case, Mr. Harvey, Mr. Helms, 24 were my chain of command at that particular point, were the 25 ones who briefed me on the existence of this three-man body

1 and I felt that that was a perfectly legitimate function of 2 that body.

3 Mr. Baron. Who briefed you on the existence of the body?

4 Mr. Halley. My recollection of the initial briefing was 5 from Mr. Harvey.

6 Mr. Baron. Do you recall how he described that three-man 7 group and the responsibilities?

8 Mr. Halley. No. This was 1962, and this is 1975. As 9 you know from my records, these intervening years have been 10 very active for me, therefore, I do not remember with precision 11 that conversation in all of its details. I do recall my first 12 briefing on the existence of this three-man group being from 13 Harvey.

14 Mr. Baron. You mentioned that General Lansdale might 15 occasionally meet with you personally. This is in Miami, at 16 JMWAVE Station?

17 Mr. Halley. I can only recall at this point one specific 18 meeting where he came down to Florida in Miami to visit.

19 Mr. Baron. What was the substance of that meeting?

20 Mr. Halley. He was given some briefings by my staff on 21 their areas of specialization, whether it was foreign intelli-22 gence collection, whether it was maritime activities, or whether 23 it was paramilitary activities. I spent a lot of time with him.

1 problems, and so on. It was a substantive management operation, 2 problem-oriented type of conversation.

3 Mr. Baronv. What period of time would you place this in?

4 Mr. Halley. Probably sometime in the summer of '62, 5 because my family was already in Miami at that point, and when 6 I first went to Miami my family was not with me. I think my 7 wife joined me in Miami sometime in the summer of '62, you know, 8 I would have to research that. It is obviously available from 9 the records as to when my family moved and a permanent change 10 of station.

11 Mr. Baron: Was there any discussion whether direct or 12 indirect of assassination of Cuban leaders during your meetings 13 with General Lansdale?

14 Mr. Halley. I do not recall any such conversations. You 15 know, I think that from my point of view, we are off a little 16 bit on this perspective. I would like to try to focus on the 17 perspective for you in the historical setting.

18 Mr. Baron. Please do.

19 Mr. Halley. I think by your questions and your interest, 20 you are narrowly focused on this assassination thing, but let 21 me turn that around a bit, and let me put it in my context at 22 the time which may help you understand my answers.

9 Are you saying did I have a meeting, a personal, private

11 Mr. Baron. Yes.

12 Mr. Halley. The answer to that is no.

13 Mr. Baron. Did you have any meetings with the Attorney 14 General of any sort during this period of time?

15 Mr. Halley. I mentioned to you earlier that at this meeting 16 that I went to with Director McCone, the Attorney General, Mr.
17 Robert Kennedy, was present at that White House briefing. He 18 did ask some questions, which I do not remember what the 19 questions were at this particular point in time. I answered 20 some of those questions that were put during the course of that 21 particular presentation. Throughout that whole period of time,

2 Mr. Baron. At that meeting -- again, I realize what we 3 are doing is in isolation, out of context -- at that meeting that 4 you attended, with the Cabinet members and the President, was 5 there any discussion either directly or indirectly or by means 6 of any circumlocutions of the subject of assassination?

7 Mr. Halley. Not that I can recall.

8 You know, my recollection of that meeting is, we went to it 9 en masse, the first -- you know, Director McCone, myself, 10 Bruce ^{Ch}ever, several other people who went. We went in 11 several cars. We went to the meeting, the Cuban issue was the 12 first item on the agenda. As I recall the thing, the Cuban 13 thing was over after this period of time. We, the technocrats 14 left, the Director John McCone stayed on. You know, during my 15 presence at the meeting there was nothing discussed about 16 assassinations.

17 Mr. Baron. Was there any such discussion between yourself 18 and John McCone or Richard Helms at any point?

19 Mr. Halley. I never recall discussing assassinations with 20 John McCone. Now, in terms of discussions with Richard Helms, 21 these were conversations in which atmospherics in Miami and 22 problems like that would be discussed, and I am sure somewhere 23 in some of these conversations the mood of the community, the 24 subject of assassinations undoubtedly came up. This was part 25 of the life of that particular period.

1 I cannot remember a specific data, you know, some time at 2 which that was discussed, and you know I never received any 3 instruction from Helms to mount an assassination operation.

4 Mr. Baron. Again, I am not trying to unfairly pull these 5 kinds of conversations out of their historical context. Before 6 we flesh out the historical context, do you have any recollection 7 of the manner in which assassination might have come up between 8 yourself and Helms?

9 Mr. Halley. Again, I put it in this overall context of 10 the times. We were running Foreign Intelligence collection 11 operations against Cuba with classical agent means. We were running 12 collection against Cuba through paramilitary teams. We were 13 involved in paramilitary operations that could be described as 14 commando raids. Those were the kinds of activities.

15 We were dealing with exile groups, we were debriefing 16 refugees and in all of this conversations of assassination, 17 the Cuban penchant for it had to come up. I cannot pinpoint --

18 Mr. Baron. You do not recall any reference of means to 19 be used or people to be involved?

20 Mr. Halley. No. Even such things as discussions of 21 various kinds of weapons, you know, people, as you probably 22 know from this experience, every individual who deals with 23 weapons has a different view on what is the ideal weapon. If 24 you took a squad of ten men and gave them the free choice, I 25 am sure all ten of them would come up with a different weapon.

1 Therefore, when we were standardizing weapons to our 2 paramilitary teams, things like that, weapons would be discussed 3 in terms of, you know, muzzle velocity, rate of fire, weight 4 of the weapon for the Cuban to carry, because many of them were 5 quite small. In this context, people would discuss what is 6 the range, can a guy use it to shoot somebody at a particular 7 range? Is this an assassination weapon? Is this a good weapon 8 for close combat?

9 Therefore the term assassination was just a part of the life, 10 of the fabric at that time. That is what I am trying to get 11 across. I just cannot articulate any more eloquently than 12 that.

13 Mr. Baron. I think you are being quite eloquent and 14 extremely informative. You mentioned that the phrase assassina-15 tion would be used in the discussions about the kinds of weapons 16 that would be used for commando raids or equipping your 17 operatives.

18 Mr. Halley. Paramilitary teams, right.

19 Mr. Baron. Was the capacity of a weapon to be used as 20 an assassination weapon among other uses a desirable capacity?

21 In other words, was that phrase used positively?

22 Mr. Halley. No, it was not. It is the kind of thing 23 that weaves itself into, you know, a conversation.

24 For instance, if you are planning a commando raid against 25 something like an oil refinery, you have to think about how are

1 you going to get across the guard force that is around a 2 refinery? One of the questions you have, of course, is if you 3 bypass them, you are successful to get in without a trail or any 4 kind of a struggle, that is great. But what happens if you are 5 implanting your target and the guard stumbles on you, you know, 6 the guard force then becomes an immediate risk to your operation
7 and usually there is a fire fight. Therefore, this becomes a 8 question of weapons. In other words, what weapon is going to 9 give the highest muzzle velocity and make the largest amount of 10 noise. Therefore, if you have two weapons of co-equal cyclic 11 rate of fire and one made less rate of noise than the other 12 for that job you would pick the weapon with the lowest noise.
13 You might even silence it. You may make a silenced submachine 14 gun out of it.

15 These are the kinds of things that go into these discussions 16 of weapons.

17 Mr. Baron. The technology of assassination and targetted
18 shooting, are you referring to -- when you say assassination 19 weapon -- to a weapon generally capable of targetted shooting?

20 Mr. Malley. In this particular context, I think most 21 people felt that the Cuban penchant for assassination, for 22 discussing assassination, was the kind that would have to be 23 done from a long range.

24 You know, I think that it is generally an accepted thesis 25 that a group of dedicated men who are prepared to give their lives

1 can in time assassinate almost anybody. Now, the Cuban was not 2 that kind of a person. That was not his psychological make-up.
3 He tends to want to live, to enjoy life, to talk about his 4 accomplishment. Therefore, while they were brave and dedicated, 5 they were the kind of people who would probably engage in 6 something like this in the context of using the sniper weapon 7 as a vehicle for assassination, long distance.

8 Therefore, in this context you are talking about range, you 9 know, one of the key factors becomes what is the accurate range 10 of a weapon if fired by an expert marksman. Therefore, that is 11 the kind of thing that would go into, you know, discussions of 12 weapons.

13 Mr. Baron. When you were discussing weapons with high 14 range and low muzzle velocity, was this ever discussed in the 15 context of shooting Fidel Castro or other key Cuban leaders as 16 opposed to targetted shooting on a commando raid.

17 Mr. Halley. I can recall, you know, no conversation in 18 which it was narrowly focused on the question of Fidel Castro.

19 Mr. Baron. Let us go back, then, to putting this all 20 into historical context. I am going to ask you if you can 21 explain more about the structure of the JMWAVE Station, both 22 the channels upward from you to the Agency and the Special 23 Group and the channels downward from you to your operatives, 24 if in the course of explaining the structure, you would like to 25 make some comments about the historical context, that would be

1 appreciated.

2 Mr. Halley. I think what I would like to do is to try to 3 put this into some perspective.

4 The perspective really starts with the failure of the Bay 5 of Pigs Operation. After the failure of the Bay of Pigs, the 6 Kennedy Administration wanted another look taken at the problem
7 of Cuba. In order to get that other look started, the Kennedy 8 Administration created this three-man task force or this three-9 man group and wanted to see what else could be done against 10 Cuba, and that is when I came into this problem in February of 11 '62.

12 Mr. Baron. Is it possible that the three-man group that 13 you are referring to is actually the Robert Kennedy-Maxwell 14 Taylor Board of Inquiry into the reasons for the failure of the 15 Bay of Pigs operation?

16 Mr. Halley. This three-man group stemmed out of that 17 inquiry. What its relationship was to the inquiry, I do not know, 18 because I was not involved and I never had an opportunity once 19 I plunged into this job, to go back and read those historical 20 documents. You know, I am sure there is a Maxwell Taylor Report, 21 and so forth, but I have never read it.

22 All right.

23 Therefore, my first task when I became involved in this 24 was the task of coming up with an operational plan to see what 25 kinds of intelligence could be collected in Cuba, so that by

1 collecting this intelligence, an assessment could be made based 2 on hard facts as to what could be done against Castro. In other 3 words, the difference here was that people thought that the Bay
 4 of Pigs operation was not soundly grounded in intelligence.
 5 Therefore, this was an attempt to start the collection of 6 intelligence to see what could be done.

7 In order to collect intelligence at that particular time, 8 it was believed that all avenues of approach should be used, 9 so that meant classical foreign intelligence operations, 10 counterintelligence operations, the debriefing of refugees, and 11 the use of paramilitary means to put teams into Cuba to collect 12 intelligence on that part of the island that could not be 13 covered by what you would call the more classical means of 14 foreign intelligence collection.

15 As the program was started essentially by me or accelerated 16 by me, we in fact got caught up with the Cuban Missile Crisis -- 17 that is, the advent of the Soviet intervention into Cuba -- and 18 our whole effort shifted to covering that Soviet build-up in 19 Cuba, and this was an integral part to our having detected the 20 Soviet build-up and the United States government taking the 21 actions which they did, that is, to verify this.

22 There was a great problem for a while when we were all 23 talking about hard intelligence, the President, John Kennedy, 24 was telling us, give us hard intelligence. We thought we were 25 giving him hard intelligence. What he meant, in his definition

1 of hard intelligence, as it turned out to be, was a U-2 2 photograph. He never articulated that to us in those terms.
3 Then we got caught up into the eyeball to eyeball confron-4 tation of the Cuban Missile Crisis. When that was over, we 5 got caught up with the problem of monitoring the disengagement 6 of the Soviet presence in Cuba. That took us up through sometime 7 into early '63.

8 Then we took a look again, because we knew an awful lot 9 more about them than we had when we started in February of '62, 10 to see what could be done against Cuba, and it was clear at 11 that point that no external invasion was going to be possible, 12 because that was something that was excluded by the Khrushchev-13 Kennedy agreement and then it was not feasible. In any event, 14 therefore it was a question of what could be done. So we were 15 collecting intelligence to continue to stay on top of the 16 situation. We were attempting to establish contacts with the 17 military establishment in Cuba to see if there was any force 18 that was opposed to Castro within the military establishment 19 that would be used to alter the situation and continue to see 20 whether there were any economic pressures that could be brought 21 on Cuba that would accelerate the whole problem of creating 22 an environment in which a resistance could be created on an 23 island.

24 Mr. Baron. Were those the two primary tactics used at 25 that point when Castro had consolidated his strength and

1 when the United States and Russia reached an agreement that no
2 external invasion of Cuba would take place, did you turn 3 primarily to the ways and means of finding a dissident group 4 within Cuba that might be capable of overthrowing Castro, 5 number one, and number two, of finding means of undermining 6 the economic strength of the Castro government.

7 Mr. Halley. In addition, we were continuing to support 8 certain elements of resistance, you know, that were still there 9 that were not in the Army.

10 Mr. Baron. What kinds of elements were those?

11 Mr. Halley. These were paramilitary forces that were in 12 Cuba, that we had put in or established contact with, or people 13 who were already in the bush who we had already established 14 contact with or they had established contact with us, and we 15 were providing them with food, weapons and so forth so that they 16 could survive. So that it was a multifaceted approach at that 17 particular time.

18 That went on from the middle of '63 until the middle of 19 '65, and these are two distinct phases of this operation. In 20 effect, one, a survey, and two, the Missile Crisis and its 21 post-mortem, and then the next phase was the continuation of 22 intelligence collection, the working or taking the sounding with 23 military dissidents, economic pressure, and working with 24 natural dissident elements that were still on the island.

25 I think you know that all of your questions have to be put

1 into these various timeframes. When you talk about, was there 2 ever a discussion of assassination, you know, when people 3 were coming out and being interviewed, yes, some Cuban refugee 4 would say, by God, I would like to go back and shoot, you know, 5 X, Y or Z. It might have been some commandante in his particu-
6 lar area; it could have been Fidel Castro. This was just part 7 of the fabric of the times.

8 Mr. Baron. Can we turn now to the structure of the JMWAVE 9 Station and explain that a bit? How large was the Station?
10 What was the command structure within the Station?

11 Mr. Halley. The Station started expanding in whatever 12 timeframe it was, somewhere after the survey was completed. It 13 must have started expanding sometime in March of 1962. You 14 know, by the time that it was at its peak, which was probably 15 somewhere just before the Cuban Missile Crisis, July, August 16 of 1962, it was either the largest or the second largest -- my 17 recollection was that it was the second largest station in 18 existence at that time. I would not want to be pinned down on 19 a particular number of people on any particular day.

20 Mr. Baron. Could you give some idea as to the number of 21 employees at the Station during its peak?

22 Mr. Halley. I would say somewhere in the neighborhood of, 24 contract employees.

25 Mr. Baron. What do you cover with the term contract

1 employees?

2 Mr. Halley. These would be, for instance, maritime case 3 officers. We hired people who had specialized skills, that is, 4 that they could manage a series of vessels for us, but they 5 were not longterm staff employees. These would be people who 6 would be used, if you will, in a management organization, basic 7 implementation of the program.

8 Mr. Baron. Did you have other agents or operatives among 9 the Cuban community or outside the Cuban community that were 10 affiliated with the Station although not employed by it 11 directly?

12 Mr. Halley. I think we are going to have to define some 13 terms.

14 Mr. Baron. What I am trying to do now is simply get a 15 picture of the scope of the Station's strength and ~~in~~ its 16 activities, how many people the Station had to call upon for 17 its activities.

18 Mr. Halley. Well, let me try to give you an answer, because 19 I think we are going to get into a semantic problem here.

20 When I talk about the Station, as such, I would say that 21 is roughly in the neighborhood of people, and that ²¹ 22 was those people who would be involved in the management 23 effort, the direction effort, the financial logistics, cover 24 procedures, security, that kind of thing. All right? Flowing 25 out from that were people whom we would call agents, that is,

6 Again, if you pick a date, I am sure we can research it.
7 The records are still available and you know how many people 8 we had, but let us take these [redacted] What am I talking 9 about? These would be essentially Cubans who were the captains 10 of the vessels that were used in infiltration operations to 11 put people on the shore of Cuba, and there were a variety of 12 techniques. In other words, you might start on with the mother 13 ship, which would be an LCI -- I am not sure how familiar you 14 are with various kinds of vessels.

15 Mr. Baron. What is an LCI?

16 Mr. Halley. Landing craft kind of vessel, or a patrol 17 craft, a PC, 110-foot vessel, that would be a mother ship.
18 This is the kind of ship that would take fuel supplies and 19 water, so that other smaller vessels could be serviced by it.
20 So you might start with an operation of a mother ship towing a 21 smaller boat, or having it on its decks and going down to 22 fifteen or twenty miles from Cuba, putting the smaller boat 23 over the side, which was a faster boat, lower silhouette, less 24 likely to be picked up by Cuban coastal radar, and then that

1 civic officials and law enforcement agencies in being allowed

10 Mr. Halley. You have asked me, in essence, three 11 questions.

12 Mr. Baron. Right.

13 Mr. Halley. Let me try to divide that and deal with each 14 question separately.

15 Let me first deal with the vessels. Every vessel that we 16 had was appropriately registered. There were no short-cuts 17 insofar as the U.S. Coast Guard was concerned. That is, any 18 vessel that was registered in the United States met appropriate 19 safety standards and so forth, so we were not putting any 20 vessels into the water that any citizen could not have put into 21 the water. That is we are talking about ten, fifteen, twenty 22 foot boats, thirty foot boats, thirty-five foot boats, things 23 like that. These boats were owned in either a corporate name 24 or by a private individual who had to register them with the 25 Coast Guard and pass normal Coast Guard regulations.

1 (Discussion off the record.)

2 Mr. Baron. To continue with this, I understand that 3 safety regulations would have been complied with, but was there 4 some sort of immunity from inspection, say inspection for 5 carrying armaments aboard a vessel that the CIA had arranged 6 with maritime authorities, or local law enforcement authorities?

7 Mr. Halley. When we had operations going, these were 8 coordinated with the Coast Guard in terms of their knowing that, 9 you know, at a particular date, time group, that there would be 10 a rendezvous between two vessels which were our vessels, and 11 this was coordinated with the Coast Guard.

12 Mr. Baron. Would you return to the second part of that 13 large question? Without reference to vessels, were CIA 14 employees or agents on the streets of cities in Southern 15 Florida immune from search or arrest by local law enforcement 16 authorities?

17 Mr. Halley. They were not immune.

18 Let me ask to dispel one myth that I think has developed 19 which is reflected in your question. We were meticulous to 20 insure that no weapons were issued to anybody until the men 21 were on the vessel outside of the immediate waters of south 22 Florida, and we were meticulous to insure that when they came 23 back from a mission that they were met at sea and all the 24 weapons were taken away from them.

25 So, when you talk about a group moving around in Florida,

1 we did work out through the entire state, and I did not want

3 you keep saying south Florida, I want to say to you that we 4 operated in the state of Florida, men moving around armed under 5 our control in the state of Florida, is just not correct.
6 This was all carefully controlled and they did not have their 7 weapons when they came back, we took them before they landed, 8 so they were not immune.

9 Mr. Baron. You did have general arrangements or agreements 10 with law enforcement agencies throughout Florida for the 11 treatment of CIA operatives who were affiliated with the JMWAVE 12 Station?

13 Mr. Halley. We did have, through our Office of Security, 14 a continuing dialogue with a number of law enforcement agencies 15 in Florida. If a problem developed, we would then contact them 16 and look at the issue within the context of what had transpired.
17 Certainly there was no immunity. In other words, this has to be 18 looked at on a case by case basis.

19 For instance, you know, we had a training site in north 20 Florida, as an example. If somebody came off of that site that 21 was drunk and disorderly in town and could not speak English, 22 the local authorities did have a number to call to raise this 23 with us to see whether this was somebody that was of interest

1 Mr. Baron. Back to the structure of the relationships
2 between yourself as Chief of Station at JMWAVE and any operatives 3 or employees who worked underneath you at that Station, would 4 it be fair to say that any activities run out of the Station 5 ultimately were channeled out through you?

6 Mr. Halley. They should have been, and they were -- you
7 know this Station went through several mutations in organization 8 during its existence. I guess the organizational structure that 9 existed for the longest period of time was something like I am 10 going to describe to you.

11 There was a Chief of Station, which was myself. I had a 12 Deputy Chief of Station for operations. That is the gentleman 13 who is now retired, I think he is still alive, by the name of 14 [redacted] I had a second Deputy Chief of Station and 15 he was for Support Patterns. That is a gentleman who is also 16 retired, [redacted]

17 Then the rest of the Station was organized into a number of 18 branches. Each branch was organized along functional lines.
19 Let me give you an example. There was a Foreign Intelligence 20 Branch. These were people in, what in my terminology would be 21 classical foreign intelligence operations. That is, trying to 22 recruit a Cuban diplomat abroad, as an example, dealing with, 23 you know, a Uruguayan diplomat in the Uruguayan Embassy in 24 Havana. They are working with resident agents in Cuba who might 25 live in some city like Havana and have a legal job as a baker or 2 communicate with us, through which they could communicate to us.

3 Then there was the Paramilitary Branch. This was the 4 group that ran the commando operations. This was the group that 5 ran, and put people back into Cuba, into resistance groups, or 6 established contact with resistance groups. This was a group 7 that also worked in putting in caches that would supply people, 8 either paramilitary forces in Cuba or agents that were being 9 run by the Foreign Intelligence Group.

10 All right. Then there was a Covert Action, people who 11 dealt with exiled refugee groups that were involved in radio 12 activities, publications, that kind of thing. Then there is a 13 whole panoply of -- then there was Maritime, in terms of 14 finance, and so on. Security was a branch. Obviously, under 15 that kind of system, no executive, whether he is president of 16 a corporation or a Station Chief, can see every single piece of 17 paper that comes in or out, but clearly there was a review 18 procedure whereby program reviews were conducted, individual 19 operational reviews were conducted.

20 Mr. Baron. By yourself?

18 Let me make sure that we understand each other, because

17 know, that Mr. Harvey and Mr. FitzGerald were totally dependent 18 on what I told them. To have an appreciation of what was going 19 on in Miami they had their own staff that was following

1 think they could do it. We think they should be guided to run 2 only twenty, fifteen, something like that. So they were not 3 totally dependent on me.

4 Mr. Baron. What was the nature of the split of responsi-
5 bility between Task Force W and JMWAVE Station?

6 In other words, were there certain operations that were 7 run directly out of Task Force W?

8 Mr. Halley. Also, you have to put this into a historical 9 time. What period are you talking about?

10 Mr. Baron. During the period of your tenure. If there 11 were changes during your tenure at JMWAVE, why do you not 12 explain those?

13 Mr. Halley. There were. Each one is different. Let me 14 give you a couple of examples.

15 Washington, Task Force W, essentially did not run any 16 any paramilitary operations where they took command and control 17 for sending people to Cuba. For instance, if Task Force W in 18 Washington wanted to plant a radio in Cuba which was to be picked 19 up by foreign intelligence agents who could report, they would 20 task us to implant that radio in a cache in a particular area 21 in Cuba, for instance, Oriente province. We would know simply 22 that it was a radio perhaps. We would then put it into 23 Oriente province, write up the site, give them the rip cord.
24 They would communicate to the agents in Cuba who would go 25 recover the cache.

1 So they had agents in Cuba that were reporting foreign 2 intelligence to them so they had collection assets that were 3 reporting to them along the same lines that we did. They did 4 work at a downstream point when FitzGerald came in with a 5 couple of groups -- in other words, they had contact with 6 Artime. I had no contact with the Artime group as a general 7 rule. They also had contact with Manolo Ray which I did not 8 have contact with. So they were working with these kinds of 9 larger exile groups.

10 The Task Force also specialized in much more economic 11 activity than I did. That is a question of looking at such 12 things as [] bus exports from [] to Cuba. 13,13

13 Mr. Baron. In terms of paramilitary operations, if an 14 assassination operation had been run by Task Force W, would 15 you have assumed as Chief of Station in Miami you would have 16 been aware of such an operation?

17 Mr. Halley. No, I do not assume that.

18 Mr. Baron. Would it not have been sound managerial 19 practice to let you know that there was an operation that might 20 have been run through Florida into Cuba?

21 Mr. Halley. No.

22 You know, the Agency is a highly compartmented mechanism.
 23 You know, let us dispel one thing very promptly here. If you 24 are asking me was I aware of all these contacts, you know, with 25 the Mafia -- and I think I can tell you frankly at that time I

1 was not -- Harvey would come, you know, to Miami, to visit me 2 to review the activities of the station, and while there would 3 go off on his own and make his contact with whomever he was 4 meeting. I knew he was meeting somebody, but it was not up to 5 me to find out with whom he was meeting or why he was meeting 6 them or what he was doing with them.

7 Mr. Baron. My question really was, I think more innocent 8 than that.

9 Was it strictly one of involving what correct management 10 techniques would be, or what kind of knowledge the Chief of 11 Station of JMWAVE would have to have in order to do an effective 12 job in dealing with the Cuban community and running operations 13 into Cuba? You seem to be saying that it would not be ...
 14 necessary to run an effective job to have knowledge of every 15 other operation that the CIA is running against Castro?

16 Mr. Halley. I think what I am saying during that particu-17 lar time -- I do not want you to come to the conclusion that 18 I was knowledgeable of everything that ran in from or through 19 the state of Florida, because during that period of time, for 20 instance, Mr. Harvey in particular was a very compartmented 21 gentleman, and it would be keeping with his style to run an 22 operation in which the locus of the operation might be Florida 23 and I would not know about it.

24 Now, that would be an unusual thing, but it is not precluded.

25 Mr. Baron. Let us turn for a moment to following up on the

1 nature of your contacts with William Harvey in reference to any 2 operations he may have in running unilaterally against Castro.
3 Do you recall aiding Harvey in an operation that he was in charge
4 of and that was not affiliated with JMWAVE?

5 Mr. Halley. I do not recall anything, I do not recall 6 anything specific. In other words, the pattern was in terms of 7 command and control, I would come to Washington on a regular 8 basis to review activity with Harvey after we submitted our 9 paperwork. Harvey was also a frequent visitor to Florida.

10 We would have operational discussions. He would talk to the 11 Branch Chiefs, he talked to people. He also went out on his 12 own, and he was meeting somebody, it was clear to me that he 13 was meeting people. But it was frankly in the way that the 14 Agency is run and managed, it was not a concern to me whom he 15 was meeting.

16 Mr. Baron. Would it have been proper of you to inquire 17 of him whom he was meeting?

18 Mr. Halley. No, it would not have been.

19 Mr. Baron. Did you have suspicions or speculation about 20 whom he might have been meeting or for what purpose that he 21 was having these meetings?

22 Mr. Halley. No, not for what purpose. There is a whole, 23 you know, panoply of things going on at that time. You know, 24 frankly I was a very busy guy; when Harvey was there, it occupied 25 one hunk of a lot of my time. If he wanted to go off, you know,

4 In this business you just do not ask your superior, what 5 are you doing? That is just not cricket; that is not the way

7 Mr. Baron. Do you recall a time when Harvey asked you to 8 procure arms and equipment to be passed to a Cuban exile?

9 Mr. Halley. To a Cuban exile?

10 Mr. Baron. Let me strike the reference to a Cuban exile.

11 Do you recall a time when Harvey asked your aid in procur-12 ing arms and equipment to be given to a man named Tony Varona 13 who was a contact of Harvey's?

14 Mr. Halley. I know Tony Varona. He was in the period -- 15 prior to the Bay of Pigs, he was part of the consejo.

16 Frankly, if you've got something that you can sharpen that 17 up, I think you need some basis, that I think that can trigger 18 my memory here. I do not remember frankly Tony Varona being 19 in Harvey's --

20 Mr. Baron. In contact with Harvey?

21 Mr. Halley. You know, I may have procured something for 22 Harvey, some kind of equipment or done some kind of operational 23 support task.

24 Mr. Baron. Let us make it more specific.

25 Do you recall helping Harvey load a U-Haul trailer full of 1 about $5,000 worth of arms and equipment to be left in a parking 2 lot and picked up there by a contact of Harvey's? And this 3 would be in approximately April of 1962.

4 Mr. Halley. I do vaguely remember something about a rented 5 truck. Quite frankly, I do not really recall all the details 6 of this at this particular time. I do not remember, you know, 7 personally procuring any material, but it is conceivable that 8 I did get a request from Harvey, that I did go to the logistics 9 apparatus, and whatever he had requested from official stocks 10 he was provided.

11 Mr. Baron. During that same period of time --

12 Mr. Halley. I do recall something about a truck. I do 13 not recall anything about a trailer. My recollection of this 14 truck incident seems to be -- I do not remember what it was.
15 We did do something for him logistically, I do remember a truck 16 being involved with some logistic material in terms of a 17 parking lot. But frankly that is about all I can recall of it 18 at this particular time.

19 Mr. Baron. Do you have any recollection of hearing of 20 poison pills in any connection during your tenure at JMWAVE?

21 Mr. Halley. No, I do not recall -- poison pills? Poison 22 pills, the only kind of thing I can recall occasionally when 23 people were talking about being on mother ships, you know, what 24 would happen if they were captured. This was a discussion 25 occasionally of whether any kind of drugs should be issued to

1 the people who were manning these vassels so they could do 2 themselves in if they were to be captured, things like that,
3 but we never issued any such pills but there were discussions 4 of that kind of a problem. I do recall specific agents who 5 were sent back to Cuba to run a collection or to go back into 6 the bush and so forth who asked for some sort of pills which 7 they could kill themselves with if they were captured.

8 But other than that -- if that is what you were referring 9 to, I think they are called L pills, or something, as they 10 were referred to in those days.

11 Mr. Baron. Why were they called L pills?

12 Mr. Hallev. Everything has a number or nomenclature, I 13 do not know.

14 Mr. Baron. Did you ever hear of poison pills to be used 15 in assassination operations against Fidel Castro or other 16 Cuban leaders?

17 Mr. Halley. No.

18 Is that referencing to this material that I might have 19 provided for Harvey? Because if that is the case, I can dispel 20 that quickly, because I would not have had access to them.

21 Mr. Baron. You would not have access to poison pills?

22 Mr. Halley. No, I would not have access to them.

23 Mr. Baron. Why not?

24 Mr. Halley. I did not have them in my inventory. That is 25 not anything that I have, you know, command and control of. That 8 specific now.

9 We have a document that I am about to show you. I just 10 wanted to clear up the background of it before we discussed 11 the document.

12 Mr. Halley. Let me just make this point. If you are 13 talking about drug pills, I had no source of such things, so 14 if that is the nature of your question, I can say I had nothing 15 to do with that. If you are talking about, you know --

16 Mr. Baron. Arms and equipment --

17 Mr. Halley. -- weapons or something, yes, that was in my 18 inventory. I could have issued that to Harvey, you know, guns, 19 ammunition, plastics, that kind of thing I could have had 20 access to, yes. That is why I am trying to sort out really 21 where the thrust of your questioning is.

22 Mr. Baron. There were two prongs to the question, you 23 have picked both of them up. One is whether you had ever heard 24 of poison pills in connection with an assassination operation 25 against Fidel Castro, and your testimony would be that you had

1 not, is that correct?

2 Mr. Halley. That is right. I would not have had access 3 to those pills myself, nor did the Station. In other words, if 4 I had wanted something like that, I would have had to corres-5 ponded with Washington in order to have had access to it, if 6 in fact it existed.

7 Mr. Baron. You never had any such correspondence?

8 Mr. Halley. I never had any correspondence that I can 9 recall.

10 Mr. Baron. The other problem was the supply of arms and 11 equipment to which you already replied.

12 Have you ever read that Inspector General's Report of 13 1967, prepared at the request of the DCI to fill him in on any 14 assassination efforts to which the CIA may have been connected?
15

16 Mr. Halley. No, I have not read the report.

17 Mr. Baron. Before you came here today you were not shown 18 any excerpts from this report to refresh your recollection at 19 the CIA?

20 Mr. Halley. The IG Report?

21 Mr. Baron. Yes.

22 Mr. Halley. No, I have not.

23 Mr. Baron. Were you shown any other documents at the CIA 24 today to refresh -- or in preparation for today's session --

25 Mr. Halley. No.

In preparation for today's session I have had several

2 Mr. Baron. Walt Elder?

3 Mr. Halley. I talked to Walt Elder on the phone. You know 4 the people who are involved in this thing. I have asked for 5 that, I talked to our attorney, Clarke --

6 Mr. Baron. George Clarke?

7 Mr. Halley. Yes.

8 -- I talked to a number of people, I asked to see the 9 newspaper clipping from the Miami Herald on the McGovern 10 activity. Yes, I have looked at that kind of thing. But I 11 have not looked at the specific IG Report. I have not read it, 12 I have not seen an extract of the IG Report.

13 Mr. Baron. Were you given any specific instructions as to 14 the kinds of things that you could say or not say here today?

15 Mr. Halley. You know, nothing beyond what you and I 16 touched on which you have already put on the record.

17 Mr. Baron. Which is not to mention the names of CIA 18 officers who are still operating under cover?

19 Mr. Halley. Right, or agents who would still be viable 20 that I know of.

6 (Pause)

7 Mr. Halley. I have no reason to doubt this. I may have 8 provided this support. I do not recall sitting in a parking lot 9 observing --

10 Mr. Baron. For the record, we are discussing the passage 11 that begins, "When the pills were given to Varona through 12 Roselli, Varona requested arms and equipment needed for the 13 support of his end of the operation. Roselli passed the request 14 to Harvey. Harvey, with the help of [Mr. Halley], the chief

16 Continuing.--And then it continues to say a large shopping 17 list of arms and equipment, which cost about $5,000 and were 18 supplied in a parking lot of a drive-in restaurant in a rented 19 U-Haul truck.

20 Would the cost of $5,000 have been an unusual expenditure 21 at that time at JMWAVE Station for arms and equipment?

23 expenditure.

1 Mr. Halley. No.

2 Now that I read over this thing, I do recall, as I told 3 you earlier before you showed me this document something about 4 a rented truck and being involved with Harvey in providing him
5 some logistical support for an activity. I do not recall this 6 specific list of equipment being involved, you know, somewhere 7 you got this and if I could check it against the files, if there 8 are any files available, I could verify whether this is correct 9 or not.

10 Mr. Baron. Whether or not the particular list is correct, 11 you would say that these couple of passages from the IG Report 12 generally characterize your involvement with Harvey in this 13 one incident correctly?

14 Mr. Halley. I would want to sharpen this up, because you 15 have one, two, two paragraphs here. In the first paragraph 16 there is a reference to some pills. I had nothing to do with 17 any pills. I have no recollection of any pills.

18 Mr. Baron. Let us jump then to the very last statement and 19 let me ask you if this confirms your own sense of your knowledge.

20 The report says: "Harvey says that [Halley]" -- here I 21 am using your alias -- "never knew to whom delivery was made nor 22 for what purpose. [Halley] was merely called upon to furnish 23 support for a headquarters operation from which he was otherwise 24 excluded."

25 Does that generally characterize correctly your point of

65

1 involvement with this activity?

2 Mr. Halley. I would say that is correct.

3 I want to go back to these other points, though, because 4 I want to be meticulously correct here. I do not recall the 5 specifics of this inventory of equipment. I do not recall,

6 you know, sitting in a parking lot, surveilling any kind of a

7 vehicle. On the other hand, I do recall having been involved

8 with Harvey in some sort of an effort with a U-Haul truck.

9 Now therefore that last sentence you have read is correct,

10 I knew nothing about any of this delivery and I was called upon

11 to furnish support for a headquarters operation from which I

12 was otherwise excluded.

13 Mr. Baron. You are not denying, are you, that you may have 14 sat near the parking lot and surveilled the truck until it was 15 picked up?

16 Mr. Halley. I have no recollection --

17 Mr. Baron. One way or the other?

18 Mr. Halley. No, I would say that my sitting in a parked

19 car with Harvey surveilling a parking lot is the kind of thing

20 that would have stuck in my mind. I do not recall ever doing

21 that and that is the thing that has me a little perplexed here

22 and I am having trouble matching this thing up with my own

23 memory. It would have been damned unusual for Harvey and I to 24 have sat in a parking lot, and I just do not recall that.

25 I do have a vague recollection of being involved with him

1 in some sort of caper involving a U-Haul truck.

2 Mr. Baron. At that time, if Harvey had made a request of 3 you to supply $5,000 worth of equipment like explosives, 4 detonators, .30 caliber rifles, .45 caliber handguns, radios
5 and boat radar, would you have supplied that equipment to Harvey 6 or to anyone he designated without asking him what the purpose 7 of the operation was?

8 Mr. Halley. Yes, I would have supplied it to Harvey or 9 to his designated representative, depending on how that person 10 identified himself to me with the equipment that he requested.
11 That was my chain of command and, if he had told me that he 12 had wanted this material for any operational activity, I would 13 have seen to it that it was issued to him. That is the way the 14 Agency functions.

15 Mr. Baron. Would it have been standard procedure in a 16 paramilitary operation to procure equipment that would not have 17 been traceable to the United States as the IG Report indicates 18 was done in this case?

19 Mr. Halley. It depends. It depends on what was the 20 sponsorship that was trying to be conveyed to the paramilitary
21 group.

22 In other words, let us say there was a Venezuelan business-23 man who may have been giving some assistance to a Cuban exile
24 group. If somebody had gotten in touch with that Venezuelan 25 businessman and he was saying I brought weapons into Florida

1 or equipment which I will give you, then maybe under that kind of 2 a circumstance we wouldn't want anything that would clearly

5 Mr. Baron. This request would not have been extraordinary 6 either, to provide "sterile" equipment to a contact of Harvey's?

8 make it seem out of the ordinary.

11 Mr. Halley. No.

12 Mr. Baron. Had you been aware of any operational 13 involvement that Jim O'Connell had with anyone in Florida at 14 any time?

15 Mr. Halley. I do not know Jim O'Connell. I have seen 16 references to Jim O'Connell in Jack Anderson's columns and 17 things like that since I have been reading the Press, but I 18 do not know Jim O'Connell. If he walked into this room, I 19 would not recognize him because I do not think I ever met the

15 Mr. Halley. Yes.

16 Mr. Baron. Did you ever hear of any assassination schemes 17 which may or may not have been put into effect involving 18 exploding sea shells that Castro might pick up by scuba diving?

19 Mr. Halley. No, I do not recall any exploding sea shells 20 while Castro was scuba diving, but the problem of Castro being 21 an avid scuba diver is well-known to me. As I recall, somewhere 22 in this thing there was a refugee group or Cuban exile group 23 or somebody at one time in this whole activity who had focused 24 on the question of whether Fidel Castro was vulnerable at the 25 time that he was scuba diving. I have heard that discussed but

TOP SECRET

1 frankly I do not remember in what forum, and your reference to 2 the scuba diving has triggered that response. Nothing about 3 exploding sea shells.

4 Mr. Baron. You do not recall ever hearing Desmond 5 FitzGerald mention that subject or hearing that Desmond 6 FitzGerald was involved in exploring that possibility, planting 7 an exploding sea shell?

8 Mr. Halley. The exploding sea shell is enough of an off-
9 beat kind of thing that I think I would have recalled it. I 10 don't recall it.

11 I do recall Castro's scuba diving, and that representing 12 a vulnerability and somewhere in the recesses of my memory, 13 that does strike a bell with me that some exile group, somebody 14 was talking about Fidel Castro being vulnerable while he was 15 scuba diving.

16 Mr. Baron. Did you ever hear of a plan to present Castro 17 with a skin-diving suit in which bacteria injurious to his health 18 would have been cultured, bacteria that would have produced 19 tuberculosis and would have produced a dreadful disease?

20 Mr. Halley. I have never heard of any bacteria approach 21 to the problem of dealing with Fidel Castro.

22 I do want to come back to this that I do recall something 23 about scuba diving, you know, on the range of Fidel being 24 vulnerable at the time he was scuba diving, but I do not recall 25 exploding sea shells or bacteria.

9 Mr. Baron. Other than what you read recently in the papers 10 did you acquire any knowledge during your period as Chief of 13 Mr. Halley. No. I had the impression from Harvey going 14 off that he was meeting with somebody, and at one point in time 15 I came to the impression that he was meeting a guy by the name 16 of John. Who John was, I had no idea. We were involved in an 19 a member of one of the casinos in Cuba at some time.

20 Mr. Baron. Do you remember who that was?

21 Mr. Halley. No, I do not. I do not remember the man's

3 I also think that there was some large scandal, when I was

5 Federal agent who was somehow involved with the Mafia and with 6 the Syndicate and there was some linkage in the Press between 7 Santos Trafficante, Cubans and the Federal agent, but I do not 8 remember the details of it.

9 Mr. Baron. The Federal agent was not a CIA employee?

10 Mr. Halley. No, he was not. My recollection is he was 12 Mr. Baron. You would make the same statement about John 13 Roselli that you had no knowledge of his connection with any

16 Mr. Halley. At the time that I was there -- you know, I

3 Mr. Halley. No.

4 Again, at the time I had no knowledge of Robert Maheu. I

6 and so forth. The name is familiar to me now.

7 Mr. Baron. The same question for Sam Giancana.

8 Mr. Halley. Again, I say in answer that at the time that 9 I was involved in '62 and '65 I did not know anything about 10 Sam Giancana. I have since read in the Press about him.
11 Therefore, the name is familiar to me today.

15 or against the Castro government?

16 Mr. Halley. At that time, Shef Edwards was known to me 17 as Director of Security. That is all. I had no knowledge of 18 his involvement in any activity against Fidel Castro in a 19 personal sense.

20 Shef Edwards did help Security Officers assigned to my 22 the performance of his officers who were on my staff. So during

8 Mr. Halley. No, I do not.

9 Mr. Baron. He also used the name of Garcia Gomez and 11 Mr. Halley. The only name that rings any bell with me 12 in Cuban contacts is Arturo Godoy. Is this the same man?

13 Mr. Baron. We do not have the first name of that alias.

14 In what connection had you heard of Arturo Godoy?

15 Mr. Halley. My recollection is I've known Arturo Godoy

18 I would have to go back.

2 Mr. Halley. The Tony Varona thing would surprise me,

4 Mr. Baron. Why is that?

5 Mr. Halley. Well, because here is a case where the guy 6 was a prominent exile figure, essentially residing in Miami, and 7 I knew of no contacts or had no reasons to suspect any contacts 8 with this kind of an exile figure, though once it specifically 9 appeared, I was aware of and it was discussed. This was done 10 under FitzGerald's stewardship with the Task Force. I was 13 that is what happened, that is what Harvey has testified to, 14 I accept that. I am surprised by it.

15 Mr. Baron. What was the nature of the CIA relationship 16 to Artime?

17 Mr. Halley. Well, the Miami Station had no direct relation-

19 ran from the Agency, from other people who actually worked with 20 him on a first time basis.

14 Mr. Baron. Did you deal directly with the case officers

16 Mr. Halley. I did not. My recollection of this AMLASH
17 case is as follows. At some point in time, I had a conversation 18 with Desmond FitzGerald in Washington during one of my periodic 19 visits to Washington from Miami. We discussed at that meeting 20 the nature of our approach to the military establishment in 21 Cuba. In the context of that conversation, Mr. FitzGerald asked

1 My advice to him was that it would probably not be a good 2 idea for him to meet him, and the only thing that I could see 3 coming out of that kind of a contact would be that he, Mr.
4 FitzGerald, would get a personal feel for what makes some of 5 these people tick, in human terms, and that that probably was 6 too high a price to pay for the prospect if anything went wrong, 7 an individual as prominent in Washington as, both within the 8 Agency and the social world in Washington, would be exposed in 9 the Press. That would create a flap that I thought was not

6 Mr. Baron. At the point that you were having these

9 in the second instance his reaction to his contact with AMLASH-1 10 do you recall FitzGerald mentioning to you the fact that 11 AMLASH had requested assurances that high officials of the U.S.
12 government would stand behind him if he undertook operations on 13 behalf of the CIA?

14 Mr. Halley. I do not recall this at the time.

15 You know, I also want to say, as you probably know from 16 the record, I was later Chief of the WH Division from 1972 to 17 1973, and I did read some of the files. I am familiar with 18 the case. But at the time -- I am trying to be schizophrenic, 19 you know, to put this in the time sequence in which we are

1 FitzGerald and his staff were working on what I was doing in 2 Miami to try to establish contacts with the Cuban military.
3 In other words, we saw this as a multi-faceted approach. First, 4 we wanted penetrations of the Cuban military so that we could 5 collect intelligence. What were their strengths, weaknesses, 6 what was their mood, where were things going? Secondly, we 7 wanted from these sources operational intelligence. Who -- in 8 other words, who in these groups were dissatisfied as Fidel
9 consolidated. Who could provide leadership for a counter-10 movement against Fidel?

11 We were looking for people, once we had identified them, 12 to see if we could establish contacts with any of these leaders 13 so we could see whether there was a basis for working toward 14 an overthrow of the Castro government. You know, those were 15 the basic steps.

16 Now as you got down to talking about how you overthrow 17 Castro, obviously the question comes in of how does a group who 18 wants to run a coup or take power take power, and obviously 19 one of the things that has to be looked at is where does the 20 existing leadership going to be during this event, who has 21 control of the various units. So our discussions were all in 7 Did you read all of those files?

8 Mr. Halley. No, I did not.

9 Mr. Baron. How did you gather your impression that that 10 was in the AMLASH files?

11 Mr. Halley. I think I may have read one or two volumes 12 of whatever my question was at the time, because these cases 13 keep coming up. You know, there must have been some inquiry 14 at the time that necessitated my looking at the folder or 15 discussing it with my staff and so on.

16 Mr. Baron. As far as you knew, what was the objective of 17 the contact with Arttime?

18 Mr. Halley. You mean the CIA contact with Arttime?

19 Mr. Baron. Yes.

20 Mr. Halley. As a concept, the Arttime thing was looked at 21 as another track, an approach to the overall Cuban problem to 22 see if they could sort of do it on their own. If they could 23 simply be given, you know, X number of dollars, some equipment,

17 Artime was involved in that he got a number of weapons, any 18 number of which could have been used for sniper type activities.
19 I am aware of the fact that he had a base to 10 Mr. Halley. The first part, as I mentioned to you earlier 11 the CIA did establish a relationship with Arttime and he was 12 given funds and other support to run his approach to solving

13 do not recall any other case but that one.

14 Mr. Baron. Are you aware of any contact between the CIA 15 and Meyer Lansky?

16 Mr. Halley. No, I am not aware of any contact between the 17 CIA and Meyer Lansky.

18 Mr. Baron. Was Howard Hunt connected with any Cuban 19 operations during the period of your tenure at JMWAVE Station?

20 Mr. Halley. Howard Hunt was involved in the Bay of Pigs
21 Operation. After the Bay of Pigs Operation was over, he did not 22 participate in the Cuban activities that I was aware of. You 23 may know something that I do not know, because, you know, you

3 Mr. Baron. Have you ever heard the phrase Executive

5 Mr. Halley. Yes.

6 Mr. Baron. What does that signify to you?

7 Mr. Halley. Well, Executive Action is some sort of a 8 euphemism -- to eliminate somebody, I guess is how it appears 9 in the popular jargon.

10 Mr. Baron. Did you hear it in the Agency?

11 Mr. Halley. No, I think that this is a term that has been 12 bandied about in the Press that has come about in the Press to 13 be synonymous with killing somebody or something like that.

14 Mr. Baron. It is not, as far as you know, a euphemism in 15 common usage within the Agency?

16 Mr. Halley. No.

17 Mr. Baron. Had you ever heard of the ZRRIFLE Project run 18 by William Harvey?

19 Mr. Halley. No, I do not know what it is.

20 Mr. Baron. Have you ever heard of -- 21 Mr. Halley. I want to make sure here that I am accurate, 22 you know. You are asking me ZRFIFLE. That is a cryptonym for 23 something.

3 Mr. Halley. Let me go back. You asked me about ZRRIFLE.

4 This is one of a thousand or hundreds of cryptonyms. Every day
5 I read, you know, hundreds of pages of traffic, so when you ask 6 me do I know what ZRRIFLE is, I must answer you off the top of 7 my head no. I have tried to be helpful. I have asked you 8 several times if you could give me a steering tip or show me 9 what direction you are going, I might be able to try to comment 10 on it, but ZRRIFLE as such means nothing to me. You really 11 could not expect that it would, given the thousands of these 12 things that come across my desk.

13 Mr. Baron. That is absolutely understandable. I want to 14 try to see what happens in the way of getting an unrefreshed 15 recollection from you, then I will go back over these two, 16 especially the next one, QJWIN. Do you recall a CIA asset who 17 went by the cryptonym QJWIN?

18 Mr. Halley. No, I do not. Knowing the system, and so 19 forth, normally it would have something to do with It 20 does not ring any bells with me. That is all I can give you, 21 a sort of Pavlovian response. You flash QJWIN on the screen,

1 run by William Harvey?

2 Mr. Halley. To develop the capability to carry on the 3 assassination?

4 Mr. Baron. Yes.

5 Mr. Halley. No. I have no knowledge of Harvey being 6 focused on a project or given the capability of carrying one 7 out.

8 Mr. Baron. Harvey has testified, as has Richard Bissell, 9 I will represent to you, that instruction was given by Bissell
10 to Harvey to set up, to develop such a capability in early 1961 11 and that Harvey took steps to develop such a capability in 12 coordination with an asset in New York named QJWIN and I think 13 that period of greatest activity was in 1962 and WIN was 14 involved in spotting potential assets among the criminal under-15 world [] and might be used for any number of dirty 16 deeds.

17 Mr. diGenova. It should be emphasized that the Executive 18 Action Plan that you are referring to has had as its goal the 19 incapacitation of foreign leaders, one possibility of 20 incapacitation being the ultimate weapon, assassination. It 21 was just not assassination. It was a spectrum of activities 22 that could be used to incapacitate a foreign leader anywhere 23 from illness, chemical warfare, and then including death.
24 Correct me if I am wrong, but it was not just assassination.

1 Mr. Baron. Let us pick out some specifics and discuss 2 them briefly here.

3 Near the beginning of this article, it mentions that JMWAVE 4 Station operated within an annual budget of well in excess of 5 $50 million.

6 Would that be accurate to you?

7 Mr. Halley. I do not recall whether that is an accurate 8 figure. We would have to go back to the records. You know, as 9 I explained to you earlier, the start of the operation taking 10 place in March and escalated up to a high point and then 11 dropped off. In the budgetary cycle, we are dealing with a 12 mass of figures, and I would not want to give you an inaccurate 13 answer. That is something that could be researched -- we have 14 the files -- rather than speculate for you on the buildup and 15 reduction in the operation. I do not feel that is useful.

16 Mr. Baron. As a ballpark figure, would you be able to 17 place the annual budget of the Station in the neighborhood 18 of tens of millions of dollars?

19 Mr. Halley. No, I would not, because of this transition, 20 you know, period, the costs were very high in the beginning to 21 get a start-up operation, brought to a certain peak, and then 22 tapered off and starting to be peeled back. I would not want 23 to draw a figure of -- 24 Mr. diGenova. What would the start-up cost?

25 Mr. Halley. In terms of what they involved or dollars?

3 Mr. Baron. Would you say that $50 million would be in the 4 right ballpark for your activities at the peak?

5 Mr. Halley. I just have no recollection of the dollar
6 figure. You might want to get that figure when you can retrieve 7 it in the files. It is available.

8 Mr. Baron. Were the operations of JMWAVE coordinated with 9 other Latin American CIA Station's, as the article indicates 10 here?

11 Mr. Halley. I think my recollection of that phase is that 12 Cuban activities with other Latin American stations were 13 coordinated with JMWAVE.

14 Mr. Baron. Coordinated with JMWAVE?

15 Mr. Halley. With JMWAVE.

16 Mr. Baron. Who had the central coordinating responsibility?

17 Mr. Halley. Washington.

18 Mr. Baron. Was that delegated by Washington to you?

19 Mr. Halley. No. Essentially Washington had the overall 20 coordinating responsibility, but that needs some elaboration.

21 Let me say that we would become aware in our activities in 22 Miami that a number of interesting people had come in on a 23 flight to Mexico City. We would send a cable down to Mexico 24 City with an information copy to Washington outlining who we 25 were interested in, and I would probably send somebody down to

1 Mexico to look at the particular Cuban or the operational
2 opportunity in conjunction with the Station Chief in Mexico
3 City. So we were in some cases a clearinghouse.

4 The final coordination authority rested in Washington. I 5 will say that if Miami wanted to do something and for local 6 political reasons in Mexico the Mexican Station Chief did not 7 want to do it, that would be adjudicated, not by Miami, but by 8 Washington.

9 Mr. Baron. Let me quote you a passage here and see if it 10 comports with our discussions earlier of special arrangements 11 you may have, the JMWAVE Station may have had, with law enforce-12 ment authorities in Florida.

13 The article says: "All the boat missions to Cuba were tech-14 nically illegal under the Neutrality Act, the Maritime Laws, 15 and Immigration statutes, so that the Station had to work out 16 special arrangements with Customs, Immigration and the Coast 17 Guard."

18 Is that generally accurate?

19 Mr. Halley. I think, as I described to you before, there 20 was coordination with the Coast Guard in terms of vessel 21 departures. The other is Immigration?

22 Mr. Baron. Customs, Immigration and Coast Guard.

23 Mr. Halley. Immigration, there would not have been 24 coordination on a particular, you know, boat dispatch. On the 25 other hand, let's say if a mission aborted for some reason and

1 a small boat could not recover its position and get back to the 2 mother ship to be picked up and it was adrift or came in to one 3 of the islands or came in to the Florida coast anywhere and was 4 picked up and picked up by Immigration inspectors, then they 5 would ask to have their case referred to a particular individual 6 It may have been a code number, a color code, it may have been 7 phrase. But then Immigration would get in touch with us and say 8 we have this group, here is what they say, what is your interest 9 in this particular group, and then that would be adjudicated 10 at that point.

11 Now the third group was Customs. Customs did have a 12 number of patrols and at times when boat loadings were conducted 13 off the Florida Keys in particular, those were coordinated with 14 the Coast Guard so they would not be expending their manpower 15 to run down groups that were extricating with us, in fact the 16 Agency was doing.

17 Mr. Baron. The article continues to say: "It was illegal 18 for agents to travel around with machine guns and plastic 19 explosives in the cars, as they often did. The Station had to 20 establish liaison with seventeen police jurisdictions along 21 the Florida coast and into the Keys. The result was that 22 any agent who was arrested for anything from drunken driving to 23 illegal possession of firearms would be quickly released."

24 Is that accurate?

25 Mr. Halley. I commented on that before, and we are on the

1 record on that as saying that we did not drive around, there 2 were no vehicles moving, manned by these Cubans with arms and 3 weapons on them.

4 In other words, you are coming back to the same point, 5 because as I explained to you, the weapons were only given to 6 them on the vessel and taken back from them when they came back 7 from a mission, so that the statement is not actually correct.

8 Mr. Baron. What about the end of that passage where they 9 say that the result, and I understand that you would disagree 10 as to whether it was a result of this kind of a practice which 11 you say was not carried on at all.--

12 Mr. Halley. It was not.

13 Mr. Baron. Did a situation exist where any agent who was 14 arrested for anything from drunken driving to illegal possession 15 of firearms would be quickly released.

tape 6

16 Mr. Halley. I have to go back and divide your question 17 into two parts. There were no firearms --

18 Mr. Baron. I am not saying firearms supplied to them by 19 the CIA for a CIA mission or any agent travelling down the 20 street in Miami who happened to have a Saturday Night Special 21 in his car or who happened to be drunk while driving. Would 22 such a person be released right away or once the CIA connection 23 surfaced?

24 Mr. Halley. My answer to that is no. In other words, if 25 he had a Saturday Night Special and was picked up by the police

1 and detained, and if he then asked to be in contact with us, 2 the case would be looked at at that particular point and if he 3 had a Saturday Night Special, you know, there would not be any 4 intervention on his behalf because it had nothing to do with 5 his task on the behalf of CIA.

6 I did mention to you earlier we had training camps in various 7 parts of the State. If somebody came out of the training camp
8 and did get drunk and was picked up and did not speak English 9 or something and the police jurisdictions did have a way of 10 getting in touch with us and we might intervene on a case of 11 disorderly conduct.

12 Mr. diGenova. How was that established, the relationship of 13 liaison with these jurisdictions. Had it been set up with 14 JMWAVE directly through Washington and down through the FBI?
15 How had that been done?

16 Mr. Halley. It varied. When we started expanding the 17 operation, you know, there had already been a Station there 18 and there also were two security units in the greater Miami 19 area. In some cases the existing contacts at the Station were 20 expanded, the same with Dade County. In other cases, the 21 security of personnel who had established contact with other 22 jurisdictions were used to effect the introduction. In some 23 cases, we had our security people who were on my staff go out 24 to these jurisdictions and identify themselves simply with a 25 badge and a name and discuss the kinds of things that they were

99

1 interested in so that there would not be a cross of problems 2 with these jurisdictions and therefore a liaison was opened on 3 that basis, a multiplicity of approaches.

4 Mr. Baron. The article discusses the fact that regular 5 commando raids were run out of JMWAVE Station to the shore of 6 Cuba, and that those commandos were equipped with all kinds of 7 explosives and armaments.

8 Is that generally a fair statement, that we were running on 9 a regular basis commando raids to Cuba?

10 Mr. Halley. Yes. There were a series of commando raids 11 run from the Miami Station against targets in Cuba.

12 Mr. Baron. Were assassination weapons, that is, high-powered 13 rifles with low muzzle velocity and telescopic sights, supplied 14 to those commando teams as a matter of course?

15 Mr. Halley. No, they were not. For most of those 16 commando teams, you were looking for a different kind of a 17 weapon. You are looking for a weapon with a high range of fire 18 power over a short distance to deal with an emergency situation 19 rather than the kind of, you know, weapon that we are talking 20 about.

21 In other words, you would find that type of a group armed 22 with a submachine gun, as for example.

23 Mr. Baron. If an assassination weapon as we have 24 described it was supplied to a commando team, they would have 25 to have a specific purpose in mind for its use?

1 Mr. Halley. Yes.

2 Also, again, all of these weapons were controlled, the 3 weapons that were issued at the time of the mission on the 4 mother ship and picked up on the team's return to the mother 5 ship, so there was accountability for the weapons.

6 Mr. Baron. Would it have been unusual to supply what we 7 have called an assassination weapon to a commando team?

8 Mr. Halley. Well, that depends on the mission. For 9 instance, let me use an example.

10 Most of the missions that were run were run against targets 11 that were in fairly close proximity to the shore. If you are 12 going to put a party to attack your objectives, let us say the 13 objective was a petroleum storage tank, if you were going to do 14 this by putting charges up against the petroleum storage tank 15 that meant that you had to have a group infiltrate close 16 enough to put the charges on the tank. Some distance away 17 from them you would give them a second element of the commando 18 team which would be providing covering fire for this group in 19 case they got into trouble and cannot handle it on the ground.
20 This covering fire group might have had a light machine gun, 21 a Belgian weapon. They could have these kinds of weapons and 22 they did have these kinds of weapons which in the definition you 23 are using could be used as a sniper weapon or whatever, but the 24 basic reason for having that weapon was to provide fire support 25 for the other members of the commando team. And therefore when

1 this mission was over and they returned, those weapons were 2 taken back from them and accounted for. They were shaken down 3 so that we did not have weapons disappearing out of our 4 control.

5 Mr. Baron. Such weapons, high-powered rifles with telescopic 6 scopes, conceivably with silencers, were supplied with some 7 regularity, but they were kept under tight control?

8 Mr. Halley. We had high-powered rifles. I cannot think now 9 of a case where there was a sniper scope attached to the rifle.
10 I can think of no case where there was a silencer attached to 11 a rifle in any of these commando raids. There were a number of 12 raids conducted, some of them involved teams of fifteen or 13 twenty men. I am not prepared to say that no man ever had one, 14 but I do not recall one. You know, if you gave me an inventory 15 which are in the files, for each of the operations and say here 16 is the operation plan, does this list of equipment fifteen years 17 later look reasonable to you, I would be able to tell you yes
18 or no. But off the top of my head, I do not recall a sniper 19 scope or a silenced rifle.

20 Mr. Baron. Do you know a man by the name of Rolando 21 Martinez?

22 Mr. Halley. Of Watergate involvement?

23 Mr. Baron. Yes.

Mr. Baron. In the Harper's article, it says that Martinez indicated that "More than once he was given personal charge of weapons drops in which special rifles with silencers and telescopic sights were left in designated inland spots."

Do you know of a factual basis for that statement?

Mr. Halley. Martinez is undoubtedly factually correct when he says he put caches on the coast of Cuba that contained weapons. I do not know how he would be able to tell what kind of weapons were in the cache. The reason I say that is that when one of these missions were planned, the cache was put together and packed by our logistics group and once the cache was put together it was brought on board the vessel and the cache was then turned over to the team for infiltration so he would never have seen the contents of the cache, he would not have opened it up because it was always in a sealed container.

It is conceivable that in the pre-mission briefing that he got before he went down that he was told that we are putting in a cache containing a radio or putting in a cache containing weapons because that would influence what he selected as a cache type. In other words, if it were a radio, we would want it higher and drier than we would a can containing weapons that were wrapped in cosmolene and so forth. He might know that they were weapons, but he wouldn't know that they were silenced and they had a scope. I must honestly say to you I doubt that.

1 Mr. Baron. Did you know of any weapons drops that were 2 made for the purpose of supplying someone inside Cuba with a 3 weapon for the assassination of Fidel Castro?

4 Mr. Halley. No, not for that clearly stated purpose. As 5 I told you, we put a lot of weapons caches in. The weapons were 6 multi-purpose weapons, could be used. I know of no cache that 7 went in specifically for the task of playing a contributory role 8 to assassinating Fidel Castro.

9 Mr. Baron. It would not have been contrary to the policy 10 directives under which you were operating at the time to 11 supply such a weapon to someone inside Cuba who might have 12 access to Castro?

13 Mr. Halley. No, it would not have been. For instance, 14 I can remember several resistance groups that we had that had two or 15 three hundred men that we were supplying on a regular basis.

16 Mr. diGenova. Inside Cuba?

17 Mr. Halley. Inside Cuba, that were essentially living in 18 the bush to a large extent, whom we did supply weapons to and 19 got ammunition to them and so forth. And that was why I was 20 very careful when you mentioned this linkage before to saying 21 that I could not be a guarantor as to what these men would do 22 with these weapons once they got their hands on them. They 23 were free agents.

24 Mr. diGenova. This is an interesting point. This has

1 what you have said is a concern of not only yourself in terms of 2 realizing that it was a possibility but of people like Dean 3 Rusk and Mr. McCone, who also said, you have to realize then 4 once these agents are in another country and are supplied that 5 there is little if anything we can do to control those weapons 6 after they receive them. It would be safe to say that that, of 7 course, was understood that there was a lack of control, and 8 to the extent that it was a problem, it existed and had to be 9 tolerated because of the nature of the operation, would that 10 be correct?

11 Mr. Halley. I do not know whether I want to phrase it 12 exactly as you have in terms of this lack of control. Our 13 mission in dealing with these groups was to first, to put them 14 in areas where we did not have other intelligence covers. Their 15 first task was to collect intelligence.

16 The second task was to organize a resistance which would 17 take armed action if we ever got a total package put together 18 that gave us an opportunity -- that was the first and secondary 19 missions. Once we issued the weapons to the team leader, if 20 you will, he had freedom to recruit from among the peasants
21 anybody he wanted to. If he gave the peasant a weapon, there 22 was no guarantee either by the team leader or by us that that

13 Mr. Halley. I cannot speak to this period that you are 15 Mr. diGenova. During your period.

16 Mr. Halley. During my period, the weapons were issued 17 essentially as self-protection for the people who were living

22 Mr. Baron. There is one further quote from Martinez in 23 this article that I would like to ask you to comment on.
24 He is quoted as saying: "I took a lot of weapons to Cuba, some 25 of them were very special weapons for special purposes. They

1 were powerful rifles with sophisticated scopes, Springfields
2 with bolt action, rifles only used by snipers. They were not 3 sent to shoot pigeons or to kill rabbits. Everyone in the 4 Underground was plotting to kill Castro and the CIA was helping 5 the Underground. I was with the Underground as well as the CIA, 6 so you can see I was involved in the plots too, but that is 7 also obvious."

8 You commented before that there was a lot of talk in the 9 air about assassinating Castro. Martinez seems to be taking 10 that a few steps further, saying that there were actual plots 11 underway in the Cuban Underground to assassinate Castro and 12 that people who worked with the CIA were aware of those plots 13 and were aiding them in effect by the weapons they were 14 supplying.

15 Is that an accurate statement?

16 Mr. Halley. No, I do not think I can go along with that 17 statement. Martinez' role as I described it to you, he is 18 accurate when he says that weapons were put in and that 19 he participated in putting them in. I again question how he 20 would know what was in each cache. I just do not see that, and 21 I would have to accept that as a sort of secondhand statement 22 by him because of the way that the caches were put together.
23 I just do not see his knowing that.

24 Now I don't want to exclude, however, that any particular 25 kind of weapon did not go to Cuba. Maybe bolt-action

2 Mr. diGenova. Could he have found out about this after 3 the fact from people that he knew in Cuba, members of the 4 resistance in Cuba that he knew of who would have told him the 5 nature of the items that they would have received in a cache 6 delivery? Would that be one way that he could have found out?
7 Was he that intimately involved, to your knowledge?

8 Mr. Halley. He was not at the time. This is the period 9 that I am familiar with, '62-'65. I do not know. Maybe some 10 of these people have come out since then, and maybe he has 11 talked to people who have come out in '68, '69, things like that.
12 I cannot exclude that.

13 At the time, I do not think, however, he would have had 14 that kind of firsthand knowledge, and therefore I have trouble 15 with that statement and I cannot identify with it.

16 Mr. Baron. The Harper's article says: "By the end of 17 1961, several men affiliated with the CIA had already been 18 foiled in attempts to kill him" -- meaning Castro -- "among 19 them, Luis Toroella, executed; Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo, still in 20 prison; William Morgan, executed; and Antonio Veciana, escaped 21 to the United States. Had these men succeeded, their efforts 22 would have been tied to the U.S. only indirectly, if at all."

23 Let me show you the passage I am reading from and ask 24 you whether you have any knowledge of the connection of any of 25 those men named to the CIA.

2 Mr. Halley. No, there is no connection that I know of 3 between these names and CIA. This guy Luis Toroella does not 4 ring any bells with me. Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo was a leader of 5 Alpha 66. He may have been in Cuba in '61. During the time 6 that I was involved in Cuban affairs he was in exile for -- he 7 was in Miami for a long period of time.

8 Mr. Baron. Can you explain what Alpha 66 is for the 9 record?

10 Mr. Halley. Alpha 66 was a Cuban exile organization that 11 was engaged in a number of raids against the Cuban government.
12 They claimed to have attacked Cuban shipping, fishing boats, and 13 claimed to have an organization in Cuba that was a resistance 14 organization. Gutierrez Menoyo was therefore a well-known name 15 to me. We had no direct contact with him.

16 William Morgan is also a well-known name. His activities 17 and exploits in Cuba are well-known to anybody that has dealt 18 with Cuban affairs.

19 Mr. Baron. Do you have any knowledge of a connection

2 Mr. Halley. Well, no, I would not say that. If you had 3 Gutierrez Menoyo sitting here and if he were to say in 1962 I

9 Mr. Halley. No.

11 back up to date. Morgan did get himself in trouble with Fidel 12 over some issue, as I recall was in prison. I do not recall, 13 remember if he was executed, although this says he was executed.

14 Mr. Baron. What about the last name on the list,

16 Mr. Halley. That is a name that rings a bell with me, but 17 I do not attach anything to it. In other words, it is a name 18 I have probably read in various and sundry kinds of reports.

1 Gutierrez Menoyo. We did have a steady stream of reporting on 10 Mr. Halley. No, I cannot point to any names that in my 11 mind are attached to an assassination attempt against Castro.

12 You asked me to look at this originally to see if any of the 13 names were familiar to me in any way. I made a list of some 14 of the names that rang a bell with me, for various reasons.

15 One name is Humberto Sori Marin. I recall that he was 16 active, he was active with the DRE.

17 Mr. Baron. At what page is that?

18 Mr. Halley. There is no page number.

19 For instance, here's a name, Humberto Sori Marin. That is 20 familiar to me. I do not know whether that was from the 21 reporting showing that he was in prison, you know, we constantly 22 got reporting on, or why, it is a name that I recognize in the 23 counterrevolutionary sense, that it is something that crossed 24 my desk, to see the name.

25 All right. The other name that is familiar is Tony Varona.

4 There is another name in here, Manolo Ray. I mentioned
5 Manolo Ray to you. He was one of two exile leaders who had a

7 one; Manolo Ray is another. He is familiar to me as a result of 8 that.

9 Mr. Baron. You did not know of any involvement of Manolo 10 Ray in an assassination effort against Castro?

11 Mr. Halley. I do not.

12 Here is another name mentioned in the same paragraph, 13 Aureliano Sanchez Arango. That is a name that is familiar to 14 me as a prominent Cuban exile.

15 Mr. Baron. You have no more specific recollection?

22 Do you have any recollection of a plot alluded to in this

7 Mr. Baron. Do you have any knowledge of any efforts to 9 Mr. Halley. No, I do not. As you know, Guantanamo had 10 a number of Cuban exiles in it, people who had taken refuge in 11 the base at one time or another. During the time that I was the 12 Station Chief in Miami we did have contacts with people at 13 Guantanamo. We did use them for intelligence collection 14 purposes, but I do not have any linkage between that intelligence 15 project and assassination.

16 Mr. Baron. Were paramilitary operations run out of 17 Guantanamo Bay?

18 Mr. Halley. They were not during my time as Station Chief 19 in Miami by CIA. There was an office of ONI, Office of 20 Naval Intelligence representative on Guantanamo. I have no 21 knowledge of what they may have been doing during various 7 Mr. Halley. He was not.

8 Mr. Baron. Not under the name of Frank Fiorino either?

9 Mr. Halley. No, he was not. This is again one of these 10 great myths. At this whole Cuba thing, Frank Sturgis was a 11 soldier of fortune, was constantly involved on the periphery 12 of the Cuban exile community. He was involved in free lance 13 operations against Cuba. He was somebody that the FBI, 14 Customs, CIA, everybody, reported on. He was a household name, 15 but he was not on the CIA payroll during the period that I was 16 involved in Cuban affairs, that is the payroll of the Miami 17 Station. I remember name traces being run on this guy and so 18 forth, and the Agency had no contact with him during that 19 period of time.

20 Mr. Baron. Are you aware of his ever having been on the 21 payroll of the CIA?

22 Mr. Halley. I personally am not aware of it, and I think, 23 you know, if you had gone to the Agency that they must have given 24 you all sorts of traces on this fellow and told you the same 25 thing.

1 Mr. Halley. I do not know if your question means the same
2 thing to me. I would prefer to say we had a liaison relation-3 ship with the FBI, that is, on matters dealing with counter-4 intelligence matters. There was a regular exchange of data
5 with the FBI. There was an exchange of name traces on people 6 that they were conducting investigations on. for counterintelli-7 gence purposes. We would trace certain individuals and with the 8 FBI there were a couple of counterintelligence cases that we 9 discovered that were turned over to the FBI.

10 So this is in the context of the normal CIA-FBI liaison 11 that existed between the two agencies.

13 paramilitary commando raids to the shore of Cuba, is that

18 Mr. Halley. No, I was not. We are plowing the same ground 19 that we covered before in this.

20 As I indicated to you, people would come out of Cuba and 21 discuss these kinds of things. Some of these were reported in, 22 you know, traffic back to Washington. People would discuss

1 back, if you are saying that if anybody outlined an operational

4 you asked me about those exploding sea shells of which I said

17 Castro, whether or not an operation should be mounted --

18 Mr. Halley. I cannot recall any such discussion, but in 19 any state where there is a leadership dominated by one man, it 20 is always a discussion of succession. That question has come 21 up, you know, if something happened to Fidel Castro, if he is 22 thrown over, if he does something foolish himself or if somebody

8 It is my understanding in discussing the structure of 11 came down to Miami to visit the Station to get firsthand 12 knowledge of what was transpiring. Is that correct?

13 Mr. Halley. That is correct.

14 Mr. diGenova. Do you have any idea when that was?

15 Mr. Halley. No. I stated earlier it was in 1962. It 16 probably was in the summer of 1962 because it was after my 17 family arrived in Miami. I do not remember the exact dates.
18 It could be established probably from records of the Agency.

7 Mr. Halley. He had no contact with any Cubans that I am 8 aware of. He did spend the night that he came down with some 9 friends at Homestead Air Force Base, but I do not recall, I 10 would have no way of knowing what he did that evening.

11 Mr. diGenova. For the time that he was at JMWAVE he was 14 Mr. Halley. That is correct.

15 Mr. diGenova. I have no further questions.

16 Mr. Baron. On the record, I just want to thank you for 17 your testimony here today. It has been a long day and we

20 I would also like to ask you, if you would, to pursue for believed he was being supported by U.S. businessmen with financial stakes in Cuba. Roselli needed Cianciana and Trafficante in the first phase as a means of establishing contacts inside Cuba. He did not need them in the second phase, because he had Varona. However, it would be naive to assume that Roselli did not take the precaution of informing higher-ups in the syndicate that he was working in a territory considered to be the private domain of someone else in the syndicate.)

When the pills were given to Varona through Roselli, Varona requested arms and equipment needed for the support of his end of the operation. Roselli passed the request to Harvey. Harvey, with the help of Ted Shackley, the chief of the JMWAVE Station, procured explosives, detonators, twenty .30 caliber rifles, twenty .45 caliber hand guns, two radios, and one boat radar. Harvey says that the "shopping list" included some items that could be obtained only from the U.S. Government. Harvey omitted those items, because Roselli, posing as a representative of private business interests, would not have had access to such equipment. The cost of the arms and equipment, about $5,000, was T/A'd to headquarters.

Harvey and Shackley rented a U-Haul truck under an assumed name, loaded it with the arms and equipment, and parked it in the parking lot of a drive-in restaurant. The keys were then given to Roselli for delivery either to Maceo, to Varona, or to Varona's son-in-law. Evidently Harvey and Roselli had not yet come to trust each other. Perhaps fearing a double-cross, each set about independently to assure himself that the equipment reached the proper hands. After parking the truck, Harvey and Shackley kept the parking lot under surveillance until the pass was completed. Roselli, accompanied by O'Connell, did the same. Neither pair knew that the other was watching. Eventually the truck was picked up and driven away. It was returned later, empty, and with the keys under the seat as prearranged. Harvey returned it to the rental agency. Harvey says that Shackley never knew to whom delivery was made nor for what purpose. Shackley was merely called upon to furnish support for a headquarters operation from which he was otherwise excluded.

Harvey and Roselli arranged a system of telephone communication by which Harvey was kept posted on any developments. Harvey, using a pay phone, could call Roselli at the Friars Club in Los Angeles at 1500 hours, Los Angeles time. Roselli could phone Harvey at Harvey's home in the evening. Roselli reported that the pills were in Cuba and at the restaurant reportedly used regularly by Castro.

Es de destacar que en las innumerables infiltraciones organizadas por la CIA, utilizando miembros de organizaciones contrarrevolucionarias, uno de los objetivos constantes ha sido también la eliminación física del Comandante en Jefe Fidel Castro Ruz.

No han vacilado tampoco en tratar de ejecutar sus acciones en lugares públicos, donde el número de víctimas inocentes hubiese sido incalculable, como fueron: los atentados planificados en el Stadium Latinoamericano, Plaza de la Re-

It is worth noticing that, in the innumerable infiltrations organized by the CIA, using --- members of counterrevolutionary organizations, one of the permanent goals has also been the physical elimination of Commander in Chief, Fidel Castro Ruz.

The CIA, in orden to carry out its plans, has used counterrevolutionary individuals inside and outside the country. It has had as collaborators, not only those who had been shifted from power, but also individuals of different social origins, including samples of all types of viciousness.

In the same way, they have had no objection to recruiting well-known leaders and members from the American maffia, to whom they have barred their offences, in exchange for their participation in the plots against our leaders.

Nor have they hesitated in trying to carry out their actions in public places, where the number of innocent victims would have been incalculable, as were the crimes planned to take place at the Latin American Stadium, the Revolution Square and the University of Ha--

Durante los últimos meses, la prensa norteamericana ha publicado una creciente y amplia información sobre la realización de estas actividades, ofreciendo en detalles la participación de la Agencia Central de Inteligencia en la elaboración y ejecución de los planes de atentado.

Un ex-agente hizo públicas declaraciones sobre la participación de dicha agencia en el criminal atentado perpetrado contra el vapor francés "La Coubre", donde más de un centenar de cubanos resultaron muertos y alrededor de 200, heridos graves.

Brinda detalles pormenorizados sobre su realización, tratando de "justificar" esta matanza por un desperfecto en el mecanismo del equipo explosivo utilizado.

During the last month, the American press has published an increasing and extensive information about the accomplishment of these activities, offering details about the participation of the Central Intelligence Agency in the elaboration and execution of the criminal plans.

In the reports of the so-called Rockefeller Commission, as well as the one headed by Senator Frank Church, for the researches on the illegal activities of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), all that we have stated above, has been undoubtedly demonstrated.

A former agent made public statements about the participation of this Agency in the criminal act carried out against the French steamship "La Coubre", where more than one hundred Cubans were killed and about 200, were seriously injured. He offers details about his accomplishments trying to "justify" this killing by blaming a slight damage in the mechanism of the blowing equipment which was used.

Very significant is the information given by-the journalist Jack Anderson from "The Washington Post" about the gangster John Rosselli'sparticipation in various plots against Prime-Minister Fidel Castro, some of them by means-of poisoning, with pills handed to him by the CIA. Afterwards, according to the American -- press itself, Rosselli, before the Senate --- Intelligence Commission, conceded having participated with this Agency in various plots for assassinating the Cuban Prime Minister.

Gradually, officials, Senators, chiefs, officers and former CIA agents, as well as well - known American press press journalists, have-made categorical statements, which coincide-- with the denounces expressed, apropos, by the-Cuban Government.

Without pretending to mention all the plots-- attempted, we expose some of them the majority of which have not been publicly known.
They prove the diversity and recurrence of -- the CIA as well as other subversive agencies participation in these actions:

Tauler Sagué, elemento gansteril, junto a Cubría Ramos traían la misión de realizar un atentado a nuestro Primer Ministro, así como perpetrar distintas acciones de sabotaje y terrorismo. Para cumplirla fueron pertrechados por la CIA de gran cantidad de material bélico y equipos, los que fueron ocupados al ser detenidos.

Entre los principales encartados figuraban: Rogelio González Corcho, Manuel Lorenzo Puig Millán, Nemesio Rodríguez Navarrete, Gaspar Domínguez Trueba Varona, Eufemio J. En junio de 1961, se celebra una reunión con la asistencia de un elemento infiltrado en Cuba por la organización contra revolucionaria "Frente Revolucionario Democrático"(FRD), quien traía la orden de realizar un atentado al Comandante en Jefe Fidel Castro Ruz.

El plan consistía en situar dos jeeps -- con bazookas en el garage, sito en las Avenidas de Rancho Boyeros y Santa Catalina, y un panel por la Ciudad Deportiva, con hombres portando granadas. Al pasar nuestro dirigente obstaculizarían el -- tránsito, abriendo fuego.

Después del descalabro de Playa Girón, la Agencia Central de Inteligencia continuó sus actividades subversivas contra nuestro país, iniciando el reagrupamiento de las dispersas organizaciones contrarrevolucionarias bajo la organización "Unidad Resistencia".

Esa labor fue llevada a cabo por los agentes de la CIA infiltrados: Emilio Adolfo Rivero Caro (Brand), Adolfo Mendoza (Raúl) y Jorge García Rubio (Tony) entre otros. Se guidamente se dieron a la tarea de desarrollar todo tipo de actividades subversivas, incluyendo un atentado contra el Comandante de División Raúl Castro Ruz durante el desarrollo del acto provincial del 26 de julio de 1961 en Oriente; la autoagresión a la Base Naval de Guantánamo, con el fin de justificar la agresión por parte de las Fuerzas Armadas norteamericanas; así como ataques a las repúblicas cercanas para provocar un conflicto internacional.

This task was carried out by the infiltrated CIA agents Emilio Adolfo Rivero Caro (Brand), Adolfo Mendoza (Raúl) and Jorge García Rubio (Tony) among others. Afterwards, they tried to develop all types of subversive activities, including a plot against Division Commander (Lieutenant Colonel) Raúl Castro Ruz, during the provincial celebration of the 26 de July at Oriente Province in 1961; the selfaggression to Guantánamo Naval Base, with the purpose of justifying the aggression by the American Armed Forces, as well as attacks to neighbor republics, in order to provoke an international conflict.

Los planes contemplan también un atentado contra el Comandante en Jefe en el acto central de la misma fecha en la Plaza

de la Revolución, para lo cual fue a coordinar en territorio de Estados Unidos el contrarrevolucionario José Pujals Mederos, quien salió clandestinamente hacia ese país. Allí se entrevistó con los oficiales de la CIA, Jim Bender, conocido por Jim Boulding, Harold Bishop y Carl Hitch. En esta entrevista Mederos fue nombrado jefe de los oficiales de la CIA que operaban en Cuba, en sustitución de Alfredo Izaguirre conocido por Tito, que estaba detenido.

En la Base Naval de Guantánamo se llevaron a cabo las reuniones conspirativas, y sus autoridades (Capitán Schenweias) proporcionaron gran cantidad de material bélico y equipos para la realización de estos planes.

El mencionado Capitán Carl E. Schenweias, ex jefe de la Base Naval, fue uno de los más activos organizadores de las agresiones.

Detenidos todos los encartados, se les ocupó gran cantidad de material y equipos bélicos.

Es de significar, que todos estos planes subversivos fueron denunciados oportunamente por el Comandante Ernesto Guevara en Punta del Este.

For this purpose, the counterrevolutionary José Pujals Mederos made an under cover visit to the United States, in order to coordinate this action. There, he met CIA officers Jim Bender, known as Jim Boulding, Harold Bishop and Carl Hitch. During this meeting, Mederos was appointed chief of the CIA officers, who operated in Cuba, substituting Alfredo Izaguirre, known as Tito, who was arrested.

The conspiratory meeting were carried out at the Guantánamo Naval Base, and its authorities (Captain Schenweias) supplied a lot of warlike material and equipment for the accomplishment of these plans.

The mentioned Captain Carl E. Schenweias, former chief of the Naval Base, was one of the most active organizers of the aggressions.

When all the indicated were arrested, a great number of warlike material and equipment was taken from them.

En la segunda quincena de julio de 1961, un grupo de elementos contrarrevolucionarios de las organizaciones "30 de Noviembre", "Movimiento Revolucionario del Pueblo" y "Frente Revolucionario Democrático", planeaban atacar contra nuestro Comandante en Jefe y otros dirigentes.

Recibían orientaciones de la CIA a través de contactos con Tony Varona, Manuel Ray y Aureliano Sánchez Arango en el exterior -- del país, y con el Almirante Burke y agentes de la CIA en la Base Naval de Guantánamo. El atentado se efectuaría en las cercanías del domicilio de la compañera Celia Sánchez Manduley, en el Vedado. Resultaron detenidos Mario Chanez de Armas, Francisco Chanez de Armas, Roberto Coscuyuela Valcárcel, Orlando Ulacia Valdés, Francisco Gil Cruz, Segundo González González y otros, a quienes se les ocuparon armas y explosivos.

Entre sus planes figuraba también el fracasado atentado al Dr. Carlos Rafael Rodríguez llevado a efecto el 13 de setiembre de 1961 cuando dicho dirigente regresaba de Matanzas hacia La Habana. Con ese fin, un grupo de contrarrevolucionarios pertenecientes a las organizaciones antes mencionadas, establecieron contactos con representantes del "Movimiento de Recuperación Revolucionaria" (MRR). Al frente de los mismo se hallaba -- Juan José Martore Silva.

Among their plans was also the failed plot against Dr. Carlos Rafael Rodríguez, which was attempted on September 13th, 1961, when he was coming back from Matanzas to Havana. With that purpose, a group of counterrevolutionary individuals, belonging to the --- organizations mentioned above, contacted -- representatives of the "Movimiento de Recuperación Revolucionaria" (MRR). En octubre de 1961, las organizaciones contrarrevolucionarias "II Frente del Escambray" y "Movimiento de Recuperación Revolucionaria" (MRR) dirigidas por la Agencia Central de Inteligencia (CIA), aprobaron un plan conjunto de sabotajes en la capital, a fin de provocar la indignación popular e influir sobre la concurrencia masiva al acto de recibimiento al Presidente de la República, Dr. Osvaldo Dorticós Torrado, a su llegada de Punta del Este.

Esta táctica estaba encaminada a viabilizar el plan de atentado que ejecutarían el día 4 del propio mes, disparando con una bazooka hacia la tribuna situada en la terraza del antiguo Palacio Presidencial desde un apartamento situado en un edificio contiguo. La retirada sería cubierta con el criminal lanzamiento de granadas contra el público, para crear la confusión y el pánico.

On October 1961, "II Frente del Escambray" and "Movimiento de Recuperación Revolucionaria" (MRR) counterrevolutionary organizations, directed by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), approved a joint plan for a sabotage in the capital, in order to cause people's indignation and to influence on the mass gathering to welcome the President of the Republic Osvaldo Dorticós Torrado, on his arrival from Punta del Este.

This tactic was aimed to facilitate the plot, which would be carried out on the 4th of the same month, shooting with a bazooka in direction to the tribune located on the terrace of the former Presidential Palace, from an apartment located in a nearby building. The withdrawal would be covered by the criminal launching of grenades against the public, in order to cause confusion and panic.

Their purposes were frustrated when all of the indicted were arrested and a great number of warlike material was taken from them.

A principios de 1962, siguiendo orientaciones de la CIA y la Base Naval de Guantánamo, el contrarrevolucionario Jorge Luis Cuervo Calvo se da a la tarea de reestructurar algunos grupos y organizaciones contra revolucionarias, creando la denominada "Unión de Unidades Revolucionarias"(UDUR).

Cuervo Calvo, Humberto Gómez Peña, Raúl Cay Hernández, Raúl Cay Gispert y otros se reunieron para elaborar planes de alzamiento e informar sobre los contactos establecidos en la Base Naval norteamericana de Guantánamo para recibir material bélico y equipos.

La CIA persiste en sus planes de atentar contra la vida del Primer Ministro y de producir una autoagresión a la Base Naval. Cumpliendo estas órdenes, el contrarrevolucionario Cuervo Calvo hace contacto con la organización DRE, procediendo a elaborar lo que denominaron "Plan Z", que consistía en: atentar contra la vida del Dr. Raúl Roa, Ministro de Relaciones Exteriores, lo que les permitiría llevar a vías de hecho otro atentado de mayor proporciones contra el Primer Ministro y demás dirigentes de la Revolución que concurrieran al sepelio.

In early 1962, following instructions from the CIA and the Guantánamo Naval Base, the counterrevolutionary Jorge Luis Cuervo Calvo reorganized several group and counterrevolutionary organizations, and created the "Unión de Unidades Revolucionarias" (UDUR).

Cuervo Calvo, Humberto Gómez Peña, Raúl Cay Hernández, Raúl Cay Gispert and others met in order to prepare plans for uprising and inform about the contacts established with the Guantánamo Naval Base for receiving warlike material and equipment.

The Central Intelligence Agency insisted on its plots against the Prime Minister's life, and to carry out a self-aggression to the Naval Base. Following these instructions, the counterrevolutionary Cuervo Calvo made contacts with the DRE organization, and elaborated what would be known as "Plan Z", which consisted on attempting against the life of the Minister of Foreign Relations Raúl Roa, what would enable them to carry out another plot of bigger proportions against the Prime Minister and other revolutionary leaders who would attend the burial.

La organización "Resistencia Cívica Anticomunista"(RCA) en cuyo seno se agruparon el "Ejército de Liberación Nacional"(ELN) "Movimiento de Recuperación Revolucionaria"(MRR), "Agrupación Montecristi", y -- otros, era dirigida desde el exterior por la CIA, a través de su agente Nino Díaz.

En 1963, la CIA orientó al bloque RCA organizar y ejecutar acciones internas que aparentaran la existencia de una resistencia popular activa, con vista a solicitar la intervención armada a Cuba, en la reunión de Presidentes de países miembros de la OEA.

Las instrucciones eran suministradas por la CIA a través de la Base Naval de Guantánamo. A partir de entonces la RCA elabora nuevos planes de acción y atentados, en apoyo a la invasión armada que esperaban en el mes de julio.

Con motivo de los actos conmemorativos -- del 13 de Marzo, planearon asesinar al -- Comandante en Jefe, desde una casa cercana a la Universidad de la Habana, disparando hacia la tribuna, con un mortero. Los principales encartados fueron Samuel Car-

Elaboraron otro plan, esta vez contra la vida del Ministro de las Fuerzas Armadas Comandante de División Raúl Castro Ruz, en la Plaza de la Revolución, con motivo de la celebración del 26 de Julio. En el mismo tomarían parte cuatro grupos dirigidos por René Sigler Sánchez Evias, Jesús Montes de Oca Cruz, Oscar Sibila Soria y Eliecer Rodríguez Suárez. Todas estas acciones, organizadas y fomentadas por la CIA a través del bloque RCA, fueron frustradas, detenidos sus encartados y ocupadas gran cantidad de armas y equipos.

Para el 26 de setiembre de 1963, aniversario de los Comités de Defensa de la Revolución, los contrarrevolucionarios Orlando Martiniano de la Cruz Sánchez, Juan Israel Cazañas León, Jesús Plácido Rodríguez Mosquera, Luis Beltrán Arencibia Pérez, Francisco Vlanco de los Cuetos, Federico Hernández González y otros, vinculados al agente de la CIA Pierre Owen Diez de Ure, prepararon un plan de atentado contra nuestro Primer Ministro.

Estos elementos, agrupados en las organizaciones contrarrevolucionarias "Frente Interno de Unidad Revolucionaria" (FIUR), "Triple A", "Movimiento Democrático Revolucionario" (MDR), "Ejército de Liberación Nacional" (ELN), contaron con el asesamiento y aseguramiento de la CIA.

El plan consistía en dinamitar las conductoras del alcantarillado que pasa por debajo de la tribuna presidencial. Liquidado el plan y detenidos los autores, el agente Pierre Owen Diez de Ure, ciudadano francés residente en nuestro país, confesó que trabajaba para la CIA desde hacía dos años -- aproximadamente, facilitándole informaciones de diversa índole.

En el mes de marzo de 1964, se gestó otro plan de atentado contra el Comandante en Jefe. El principal encartado, Mario Salabarría Aguiar, elemento gansteril, mantenía contactos con la CIA a través del agente Dr. Bernardo Milanés López, Jefe de una red, quien pasó la información del plan al Centro CIA y gestionó desde España la ayuda de los apátridas Tony Varona y Juan Bosch, amigos de Salabarría.

El plan consistía en instalar una ametralladora calibre 30 ó 50 en un vehículo y aguardar la posibilidad del paso del Comandante en Jefe, para atentar contra su vida. La CIA entregó a Salabarría las armas y medios necesarios, incluyendo grandes sumas de dinero.

In March 1964, another plot against Commander in Chief was elaborated. The principal indicted Mario Salabarría Aguiar, a gangster, had contacts with the CIA through the agent Dr. Bernardo Milanés López head of a net, who informed the CIA center of the plan and sought, from Spain, the support of Salabarría's friends, Tony Varona and Juan Bosch.

The plan consisted in installing a machine gun caliber 30 or 50 in a vehicle and waiting for the occasion when the Commander in Chief would pass by, in order to attempt against his life. The CIA gave Salabarría the necessary weapons and means, including great sums of money.

En este lugar, Abreu Vilahu abriría fuego con una subametralladora Thompson contra el Primer Ministro y postas del Ministerio del Interior ubicadas frente al restaurant, a fin de crear confusión y evadirse.
