Mr. Hedgman. It is my full intention to give the truth. Mr. Baron. Thank you.

Mr. Wides. Mr. Hedgman, would you please briefly give us a description of your career with the Agency, and that can be by basically divisions or type of job in a very brief summary.

Mr. Hedgman. I began, was recruited to serve, as what is referred to as a non-official cover agent, and I was a contract as opposed to a staff officar. That was changed shortly afterwards. I think a few months later I was made a staff officer but remained on official cover for the first several

TOP SECRET years of my time, working abroad. I returned to Washington 1 where I then became overt in the sense of I worked in the 2 offices and was no longer 3 I served as what is known as a case officer in the European 4 area. 5 Mr. Baron. About what time period would you say? 6 Mr. Hedgman. It was '53 to early '57. Early '67 until 7 the mid-60's I served in Europe working primarily on Soviet 8 operations. 9 Mr. Dawson. I think you might have misspoken. You said 10 mid-60's, early '57 to mid-60's. Did you mean 1960? 11 Mr. Hedgman. Mid-1960, yes, I would correct that. From 12 July 6 on until -- I can't remember whether it was June or 13 July of 1963 I served as Chief of Station in then Leopoidville. 14 now Kiershasa, Zaire. I was Chief of Station. I then returned 15 < to Washington in the early fall, the exact dates I don't recall, 5 16 of 1963, and I was what is known as a Branch Chief. I was 17 responsible for the aastern half of Africa from -1963 to June 18 of 1965. June of '65 till June of '67, I was formun GAUGE as Seathor 19 20 Congo 21 I returned to Washington where I became Branch Chief 22 again for the Southeast Asian area for a very brief time. In 23 essence it was to prepare me for my next assignment which was 24 the Chief of Station, Vientiane, Laos. 25

TOP SECRET 1 Upon completion of that assignment --2023 544-40 2 Mr. Baron. You began that assignment in '67? 3 Mr. Hedgman. No. I began the Southeast Branch Chief job 4 in '67. I began the COS job in the summer of '68, and I left 5 there in the summer of '70. 6 As you know from earlier, ill-health played a role in 7 unfortunately forcing me to leave. 8 I then returned to Washington where I became Deputy Chief 9 of the African Division, January, 1971 until December, 1971, at which time I became Chief of the Division and remained Chief 10 until I retired. 11 12 Mr. Baron. Until December of '72, would that have been? Currente alaur Mr. Hedgman. No, December of '71. 13 14 Mr. Baron. No. 15 Mr. Wides. No. < ~ Mr. Hedgman. Then I retired 28th of June, 1974. 16 Mr. Wides. Actually, they talked to me about it as 22 much as a year --23 Mr. Wides. And you want out --24 Mr. Hadgman. Not a year. Maybe seven or eight or nine 25 TOP SECRET

Mr. Wides. And then you had been there a short while, I take it, and in about the last week of July, when Patrice Lumumba and others from the Congo came to the United States, I believe around the 26th of July, am I correct, that both you and the Ambassador returned to America?

Mr. Hedgman. That's correct.

Mr. Wides. And during your return here, in any discussions you had with officials at CIA or other government officials. 10 did you have any discussions or learn of any discussions regarding the possible assassination of Patrice Lumumba? 11 Mr. Hedgman. No, sir, I did not. 12

Mr Wides. And then you returned to the Congo? Mr. Hedgman. Yes. I believe we returned on the 6th of August, if memory serves me.

Mr. Wides. Now, as a very brief background for the next series of questions, is it correct that by early September, that is by the 5th of 6th, Patrice Lumumba had been dismissed as Premier and the U.S. had already become seriously concerned about the beginning of Soviet assistance or involvement in the Congo and the possibility of Soviet influence in the Congo?

Mr. Hedgman. I believe those dates are correct of the 5th or 6th. It could conceivably be the 7th. Certainly long before that time, those of us interested in the political situation there; that is, the Ambassador, members of the Political

ì	4	guess, is the appropriate word because of conflict, or
	5	potential conflict, among the central government under
	6	President Kasavubu and others as one faction, Patrice Lumumba
	?	and his followers as a second faction, and Mr. Tshombe and
•••	8	his follwers as a third

	10	Mr. Wides. Gizenga, I take it he was somewhat within

4. ~	14	Mr Wides. In any event, there was the potential of
~	15	imminent fratricidal war?
	16	Mr. Hedgman. Tshombe had already declared the Katanga
	17	to be an independent state of Katanga on the 11th of July, if
	16	memory sarves me.
	19	Mr. Wides. Is it also correct that Mr. Lumumba was the v	20	person of those three leaders, of those three factions, whose
7	2)	potential activities concerned the United States the most at

Mr. Hedgman. I would say, but there was another -- there was also -- there was also great concern about the Tshombe succession, which we did not recognize.

Mr Wides. Right. Right.

In early September, did you receive a message from Headquarters indicating that you would, on a special restricted channel indicating it was for your eyes only at the Station, and telling you that a messenger whom you would recognize would be arriving with a mission for you?

Mr. Hedgman. I believe, yes, I received such a message. Mr. Wides. When, would you please state ---

13 Mr. Hedgman. And I believe that was the general thrust
14 of the wording. I cannot, at this time, affirm with absolute 15 certainty that that was exactly it, but that is my recollection.
16 Mr. Wides. When would be the best date that you would 17 best be placing that time that you could give us?

18 Mr. Hedgman. I believe it would have been around the 19 beginning of September, but I cannot pin it down more than 20 within a week or ten days.

Mr. Wides. About how long before the messenger arrived would you say the cable came, if you can recall?

Mr. Hadgman. I cannot recall definitively. I would guess, and I would just guess, a few days.

Mr. Wides. And is it accurate that the thrust of the 12

Mr. Hedgman. As I understood it, he was coming with instructions. I did not know what type, sort of instructions. Mr. Wides. Yes.

7 Mr. Baron. Can you state in your own words just exactly 8 what the gist of that cable was?

Mr. Hedgman. I am not sure that it will be exact or 9 even close, but it is my -- I am going again, and I stress this 10 time now on recollection, and it is not a sure thing, but my 11 recollection was that the cable advised me that a person whom 12 I would know to be or recognize as an officer of the Agency, 13 and I am not sure that it said as an officer of the Agency, 14 someone who I would have recognized would arrive with instruc-15 tions for me. 16

Mr. Wides. Did the cable refer in any way to Lumumba that you can recall, that would involve the Lumumba problem or Mr. Hedgman. I think, it is my recollection that it did not refer to Lumumba in any way.
Mr. Wides. And with regard -Mr. Hedgman. Either directly or hint by indirection.

Mr. Wides. With regard to the cables for general procedural aspects, is it correct that it hore a special reference or slug, I believe is the term?

Mr. Hedgman. I think, I am guessing about that. I think it probably did, because that would have been a normal way to indicate the special handling. I believe the message also was marked for my eyes only --

13

Mr. Wides. It would not have been marked --

6 Mr. Hedgman. -- and contained instructions that I was not 7 to discuss the message with anyone.

> Mr. Baron. And that you ware to destroy the message? Mr. Hedgman. Not at that time.

Hr. Wides. Did it indicate that any communications that you sent thereafter to the Headquarters in connection with the impending visit were to be given the same slug or --

Mr. Hedgman. I am assuming that it probably did, but I cannot be 100 percent certain. I dont recall sending a message until after I met the gentleman concerned.

Mr. Dawson. Maybe we could approach that a different way. You do recall whatever message you received was not in the normal Course of communications with the Agency?

Mr. Hedgman. Well, it came through Agency communications channels, but it -- it was marked Eyes Only, for `me. Mr. Dawson. That's not unusual, necessarily? Mr. Hedgman. At that time it was more unusual than it is today, I would say.

Mr. Hedgman. I balieve that is so. Mr. Wides. That is your best recollection?

Mr. Hedgman. That is my best recollection.

Mr. Wides. With regard to what you understood your instructions to be, is it a fair summary to say that your instructions were to determine in what way you could use these agents, with the possibility that you might think of a better way in your mind, but that if you could use these agents to assassinate Lumumba in a way which would not implicate the United States, that you were under instructions to do so?

Mr. Hedgman. I would qualify that slightly. I would qualify it in that in operations normally you never use greater force or greater effort than is necessary to accomplish the 16 purpose. I would think, and I think I thought at the time, that if there were some way that he could be removed from a position 18 of power and threat which we, most of us thought was a threat 19 to the United States by him, that that would have been satis-20 factory. 21

However, it was clear that people were thinking in terms of his physical removal by the equipment I was given, the agents, the lethal agents which were given to me.

Mr. Wides. Well, were you not impressed with the fact which, you know, you have several copies for your various files. And it was my recollection that I personally carried the message to the communicator to encrypt, and that was worded in a double-talk way that even the communicator would not necessarily know what it was about.

Mr. Wides. If your communication to the Headquarters and their communication back were in somewhat ambiguous terms, particularly your question, such as is the person, is this person the messenger, and are his instructions accurate, and If the reply was essentially yes to both questions, how would that have assured you that his invocation of Presidential authority was accurate, or even his invocation of the authority of the Director was accurate without your indicating in your cable in some way what the instructions were?

Mr. Hedgman. I suppose that -- I doubt that I would have indicated in the cable the authority cited because of the nature of the instructions. Perhaps I was much more naive then 17 than many of us are now, but I assumed when I received instructions that they came, they were duly authorized instructions. 1 given you. You have raised the possibility, although you have 2 no recollection, that there might have been a hold and a need 5 for further approval.

4 Is it fair to say that you understood that this was well beyond the exploratory stage as a conceivable option that the U.S. 5 might take, and that you understood that from the highest 6 authority, that is the President, there were instructions 7 to carry out the assassination of Lumumba if it could be done 8 without attribution, but that Headquarters might have expected 9 some indication from you of how you ware going to do it prior 10 to the actual implementation? Is that a fair summary of what 11 you are telling us? 12

Mr. Hadgman. Will you repeat that? Could she --13 Mr. Wides. That you had received instructions from the 14 highest authority, that is the President, down through the Agency. 15 if that is possible, because of their concern about Mr. Lumumba 16 to use lethal agents to assassinate him, but that you might have 17 you had recaived the authority to do that, and there was a 18 direction to do it if possible, but that you might have sent back 19 to Headquarters, in guarded language, an indication of how you 20 were going to go about it, or that you had decided that it could 21 be done in a feasible way before going ahead with it. 22

Is that a fair summary?

Mr. Hedgman. I think probably that I would have gone back and advised that I intended to carry out and sought final of other requirements which were levied on me which we are not discussing and is not in the purview of this discussion today. I think there was one major thing probably which took some of the heat off, that is, that Lumumba had been essentially neutralized within his office complex, home and office complex where he was under guard by the United Nations.

lis was able to send messages out, but the -- there had been a coup d'etat, at least there was a coup d'eta on the night of the 14th of September, 1960. A government which was, although nationalistically oriented seemed relatively friendly 10 toward the United States, was in power. There was a great deal 11 of discussion as to its legality at the time, but that was 12 resolved by the United States and most of the Western powers 13 who decided that it was legal since the government, since once 14 President Kasavubu appointed the members of that government, 15 his government, he was the legal Chief of State. 16 regard to eliminating, he being O'Donnell, in regard to eliminating Lumumba?

Mr. Hedgman. It is hard to recall now. I know we met. He probably reported verbally to me what steps he was taking, and that may have been those, his reports may have been those messages also which I sent. I said I thought I sent several messages via that special channel, and in retrospect, I may have been reporting one of those messages, they may have been reports which he gave me to send back to Washington.

Mr. Wides. Well, let me 'ask you this: I have reviewed, and I can represent to you that I have reviewed several files regarding his activities in the Congo, and they include in the normal message traffic, between Leopoldville and the Congolese desk at the Agency, references to him in his crypt, and his activities there. Did that suggest that --

Mr. Hedgman. He's --

Mr. Wides. There might be other, there might be, are you saying there might also be messages regarding his activities in the special channel, or would that suggest to you that his activities were not communicated in the special channely

Mr. Hedgman. It doesn't suggest either one, really. I am again not trying to fence with you or anything. I don't know. I would guess that I would have sent in a special channel anything dealing with Lumumba, at least that would touch upon his removal in one way or another.

Mr. Hedgman. No, I did not recall that. He did not -it did not seem likely, since the entire area was surrounded by Congolese troops.

Mr. Wides. Do you know of any assistance or involvement of Mr. O'Donnell or his agent or anyone else connected with the Station in Mr. Lumumba's escape from the detention?

Mr. Hedgman. I am quite certain that there was no Agency involvement in any way, because I think I would -- I am convinced
 I would have known it as Chief of Station.

10O'Donnell could not have taken such action under normal11Agency procedures without consulting me.

Mr. Wides. Now, is it correct that when he escaped, Mr. Lumumba tried to journey to the Stanleyville region where his following was the strongest, and that along the way, en route, he was apprehended by the Central Congolese government authorities and brought back under arrest, first to Leopoldville, 17 is that correct?

I believe as we said yesterday, you asked me if I had a plane and did spotting or anything of that sort. No, we did not. Mr. Wides. Or providing any other resources or intelligence information or guidance of any sort?

START START OF ALL SUBSCRIPTIONS

Mr. Hedgman. We had no intelligence information. Guidance, as I said, I recall being with, I believe, Congolese officers to the effect that they were trying to figure out how to head him off, a discussion about there were only a certain number of ferries and river crossings where the roads -- you 10 know, there were a limited number of roads, and he had to go 11 through deep rain forests and major rivers were crossed. 12

I may have commented. I don't know for sure.

Mr. Wides. But you would not characterize your activities as providing any assistance to the Congolese to locate him, or would you?

Mr. Hudgman. I honestly, I don't think it -- if it was 17 any assistance, certainly not a major assistance. 18

Mr. Wides. Do you recall any communication with the Agency while Mr. Lumumba was at large prior to your trip to Rome, which I will get to in a moment, about his escape or, I'm sorry, about your provision of any assistance or cooperating with --

Mr. Hadgman. I don't recall. Mr. Wides. -- the Congolese government?

Mr. Hedgman. Prohably later on, but I don't know. That's a guess.

I had no, no information because it was not 2 the sort of thing I suppose that the Congolese officials really 3 anted to discuss with a representative of a foreign government. ÷ Mr. Wides. Was there any contact between our acting 5 Base Chief in the Katanga Province and the officials in Katanga? 6 Was there any discussion between them or communication that you 7 know of regarding what would be done with Patrica Lumumba? н Mr. Hedgman. No. The only thing that I would imagine Q would have happened is they would have trind to advise both 10 Washington and Leopoldville of any information they had on what 11 happened to him. 1.2

Mr. Wides. Excuse me. Off the record. (Discussion off the record.)

Mr. Baron. I would like to move very quickly through a few loose ends that pop up as we went along relating to your conversation with and than O'Donnell and then Schlesinger, and it is really just about one-question on every loose end, and I want to then turn to WIROGUE, and I don't think that will take very long, and then the possibility of conversations with the Embassy. And I would like your help on that part since I was not there yesterday. But I will leave that for the last, and you can pick up with any loose ends.

Is that all right with you?

Mr. Baron. Mr. Hadgman, I would like to pick up here for a moment with a series of short, loose ends from the examination that we have done so far.

Mr. Hedgman. I will try to do my best.

Mr. Baron. That is, first of all, when you discussed your conversation with the then-DCI, Schlasinger, you said that you indicated to him verbally that you had been asked to participate in an assassination of Patrice Lumumba. Did he respond when you made that indication to him? 10

Mr. Hedgman. May I go back? I think I made it to him. It is conceivable that. I could have made it to Bill Colby as his Executive Director, or that the two could have been present together. It is ridiculous, but I cant pin this one down in dotail.

Mr. Baron. Did you receive a response from Schlesinger? You mentioned yesterday that he was able to be quite Sphinxlike when he wanted to, and you thought that this might have been 12 one of those situations. 19

Mr. Hedgman. I had the impression he took it all on board and did not necessarily wish to advise me of what action he planned to take.

Mr. Baron. Was there any follow-up? Mr. Hedgman. Either he or Colby, which ever it was. Mr. Baron. Was there any follow-up from either Schlesinger or Colby after you had given them this information? Mr. Hedgman. I do not recall.

Mr. Baron. Did you ever discuss the assassination mission with anyone in the Inspector General's Office at the CIA? Mr. Hedgman. Not to my recollection. But it is conceivable they could have sent -- during that period, there were a number of discussions with Inspector Generals on various aspects of work and so on. Whether there was a discussion of this subject, I don't recall it. So I doubt it, but I don't know. Mr. Baron. On a number of discussions that you had with the Inspector General's Office?

Mr. Hedgman. On many other subjects, totally unrelated 12 to this, personnel matters. 13

As you recall, Dr. Schlesinger committed a very sharp reduction in force, which resulted in personnel problems and 15 Inspector Generals' investigations, and so forth. 16

Mr. Baron. Were you interviewed by anyone from the Inspector General's office in the preparation of their Report in 1967 on assassination efforts within the CTA?

Let me represent to you that at the request of the DCI, the Inspector General's Office prepared a Report in 1967 on any involvement that CIA had or could be conceived to have had with assassination efforts. Were you interviewed in connection

Mr. Baron. Is that --Mr. Hedgman. And I have speculated on that earlier. Mr. Baron. Is that a strong possibility to you? Mr. Hedgman. I just couldn't put it, because I don't know what the policy makers, the political leaders, the President, the Director, what the Director's policy, the senior executive, anyway, were thinking at that time.

Mr. Baron. And you mentioned that Justin O'Donnell was not particularly active during his period of service in the Congo? 10

Mr. Hedgman. He did not seem as active as many of the other people that I had working for me at that time.

Mr. Baron. You didn't rely upon him for major operations 1.5 or activities at that point, did you? 14

Mr. Hedgman. No. Well, this -- he was sent out more or 1.5 less on a special mission, as I understood it, and I left him 16 free for that. 1 1

Mr. Baron. You indicated yesterday, and I would like to know if this is still your impression, that the fact that/Justin O'Donnall might not have been active on the assassination mission may not have been due to any lack of priority for that 21 mission, but due more to his personal habits of inactivity? 22

Mr. Hedgman. Perhaps I don't want to malign Justin. I don't mean that -- shouldn't have commented on his character or his personal habits, really. I just have the impression he was 6	Mr. Dawson. Did you comment on that to the Agency?

		"	Mr. Hedgman. I doubt it, but I cannot be sure.
		8	Mr. Dawson. Were you writing his efficiency report at
	-	9	the time?
	e -	10	Mr. Hedgman. He didn't stay long enough for me to write
	•	11	an efficiency report. I could have written one if he stayed
	٢.	12	the 90 days or more, and as the COS I could have written one
0		13	if I'd wished.

	ſ	15	Mr. Hadgman. I chose not to, to the hest of my recollec-

	2	17	Mr. Baron. Did much of the cable traffic which you

	c 20003	20	Mr. Hedgman. It is my recollection that before leaving
	o	21	the Station and turning over to my successor that I destroyed
	t	22	that. Perhaps well before. I just can't put a timeframe on
	י ש זי	23	it, but it seemed to me it was not the type of correspondence

I don't know whether I did. 7 8 Mr. Baron. Would you have received those instructions 9 verbally from or as part of one of the cables? Mr. Hedgman. I don't know. 10 Mr. Baron. Would it be standard procedure for a Chief of 11 Station to destroy cable traffic relating to an extremely 12 sensitive operation like that one? 13 ¢, Mr. Hedgman. Well, it is standard procedure to keep your 14 cable files and all other files as small as possible, because 15 copies of those are retained, of all messages are normally 16 ~ retained in Washington. You try and keep as small a number as 17 possible on hand so as to permit you to continue working so that 18 you have ready reference, because you may have to, in an 19 2000 emergency you may have to burn all of your communications. , 20 And balisva me, when you have to go through a burn 21 session, it is very difficult, and it takes time. 22 Mr. Baron. Had you ever in your experience as Chief of 23 Station in the Congo destroyed other cable traffic because of . 4 its extremely sensitive nature? 25 TOP SECRET

• [ * 143	3	Mr. Hedgman. Not to the best of my recollection.
÷.		Mr. Baron. Action Statute is a CIA officer, is that
	5	correct?
	6	Mr. Hedgman. Yeah. I know him.
	7	Mr. Baron. Did you have any official business with The Marine K
	8	while you were in the Congo?
•	9	Mr. Hedgman. Yes. He came through on a counterintelli-
•	10	gence mission, and I don't recall the details at this time.
• •	.11	Mr. Baron. Do you recall whether he had mentioned that
.	1::	his mission related to Project ZRRIFLE or the development of er a ⊂	14	Mr. Hedgman. No, I do not recall that.

ب	15	Mr. Baron. Would his project have related to obtaining
~	16	codes by surraptitious means?
	17	Mr. Hedgman. I think it would have been more nearly that
	18	but I, I cannot affirm this as the case. That was what I think
ξου ο.:	19	was prohably the case.
ę, ,, ,,	20	Mr. Baron. Would his project have involved an asset who
	21	was already in the Congo named QJWIN?
	22	Mr. Hedgman. I gather from what was said yesterday that
Ĩ,	23	this was the case. I do not recall it.
