1 had done by having the liaison officer come back and forth.
2 and my recollection is that I advocated that we just sort
3 of wait it out and see what happened.

4 MR. OLSEN: Did it enter into your thinking in 5 that connection, Ambassador, that little could be done by 6 attempting to compel Mr. Hoover to do anything in any event?

7 THE WITNESS: I didn't think there was a chance of 8 Attorneys General being able to persuade him to reverse
9 himself.

10 MR. ROETHE: Do you want to go into a different
11 area now?

12 MR. OLSEN: Yes.

13 MR. ROETHE: I will sort of rest my thought here
14 for a few minutes.

15 BY MR. OLSEN:

16 Q Are you acquainted with the general subject of the 17 handling of a defector by the name of Nosenko?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Did Nosenko defect to the United States at the 20 time you were the DCI?

21 A I have forgotten exactly what my job was when he 22 defected. Could you give me the date when he defected?

23 MR. ROETHE: I believe it was in 1965. I think it
24 was just before you --

25 THE WITNESS: Became Deputy Director?

1 MR. ROETHE: Yes.

2 THE WITNESS: Because I didn't become Director until 3 1966, I believe.

4 MR. ROETHE: This was in 1965.

5 BY MR. OLSEN:

6 Q When was it that you became Deputy Director?

7 A I think it was in April 1965.

8 Q In any event, you are acquainted with that whole
9 situation --

10 A Yes.

11 Q -- are you not?

12 A Yes, I am.

13 Q Who specifically within the Agency had charge of the 14 initial handling of Nosenko?

15 A Normally, defectors were handled by the Domestic 16 Contact Division of the Office of Operations, but it seems 17 to me that this fellow was given a special treatment all his 18 own and I don't recall who it was that did have him in 19 custody, whether it was the Security Office, the Counter-
20 intelligence Staff. I just honestly don't recall.

21 Q Well, would it be of any help if I suggested
22 to you that the Office of Security was actually in charge of 23 his confinement?

24 A That is what I was wondering.

25 Q But that the Counterintelligence Staff was the

1 Agency that directed what was to be done with him and
2 conducted the interrogations of him and specified the condi-
3 tions under which he was to be kept, and so on?

4 A Right.

5 Q Does that refresh your recollection?

6 A That helps a great deal because he was held down in 7 the installation we have here some miles from Washington for 8 quite some months while an effort was being made to find
9 out whether he was a bona fide defector or not a bona
10 fide defector and one of the complicating factors as I
11 recall it was that he had made some sort of statement to the 12 FBI when he arrived in this country that he was going to 13 become a part of the Warren Commission report and we could 14 not seem to ascertain clearly enough that the fellow was what 15 he claimed to be and, therefore, the statement might have been 16 contaminated and might have affected the conclusions of the 17 Warren Commission. So I think this case went on for a long
18 time in our efforts to get all of this sorted out. But I
19 remember this was important enough that I sought a conversa-
20 tion with the Chief Justice who was Chairman of the Warren
21 Commission and talked to him, you know, one afternoon -- I
22 don't know if it was morning or afternoon but I talked to 23 him in some detail about this matter privately so that the 24 Warren Commission would not necessarily be misled by this 25 man's testimony which we were not able to vouch for.

Q What was it that Nosenko testified about or told the FBI that he had a relationship with the Warren Commission?

A I have forgotten. I am sure it is all in the Warren Commission records and I have forgotten the precise details of it. It had something to do with Oswald's time in the Soviet Union.

MR. ROETHE: Isn't it true that the material was never put into the Warren Commission, that you were successful in convincing them to leave it out?

THE WITNESS: That was my impression.

MR. ROETHE: This is in fact a memorandum you prepared for the records, isn't it, on your talk with the Chief Justice and that is dated June 24, 1964?

THE WITNESS: Well, if it was June 1964, then Nosenko must have defected before that.

MR. ROETHE: I guess you are right. You are right.

BY MR. OLSEN:

Q In June of 1964 your position with the Agency was what?

A I would have been then the Deputy Director for Plans.

Q Did you immediately succeed Richard Bissell?

A Yes. I was his Deputy and then I succeeded him. Yes. That is certainly my signature and it confirms that-ever I can recall about this.

1 Q Can you tell us what your impressions were as to
2 the justification of the Agency in retaining for such an
3 extended period of time the physical custody and person of 4 Mr. Nosenko?

5 A We were simply trying to establish his bona fides
6 one way or the other. We took a very long time and had a
7 very hard time doing it for reasons, detailed reasons which 8 I don't recall, but I certainly remember that this was a
9 very difficult case for us. I even believe we went down to 10 talk to Mr. Katzenbach when he was the Deputy Attorney General
11 in an effort to see if there was any way we could get assist-
12 ance from the Department of Justice about what our responsi-
13 bilities or our authorities or anything else where in the 14 case of a defector who put himself in our hands who might be 15 a spy on the United States and what we could do to somehow
16 get this whole thing sorted out. Needless to say, the 17 Department of Justice wasn't able to help us. Since we had 18 the responsibilities for handling defectors in this country
19 and we also had the responsibilities for establishing their 20 bona fides, this was the reason that he was held for so long.
21 We tried various things. I remember that I asked one of my 22 Deputies who was then Admiral Rufus Taylor who had been
23 Director of Naval Intelligence before, to spend full time
24 attempting to sort out this case, see what we should do next
25 about it, how we could get it regularized, et cetera. It

1 just turned out to be a very difficult thing and I agree that
2 he was kept an inordinate amount of time.

3 Q Was it your feeling that there was just simply no
4 satisfactory provision of American law to handle this kind
5 of case?

6 A There really is not, sir.

7 Q And that was your feeling at that time?

8 A Yes. And I don't know of any even now.

9 Q Did you feel that the Agency had in good faith
10 exhausted all alternatives that appeared to be open to it?

11 A Yes. I really thought so. We spent a lot of time
12 on this case.

13 Q To try to find a legal or proper way to handle it?

14 A That is right. Proper solution to it.

15 Q Was it the conclusion of the Agency that Mr.
16 Nosenko just simply could not be released?

17 A That is right. If he was a Russian spy then we 18 just found ourselves not in a position to be able to certify 19 that he was not.

20 Q Wasn't there some procedure that was available to 21 the Government of the United States with respect to deporting
22 him if his bona fides couldn't be determined in a reasonable
23 period of time?

24 Q I don't know whether this device has ever been

4 A There was always that problem. You know, I don't
5 think we have ever deported any defectors no matter how much
6 of a nuisance and pain in the neck they have been. The only
7 ones that have gone back are the ones that asked to go back.

8 Q Do you recall who was made privy to this particular

12 Q Was the Congress privy to it?

Q What was the purpose of specifying such extremely Spartan conditions for his confinement?

A I believe the feeling was being a Russian intelligence officer that the fact that it was not going to be all that comfortable might lead him over a period of time to be more honest with us than he had apparently been up to that time. This was a very difficult case. I think there were two or three people who had the most intimate knowledge of it on an almost daily basis and I would have no trouble with whatever testimony they gave you. I just don't remember all these details.

Q So that the reason as you understood it and the reason you approved these highly Spartan conditions under which he was held in solitary confinement, with no communications with whatever, no radio, no television, no newspapers, nothing to read, one bare light bulb in a very small cell, with almost no opportunity to see outside, all of these conditions were designed for the purpose of exerting mental pressure on him to come clean?

A That was my understanding of the reasons it was done this way.

Q Have there been, to your knowledge, Ambassador, any other instances in which defectors or others have been

2 A Well, there was one bad case, I don't know when
3 it was, many, many years ago, when some Agency interrogator
4 was interrogating, I think it was some Russian or I think it
5 was -- I don't know whether it was a Russian or a Balt. or 10 Q Was this at a period of time when you were DDP?

11 A It must have been or even before that. Maybe I
12 was Chief of Operations. I can't remember. But it was a long
13 time ago.

14 Q Did this occur inside the United States?

15 A Yes, and it was made abundantly clear at that time
16 to everybody that nobody was going to be manhandled any 17 more forever.

18 Q Is that the only instance --

19 A Only instance.

20 Q -- instance in which you know that happened?

21 A That I recall, yes, and I don't even recall the 22 year it happened.

Q In a fairly recent book called "Without Cloak and Dagger", Mr. Copeland describes a category of situations in which penetrators, defectors, that is, defectors from the United States, people who have furnished sensitive information to foreign governments, disposed of with extreme prejudice, the implication being that they are killed, and that this is a practice that is employed by the Agency from time to time.

A I do not believe Mr. Copeland.

Q Do you know of any such instance occurring within the Government of the United States?

A I do not.

Q What is your impression as to the source of such information and representations by Mr. Copeland?

A Mr. Copeland is a fancifier. What is more, he is a liar. What's more, he is one of the most dishonest son of a bitches I know.

Q Is it your impression, then, that this matter is just a figment of his imagination?

A That is my distinct impression.

Q Was his departure from the Agency anything that you had something to do with?

A No. I think he quit to go to work for some oil oil company in the Middle East. It is only in recent years

17 instance in which the Chief Justice was briefed on a matter

19 the Warren Commission as a whole, is that true?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Was the Nosenko matter also one that was not presented

5 Q What I am asking about was did the staff of the 6 Warren Commission ever have access to CIA personnel or

8 A I don't think so. I don't -- it is not my impression

20 we covered yesterday with -- who was it -- Mr. Belin went 21 into this in great detail about the Mongoose Operation and

6 was big pressure from the Kennedy Administration, from 7 President Kennedy himself and the Attorney General, et cetera,
8 to upset the Castro regime. No question about that. I mean
9 the records are just copious on that. The Government records

15 I don't know what the impression of the Cuban emigres in 16 Miami was in those days, whether they thought --

17 Q Was the State Department also involved?

18 A Yes, sir. I think they helped out with an interro-
19 gation center down there, and so forth.

20 Q So you don't have any impression as to whether the 21 Cuban-Americans were involved in these organizations, were 22 identifying themselves with the United States Government in 23 general or the CIA specifically?

24 A No, I really don't know. I think they were almost 25 all Cuban emigres, weren't they? They hadn't had time to

1 become U.S. citizens. Most of them were pretty fresh out
2 of Cuba.

3 Q Most of them had left Cuba in 1959 or 1960?

4 A Somewhere, or were even coming out at the time this 5 was all going on.

6 Q Were you acquainted at that time -- I am talking
7 from the time you took over as Deputy Director for Plans in 8 1962 -- with the fact that there was among these Cuban emigres
9 a high level of hostility to Fidel Castro and the Castro
10 government?

11 A That was my impression.

12 Q Were you also aware of the fact that there was a
13 high degree of interest in disposing of Castro and his 14 administration among these people?

15 A I think there was a high degree of interest on the 16 part of the U.S. Government for changing the Government of 17 Cuba. No doubt about it.

18 Q Was there also a high degree of interest in that
19 same objective on the part of the Cuban emigres?

20 A Well, I had always thought so because most of the 21 emigres that were in Florida at the time had fled from 22 Cuba because they were anti-Castro. They obviously would like 23 to have gotten back under a more benevolent government and 24 resumed their life in their own country, so I think most of 25 them were rather dedicated to the cause of upsetting the Castro

government.

Q Do you know whether there was during this period of 1962 and thereafter a great deal of talk among the Cuban emigres of plans to assassinate Castro?

A I don't know about plans to assassinate him. An awful lot of suggestions were made all through this Government about how one got rid of Castro, how one got rid of his government. Whether the Cuban exiles in Miami were talking about assassination plots or were trying to work things out. I don't recall specifically. I just recall that during this period there was a major effort made to carry out sabotage in Cuba, to do what we could to agitate the Castro government, and all kinds of plans and theories and options were put down and discarded or tried or whatever the case might be. A lot of theories were enunciated which weren't practical. There was a great deal of effort being put into this. I believe they showed me a memorandum yesterday which I wrote after talking to the Attorney General at one point which indicated very clearly the dissatisfaction of the President and the Attorney General with the success of the efforts up to that point. I mean, that is one of the exhibits in yesterday's testimony when Mr. Belin was here.

Q Now, after President Kennedy was assassinated in November 1963, and after it became known to you that the individual, Lee Harvey Oswald, was believed very broadly to

4 reports that he had attempted to penetrate the anti-Castro

6 get suggested to you -- did you hold any conversations with 7 anybody about the possibility that the assassination of 8 President Kennedy was a retaliation by Oswald against the 9 activity, the talks and plans to assassinate Castro?

10 A No. I don't recall discussing that with anybody.
11 I don't recall the thought ever having occurred to me at the 12 time. The first time I ever heard such theory as that 13 enunciated was in a very peculiar way by President Johnson.
14 I don't even remember what time it was. I heard him say in 15 my presence -- I don't know that the comment was even directed
16 at me -- that because President Kennedy had been responsible 17 for the death of the President Diem of Vietnam that this was 18 why President Kennedy had been shot himself, and I couldn't 19 see how the two things were even remotely connected, plus
20 the fact that I think it would be pretty hard to demonstrate 21 that President Kennedy assassinated Diem or shot him or 22 anything like that. Maybe he put into effect the course of 23 events but that is the only connection with the assassination
24 I ever heard but I never heard of retaliation by attempts
25 on Castro's life.

1 Q I am not asking you about a story, Ambassador. I
2 am asking you whether you ever had thoughts run through your 3 mind as to whether or not there was a relationship between 4 Oswald's contacts with the Cubans and his support for the 5 Castro government, his attempts in September 1963 to get a
6 passport to Cuba, to travel to Cuba, his attempts to penetrate
7 anti-Castro groups. Did the connection ever enter your 8 mind?

9 A I don't recall its having done so.

10 Q Was this matter of the Agency's or the United 11 States Government's plans and efforts and attempts to 12 assassinate Castro ever discussed with anybody from the 13 Warren Commission?

14 A You say attempts to assassinate Castro?

15 Q Yes.

16 A Which attempts were these that you are referring 17 to?

18 Q Well, I assume that the matter was gone into at some 19 length yesterday, that you indicated that you didn't.

20 A There was some indication, et cetera, but it is 21 not clear to me from the question you are asking me -- I am
22 not fencing with you. I am just trying to answer your 23 question. I am just trying to find out what you are saying
24 that these -- there were attempts to assassinate Castro. Castro
25 still seems to be alive and well even today and what I am not

2 that they were ever carried out to the extent or even 3 attempted or did they ever get any place that they would have 4 attracted Castro's attention. I have no evidence of this.
5 At least, it was never brought to my attention. Maybe it
6 was brought to other's attention but not to my attention.

7 Q I take it, then, that you never felt that it was
8 necessary or desirable that anybody from the Warren Commission
9 ever been advised, told, about the fact that there had been 10 any plans developed or efforts undertaken to assassinate
11 Castro.

12 A I didn't discuss it with the Warren Commission.

13 Q Did you ever participate in any conversation with 14 any other official within the Agency concerning the desira-
15 bility or non-desirability of revealing that matter to the 16 Warren Commission?

17 A Nobody ever mentioned it to me. And I wasn't 18 Director of the Agency. I wasn't deciding what was going to 19 the Warren Commission and what wasn't. I was just answering
20 inquiries from the Warren Commission.

21 Q Did you ever hold some conversations with either
22 Mr. Harvey or Mr. Bissell about the desirability of briefing
23 Mr. McCone on what was going on?

24 A We covered that yesterday. I don't recall this

2 Q In any event, to the best of your knowledge,
3 nobody from the Warren Commission was ever advised that
4 there had ever been any plans of the Agency or the U.S.

6 A I didn't talk to the Warren Commission about it.
7 I don't know whether anybody else in the Agency might have.

8 Q The prosecution that was undertaken in New Orleans
9 by District Attorney Jim Garrison of a man by the name of 10 Clay Shaw --

11 A Yes.

12 Q -- was a matter which was of some interest to the 13 Agency, was it not?

14 A Well, my recollection of Garrison is that Garrison
15 was trying to subpoena me to come and testify in some trial
16 in New Orleans. This is what attracted my attention to 17 Garrison, plus his reiterated statements that the CIA was 18 responsible for the assassination of President Kennedy, and 19 that was how I knew about Jim Garrison. I obviously followed 20 in the papers about the Clay Shaw trial, and so forth, which 21 I gather finally ran its course. I forget what happened. Was

Garrison to subpoena you that was of interest to the Agency in connection with that case?

A Well, I don't --

Q And the general statements and allegations?

A I thought the man was sick, Garrison. I always have thought he was sick.

Q He alleged, did he not, that the Agency had connections with a number of different people, including somebody by the name of David Ferrir and Oswald and Shaw?

A I guess so, yes.

Q And others.

A I guess so. Now that you mention them, these names are familiar to me.

Q You undertook in connection with that case, did you not, to have the matter checked out thoroughly within the Agency?

A Yes, sir.

Q To determine whether there were any such connections.

A I believe so. I believe so.

Q Had the Agency ever had any contacts with Clay Shaw of any nature at all?

A My recollection was that at one time or other he was approached by the Domestic Contact Service for some purpose. Was this correct? Somehow -- this will be in the records. Somehow I had the impression that -- you know what 5 connection or other.

11 closure the fact that he had been contacted by the Domestic 12 Contacts Service?

13 A I don't recall, sir. I don't recall whether this 14 ever became an issue one way or the other.

15 Q Did Garrison ever succeed in subpoenaing you?

16 A No.

17 Q Was anybody from the Agency ever called to testify
18 in that case?

19 A Not that I recall.

20 Q Did the matter of the Garrison prosecution of Shaw
21 interest the top officials of the Agency sufficient to have 22 it be the subject matter of morning conferences?

23 A It might have been mentioned. I don't really
24 remember whether it was in a morning conference or where it
25 was but it certainly would have been a topic with the wild

2 on the television with my mother and he was such a convincing
3 son of a gun that I thought by the time it was over I had 4 better straighten my mother out about my life, and I have had 5 conversations with various people from New Orleans about
6 Garrison, through the years, like Eddie Hebert and Moon
7 Landrieu, and so forth, so I have a pretty good fix on what 8 kind of a character Garrison is.

9 Q Did the Agency have any contacts, according to the 10 studies you caused to be made within the Agency on that case,
11 did the Agency have connections of any nature whatever at any 12 time with Lee Harvey Oswald?

13 A Not that I ever heard of. I don't think that 14 any examination that was made ever indicated that anybody
15 from the Agency had been in touch with Oswald. I have never 16 seen one piece of paper to this effect.

17 Q And did Mr. Belin go over with you yesterday the 18 matter of the Agency's role in reporting on aspects of 19 Oswald's trip to Mexico City in September 1963?

20 A I don't recall that he did yesterday.

21 MR. HARDY: No, we didn't go into that.

22 THE WITNESS: But isn't that exhaustively covered
23 in the Warren Commission report?

1 Warren Commission report.

2 A Are there? I didn't realize that.

3 Q As I gather kind of second-hand here within the
4 Commission's staff, the Agency had a bug in the Cuban Consulate
5 in Mexico City.

6 A I don't think that was true.

7 Q Didn't the Agency pick up a telephone conversation

8 A I thought that what happened was -- I mean, look,
9 this is a long time ago, and I am sure that somebody would
10 be delighted to pull out the records on this but my recollec-
11 tion is that the Agency in connection with the Mexicans had 12 a camera which photographed people going in and out of the 13 Cuban Embassy and that they had in connection with our over-
14 all operations in Mexico City a centralized telephone tap which 15 tapped all kinds of lines, and one of them was the Cuban
16 Embassy but there was no bug in the Cuban Embassy that I
17 ever recall.

18 Q I see. Well, then, I appreciate your straighten-
19 ing me out.

20 A That is my best recollection.

21 Q OK. This was a generalized telephone tap?

22 A This is a pretty sensitive item but for years the 23 Mexicans and the Americans have been working on the Soviets,
24 the Chinese, the Cubans, and so forth, through a very large
25 maze of telephone taps [redacted] I mean,

1 these aren't lines put on right there at the Embassy.

2

3 Q And was it this that accounted for the fact that

4 there was some later attempt to pick out a person who

5 appeared to be an American going into the Soviet Embassy?

6 A Yes. There was some photographs of a man who has

7 never been identified. Nobody has ever figured out who it

8 was as far as I know. Time was spent endlessly figuring

9 out who this man might be. The FBI went over it, we went over

10 it, everybody you can think of went over it and as far as I

11 know, he has never been identified.

12 Q How did it happen, as you recall now from the

13 investigations conducted at that time, how did it happen

14 that his picture got picked out of all the pictures that

15 had been taken of people going into the Soviet Embassy and 16 have it accompany this report to the FBI?

17 A I'm sorry. I have really forgotten what -- I think

18 it was an FBI photograph, too, wasn't it? Weren't they the 19 ones that made the photograph or picked it out or something,

20 because they have an operation in Mexico, but I don't remember

21 now just what the division of labor between the two organi-

22 zations was. But in any event, let me get on with this. I

23 don't know why the photograph was picked out. I have no

5 of.

6 Q Was there information that had been obtained
7 relating
8 to any involvement about Lee Harvey Oswald with the KGB
9 or any other instrumentality of the Soviet Union that was 10 not revealed to the Warren Commission?

11 A Not that I am aware.

12 Q Is there anything at all, Ambassador, that you know
13 of today relating to the investigation of the assassination
14 of President Kennedy that was not fully and openly revealed
15 to the Warren Commission except the Nosenko matter which 16 was a matter on which the Chief Justice alone was briefed?

17 A Sir, I would like to answer your question by saying
18 that I was not the Director of the Agency at that time. I
19 was the Deputy Director for Plans and I was, therefore, the 20 recipient of many inquiries from the Commission to check
21 out information overseas and do a variety of things in 22 connection with the Commission's work. I thought we were 23 enormously conscientious in helping the Commission and I
24 thought when it was all over we had done an absolutely first-
25 rate job and I do not recall any of these things that you

1 mention having been held back. I thought we were very forth-
2 coming with the Commission because the President, President
3 Johnson at the time, wanted the Commission helped in every 4 way possible. We did all kinds of things to help them in 5 their work that we probably ordinarily would not have done.

6 Q Then, do I take it that your answer would be that
7 so far as you are now aware, there was nothing that was held
8 back from the Warren Commission except the details of the 9 Nosenko matter as to which the Chief Justice alone was 10 briefed?

11 A That is right. That was my distinct impression.

12 Q Are you aware of any particular, Ambassador,
13 in which the Warren Commission did not fairly present to the 14 American public the results of its investigation that had 15 CIA aspects to it?

16 A Not that I know of, sir. You know, I have been one
17 of the ones that as these various books have come out and 18 allegations made, and so forth, thought to myself, my 19 God, how could the Warren Commission have done much more
20 than it did? It seemed to me they had a very good staff of 21 lawyers and they were very conscientious and hardworking and 22 the FBI helped, CIA helped, and everybody helped as far as
23 I know, and I always thought the Warren Commission report
24 was probably first class. I haven't read it all, it is too

Q Do I take it that your answer would be that you know of no matter that was not fairly revealed to the American public by the Warren Commission insofar as CIA aspects of that investigation are concerned?

A Sir, if there was I am not aware of any.

Q There are, Ambassador, certain matters of this -- on this subject which we feel obliged to have made a matter of record. It isn't that we are cross-examinng you from the standpoint of believing something different than you believe necessarily.

A Oh, I accept that. I want to give you the best answer I can.

Q Did you ever encounter or know of any information being turned up of Oswald having been in contact with an organization in New Orleans or elsewhere that was in effect being sponsored by the CIA?

A I don't know.

Q Such as the Cuban Revolutionary Front?

A I don't recall anything about this matter.

Q And no records of any kinds were ever turned up indicating Oswald had contact with an Agency sponsored Cuban group?

A I don't know, Mr. Olsen. It may have been. It may have been in the records. I just don't recall it.

Q There has been some testimony that has been received

1 by the Commission --

2 A Is this the Rockefeller Commission?

3 Q Yes. The Rockefeller Commission, in which an Agency,
4 past Agency official, has expressed the opinion that Premier
5 Castro had a pretty effective intelligence operation going in 6 this country among the Cuban emigres. Would that accord
7 with your own impression?

8 A I really don't know. I do know that the Russians
9 have done what they can to improve the Cuban Intelligence
10 Service but how effective the Cuban Intelligence Service has 11 been in its work in the United States I have no way of knowing.

12 Q Has this Agency within your knowledge, Ambassador,
13 ever been penetrated by a foreign intelligence agent?

14 A I don't know, sir. I hope not. We recognize that 15 we are target number 1 for the KGB. That has been told us
16 by various defectors. Over the years we have done our level
17 best to fend off efforts. We have identified what we thought
18 were a couple of probes in this direction at various times.
19 But if the Agency has ever been penetrated I am not aware of 20 it, although I have to say that anybody who is Director of 21 the Agency every day when he walks into the building wonders
22 whether if that is the day that somebody will be turned out
23 that might be a penetration of the Agency, but I know of none.

24 Q Have there been any instances that you know of in 25 whatever capacity you have had with the Agency in which a

1 debate has raged within the Agency as to whether a particular
2 employee is an agent of a foreign government?

3 A Well, I think that, you know, as we were saying
4 earlier, just this afternoon, from time to time there has been
5 a feeling that maybe that fellow might have been a recruiter
6 or this individual might have been, investigation is conducted,
7 in an effort to see if this is the case. One hopes that the 8 investigation is good and adequate enough to clear the 9 individual. We have used the polygraph wherein there was 10 some question about these things. We have used all the 11 techniques that were reasonably available to us to try to 12 prevent this happening and I don't know. There we are.

13 MR. ROETHE: Were there occasions when you terminated
14 employees under your authority to terminate without any 15 question because you thought there may be some suspicion that 16 could not be eliminated?

17 THE WITNESS: I can't remember during my time as 18 Director this happening. I believe that before I became 19 Director there were a couple of cases that were of dubious
20 validity about individuals who were thought possibly to 21 have had some unsatisfactory connections and were terminated,
22 but the case was never proved against them as far as I was 23 aware. And I don't know of any cases that as Director I
24 terminated that way. At least I can't think of any. It would 25 be very easy to ascertain this, though, and I wish you would.
