I. Identifying Information:

Name Barbara (Holmes assist) Telephone _____

Address _____

Type of Contact: Telephone _____
 Person

II. Summary of Contact:

Barbara said that she had never heard of a second Soviet photo base. I gave her the crypt and she said she would have Russ institute a search at Warrenton. We asked her if the Cuban transcripts were complete and she said that as far as she knew they were. We pointed out that 5 lines were tapped and we only had transcripts from 3. We wondered if the other two may have been from the Consulate & were filed separately. She said she would check. We then pointed out to her that we had not received any of the [redacted] tap material. Her first response was that we had not requested it. We explained to her that a request for all tap material did not mean all [redacted] material but all material, [redacted] She then said that they had not tried to find it because everyone, including Anne Goodpasture, said that there were no [redacted] taps! We asked her to try to find them because we believed there were [redacted] taps. She asked how she could find something everyone said didn't exist. We told her that was her problem. She said she would call Goodpasture.

We got to work 1 hr. + 45 minutes after arrival.
