MANUEL RAY RIVERO

Manuel Ray Rivero was born in Cuba in 1924. (HSCA#009005
 Memo to G. Robert Blakey, 6/28/78, Interview with Manolo Ray Rivero from Fonzi/Gonzales) ^{He} Ray has been described as softspoken, unassuming, almost humble -- a natural leader of the highest intellect, sincerity and conviction. (CIA/DDO Manuel Ray Rivero Volume II, Cable to Director from MASH, 11/17/60) In 1947, because of his outstanding performance as a civil engineer, he was granted a scholarship by the Cuban Ministry of Public Works to pursue graduate studies in engineering at the University of Utah.
 (HSCA 006468, p. 9, Item 8, FBI Manolo Ray References, Section 2)
 Ray was in the United States for two years but did not complete his work for a masters degree. (Ibid)

During this period, it has been alleged that Ray was friendly with members of the Puerto Rican group which plotted to assassinate President Truman, (CIA/DDO Loose Document, Dispatch to Deputy Chief, WH/SA from COS/JMWAVE, 4/14/64, Mexico D.F.
 Classified Secret. From an undercover source with cryptonym, (AMSHOT/1) Upon receipt of this information in 1964, Ray's Case Officer questioned the reliability of the information. HSCA researcher endeavored to identify source as was told that (AMSHOT/1) was still a current asset in 1978) and a good friend of Puerto Rican Communist (Pedro Albizu Campos) (Ibid) It was further alleged that he was in frequent contact with Puerto Ricans who were working on the rennovation of the White House. (Ibid) The assassination attempt of President Truman occurred at Blair House, across the street from the White House. The Trumans were using this home as an official residence until such time as the White House rennovation was completed. This rather bizarre story surfaced in 1964 and the the FBI (HSCA 006468, Item 5).

in 1949,
When Ray returned to Cuba, he held various positions in the engineering field, one of which was project manager for the construction of the Havana Hilton Hotel. (HSCA 006468, p. 9, Item 8, Manolo Ray References, FBI, Section 2)

In May 1957, he organized the Civic Resistance Movement which supervised sabotage and acts of terrorism against the regime of Cuban President Batista. (HSCA 009005 Memo to G. Robert Blakey, 6/28/78, Interview of Manolo Ray Rivero from Fonzi/Gonzales) Fidel
Castro appointed Ray Minister of Public Works in February 1959. (Ibid)
He confided to two anti-Castro Cubans in April 1959 that he recognized the symptoms of Communism in the Castro regime but was not prepared to conspire against "El Lider Maximo". (Give Us This Day, Popular Library Edition, E. Howard Hunt, p. 91) Ray was relieved of his official position in November 1959. (HSCA 005990, p. 2, FBI Correlation Study, Manolo Ray, File #97-4546, Section 1) but continued to permit his name to be associated with the Castro regime (Give Us This Day, E. Howard Hunt, Popular Library Edition, p.92)
until he formed the Revolutionary Movement of the People (MRP) around May 1960 (HSCA #009005 - Interview)

The MRP was an anti-Castro organization which believed that the ideas and aims of the democratic left best suited the needs and aspirations of the Cuban people. (CIA/DDO, Ray Vol VI, 9 June 1962 study of program for liberation of Cuba submitted by Ray) The MRP did not wish to reinstate the 1940 Cuban Constitution

For whatever reason, Ray

1 continued to permit his name to be associated with the Castro regime

No definite reason for this severance has been documented but, according to one source, Ray did not leave Castro because of ideological or policy discrepancies but rather because of a personality clash with Castro's Minister of Labor, who almost shot Ray after a Cabinet meeting! (CIA/DDO Ray Vol VII, Memo from ^{#8} (Jack Malone, former manager, Kings Ranch, Cuba) dated July 16, 1962) Another theory which came to the attention of the CIA was that Ray resigned because of ^{he opposed Castro's} ~~his~~ ^{plan to} ~~opposition to the~~ plan to shoot Cuban revolutionary hero, Hubert Matos, ^{as a} ~~as~~ ^{traitor} ~~as~~ a traitor. (CIA/DDO, ^{blaming him #9} Ray Vol IV, Information Report, March 16, 1961, Subject: Background, Character and Economic Concepts of Manuel Ray Rivero)

The MRF was considered the foremost underground group in Cuba, organized in each of the six provinces. ¹⁶⁻¹⁷ (NYTimes, April 10, 1961, Castro Foes Map Multiple Forays by Tad Szulc) Working in tightly organized cells, the leadership in one province did not know the identities of members in any of the others. ^{17, 18} (ibid) The Cuban saboteurs were supplied with explosives sent by launches from the Florida Keys and delivered on Cuban beaches. ¹⁸⁻¹⁹ (ibid)

and favored continuation of the laws passed by Castro at the beginning of his regime. ³ They favored the regulation of private ~~investment~~ ¹⁴ utilities and nationalization of all utilities. (CIA/DDO Ray Vol II, Cable to Director from MASH) Associated with Ray in this underground organization were Raul Chibas, Ramon Barquin, Rogelio Cisneros, ^{4, 5} (CIA/DDO Ray Vol II, Organization of MRP) Rufo Lopez Fresquet and Felipe Pazos ¹⁶ (Give Us This Day, E. Howard Hunt, PLEd. p. 92)

Ray was criticized as a tardy adherent to the anti-Castro movement ¹⁶⁻²⁰ (Ibid p. 92) and charges of "Fidelism without Fidel" were made against him and the MRP because of their leftist ideologies. ²¹ (CIA/DDO Ray Vol II, Contact Report from (Wallace Parlett) 10/17/60, Subject: Meeting with (Juan Estevez) and (Jorge Beruff,) 10/13/60) For these reasons, his background was questioned by some in the State Department ¹⁸⁻¹⁹⁻²² (CIA/DDO Ray Vol I, Memo to WH/Chief from Acting Chief, WH 9/27/60, Subject: State Approval to Include Manuel Ray Rivero into the FRD Complex) and the Miami CIA office ¹⁹⁻²⁰⁻²³ (CIA/DDO, Ray Vol I, Cable from MASH to WH/9, 9/29/60) when, in the summer of 1960, he was actively being recruited by the CIA in Cuba to become a member of the FRD, a newly formed anti-Castro organization sponsored by the CIA. ²⁴⁻²⁵ (cite) ²¹ The Agency considered him an important political asset (CIA/DDO Ray Vol I, Summer 1960) and facilitated his clandestine entrance into the United States ²⁰⁻²³⁻²⁶ (CIA/DDO Ray Vol II, Cable to Director from MASH, 11/5/60) on November 10, 1960 ²³⁻²⁴⁻²⁷ (CIA/DDO Ray Vol II, Cable to Director from JMASH, 11/11/60).

Doubts arose within the CIA as to Ray's political ~~allegiance and its~~ compatibility to United States Government policy. In a Memo for Record dated 11/21/60, it was reported that, "... Ray did not politically represent anything to cheer about." ²⁴⁻²⁵⁻²⁶ (CIA/DDO Ray Vol II, Memo for Record, 11/21/60, Subject: Meeting with King and Esterline on Subject of Handling MRP) Another CIA officer who met privately with Ray in November 1960 stated that his political posture was doubtful as far as U.S. Government acceptance is concerned ²⁶⁻²⁹ (CIA/DDO Ray Vol II, Cable to Director from MASH, 11/17/60) and an additional assessment stated that Ray was so far "left" in his thinking that he would be as dangerous to U.S. interests as Castro. ²⁶⁻²⁷⁻³⁰ (CIA/DDO Ray Vol V, Memo for Record, 2 June 1961, Subject: Relations with Manolo Ray and the MRP from)

Prominent exiled Cubans also expressed negative information about Ray, described by one ~~exile~~ ^{as highly} dangerous because of his ambition to play a prominent role in the Cuban government after Castro's overthrow. ³⁰ ~~(CIA/DDO, Ray Vol II, Memo for Record, (John D. Peters), 11/8/60, Subject: Contact Report on Meeting with (Rogelio Gonzalez))~~ Dr. Jose Miro Cardona, President of the FRD, was ³¹⁻³⁸⁻³¹ opposed to Ray, believing his program was too Marxist (CIA/DDO Ray Vol III, Information Report from U.S. Citizen, Free-lance writer and part-time sugar broker, 12/22/60) and also stated that Ray was bitterly anti-American as well as probably totalitarian in his thinking. ³⁹⁻²⁹⁻³² (CIA/DDO, Ray Vol IV, Memo to S - Dr. Berle from ARA - Philip W. Bonsal, March 16, 1961, Subject: Recent Cuban Developments) Manuel Artime, head of the MRR, advised that Ray's

Ray withdrew from the CRC shortly after the Bay of Pigs invasion. In a Miami new conference on May 28, 1961, he said the major reason for the MRP break with the CRC was that the council had failed to live up to the written promises given it in March, outlining conditions Ray had insisted upon before joining the organization. (NYTimes, 5/28/61, One Cuban Group Quits Exile Body by Sam Pope Brewer) The first condition had been that the council was to give first priority to the underground fighters in Cuba during the Bay of Pigs invasion. Secondly, Ray had insisted that anyone too closely associated with the Batista regime would not be used in the invasion and lastly, he was to have been allowed prior approval before any military leader of the invasion was named. (Ibid) Ray told the assembled newsmen that his program to overthrow Castro was based on maximum mobilization of the discontented people inside Cuba and that the leadership of this underground should come from Cubans who could prove they had such a potential force. (ibid)

Ray then sought CIA support independent of the Council, () explaining to Agency personnel that the MRP did have an effective underground organization but needed material and financial support. () Ray felt it necessary for his organization to be allowed to plan its own operations and broaden its base of financial support to include sympathetic Latin American governments. () He was totally opposed to any future invasion attempt. ()

The Miami CIA station recommended Ray be given an initial $50,000 for operational expenses (1) and reaction at headquarters was immediate. Within 24 hours a Memo for the Record was circulated objecting to the Miami Station's recommendation, reflecting the feeling that Ray did not ever produce any substantial military actions against Castro. (2) Ray was asked to submit a "prospectus" of his plans for the MRP and advised that no financial help would be forthcoming until such a plan was reviewed. (3)

Ray went to Puerto Rico ^{area} July 1961, where he could reasonably expect sympathetic support for the MRP from the Governor of that island, Luis Munoz Marin, ^{5046 who was reportedly pro-MRP} CIA/DDO Ray White, Memo for Record (Secret) 19 Dec 1961, Subj: Miscellaneous Items discussed with Dr. Muro on 8 Dec 1961

While in Puerto Rico, a member of the MRP underground in Cuba met with the National Executive of the MRP in Miami and reported to them that he had been in contact with the CIA who made it clear that no material resources would be available from them for the MRP struggle within Cuba until Manuel Ray was dismissed as general coordinator. (NYTimes, July 17, 1961, Cuba Exile Group Criticizes C.I.A. by Peter Kihss) Charging the CIA with repeated interference in their affairs, Ray resigned his post to eliminate any obstacle to the group's cohesion. (Ibid) No documentation is contained in Ray's files at the CIA to indicate whether or not that agency endeavored to investigate JURE's failure to successfully complete their part of the operation. ~~but by January 1964, the organization was making plans to move their operations to Costa Rica (CIA/DDO, Ray Vol XII, Cable to Director from JMWAVE, dated January 14, 1964)~~

In January 1964, Ray's organization was making plans to move their operations to Costa Rica (CIA/DDO Ray Vol XII, ⁶⁸⁷³ Cable to Director from JMWAVE, 1/14/64) and establish a guerrilla training base in Venezuela (CIA/DDO Ray Vol XII, ⁶⁹⁷⁴ Intelligence Information Cable, 2/4/64) Ray also began to formulate plans for his infiltration into Cuba at this time ⁷⁵⁹⁰ (CIA/DDO Ray Vol XIII, Cable to Director from JMWAVE, 3/28/64) and indicated he would turn the operation of JURE over to Rogelio Cisneros during the period of his absence. (CIA/DDO Ray Vol XIII ⁷⁶ Memo for Chief, WH Division, 4/14/64 from Alfonso Rodriguez, Subject: My Meeting with Ray on 13 April 1964) His plan did not reach fruition and Ray and his group were arrested by the British near Cayo Largo and taken to Nassau for a short detention. ⁷⁷⁻⁷⁸ (CIA/DDO Vol XV, Cable to Director from JMWAVE, June 3, 1964) The failure of Ray's infiltration attempt and resultant publicity brought his prestige among the Cuban exile community to a "near-absolute low point." ⁷⁹ (CIA/DDO Ray Vol XV, Cable to Director from JMWAVE, 6/10/64)

Compounding Ray's credibility troubles, the ~~embarrassing~~ revelation by the FBI and U.S. Treasury that JURE had illegally purchased $50,000 worth of arms from a California company ⁸⁰ (CIA/DDO Ray Vol XIV, Memo for Record, 5/20/64 from Samuel Halpern, Subj: JURE Purchase of Arms) caused the CIA considerable embarrassment. ⁸¹ (Ibid) The Agency denied knowledge of the arms purchase when queried by Revenue officials and, because of the autonomous nature

This combination of events led a special group within the CIA to cancel any monies to Ray until he ceased all activities from the U. S. Mainland. (CIA/DDO Ray Vol XV, Memo for Record, 29 June 1964 from Alfonso Rodriguez, Subject: Establishment of Base Abroad, Manuel Ray Rivero) A final payment of $75,000 was made to JURE at the end of 1964 (CIA/DDO Ray Vol XVII, Autonomous Operations - Operating Plan) and JURE books were closed at the CIA.
