believe that Helms desired to improve the image of the intelligence profession and the Agency and that Hunt's books were part of the program to do so. He stated that he was never told outright that this was the case, but the responses he received lead him to believe this was the case. He suggested 2 people who might be able to assist in clearing issues: Ray Boca and Walter Pforzheimer, both of whom were involved in the "image" materials.

He stated that Pforzheimer seemed to be aware of all the details - on an up to date basis - of Hunt's departure from the Agency to join the public relations firm, to the degree that Gen. Gaynor gained the belief that Hunt was merely moving his desk outside the building, but being paid by the same source as before.

Miss Ethel Mendoza also followed the case. Also Anita Potocki - of CIA staff - (no friend of Hunt)
