11- memorandum for record. Subj: Norman Rothman
 dated 30 June 1961 prepared by Catherine La Maistre

#- DOB - 26 DEC 1914 POB - Bronx, NY

2- "When Rothman first came to CIA's attention in September 1958, he was living in Dallas, Texas and was allegedly engaged in public relations work. According to his wife, Gloria, he made a one-week trip to Los Angeles in September on undisclosed business."

3- In October 1959, Rothman was managing the Biltmore Terrace Hotel in Miami from which he was reported by the FBI to be supplying an anti-Castro organization with arms which he obtained through U.S. gangsters."

4. "Following Pittsburgh conviction, Rothman went to Chicago, where he surrendered on charges of playing a key role in one of the biggest robberies in modern crim. history, the 13.5 million $ looting of a Canadian bank. Robbery was touched off when the Canadian branch of the mafia received a hurry-up order from the Caribbean for arms. The Canadian mafia did not have the money to buy arms, but it knew how to ~~not~~ get hands on the contents of the Brockville, Ontario bank. It called upon the U.S. mafia for assistance, and it was then that Rothman entered the picture, it was charged. "Subsequently portions of loot turned up in Shanghai, Argentina, Cuba, & Australia.

5- "Before Rothman was tracked down in connection with the above crimes, he was reported by the FBI as traveling to Yucatan to seek a base of operations against the Castro gov't. In this enterprise he was associated with Eduardo (Teddy) Whitehouse Insua, formerly of the Cuban Civil Aeronautical Association; ex-Colonel Orlando Piedra Negueruela, former member of BRAC and head of Cuban Bureau of Investigations; and Colonel Roberto Fernandez Micanaa, brother-in-law of Batista and former commander of the presidential guards as well as president of the National Sports Commission. While no mention is made of Rolando Masterrer in this connection, Rothman has engaged in many exploits and deals with Masterrer."

6- "In September 1960, Rothman still out on $50,000 bond, made an approach to Frank Fiorini, soldier of fortune, offering to obtain two migs - one flown by a Czech and another by a Cuban. Fiorini felt that Rothman's ~~aim~~<sup>interest</sup> was stimulated by a straight profit motive or by hopes for favorable treatment regarding the Federal case against him."

7- In Oct. 1960 R. again appeared in Dallas, where he approached Robert E. Grinnan, an oil contracts promotion man. Rothman claimed to have connections with Nor-Roth Industries of N.Y.C. and stated that clients of his had an interest in purchasing 1/2 million metric tons of diesel fuel oil and one million metric tons of crude oil to be delivered over a five-year period to Hamburg, Germany. Grinnan, puzzled by the offer, reported to the FBI. He went to N.Y. in November and met Rothman and the other principals of the deal, a Mary Alley and a Dr. Phillip Paneth de Panay. Largely because of Grinnan's suspicions the deal was never consummated."
