Donald Deavalya

~~wrote~~

(This fact was corroborated by another CIA employee, who worked in the FBI in the Sov. Bureau of the Directorate of Intelligence in 1962 told the HSCA that he specifically recalled collecting intelligence info. regarding the Meid Radio Plant. In fact, Deavalya claims that, during the summer of 1962, he reviewed a contact report from [redacted] (from the CIA's [redacted]) who interviewed a former Russian who had also worked at the Meid Radio Plant following his defection to the USSR. This person whom Deavalya believes may have been Oswald had been living in Moscow. Deavalya advised the Committee that the contact report was filed in a volume concerning the Meid Radio Plant which should be retrievable from the Selective Registry Branch which, in 1962, was a component of the DDCI.

~~made a request to the~~
The HSCA requested a [redacted]

To the CIA: The HSCA requested that the CIA provide the Committee with the above-described contact report & all other materials concerning the Meid Radio Plant. (adm.178) (letter)
~~The CIA provided a review of the docs. in the volume in the M.R.P. It was noted that no such file existed regarding the M.R.P., but no contact report existed in that file. (OCC). The file review did indicate that in 1975, Daniel Selon had made a similar request ~~and as no report was found for Deavalya.~~ (letter) He was informed by the CIA that no report was received.~~

If the 29 persons requested, ~~any~~ person did not have a file for review. In the case of 6 other individuals, the file review did not indicate that they ever went to the U.S.

The HSCA reviewed:

The CIA
After reviewing files on the 29 individuals who fit the above-described criteria, the CIA provided files on the 28 of the 29 individuals on whom they maintained records. ~~and~~ 20 files were reviewed as ~~as~~ <sup>all as any existing</sup> DDCI files regarding these individuals. In the case of 6 individuals, there is no indication in their files that they ever returned to the U.S. Even so, there were occasional reports from sources who observed or spoke w/ these persons while in the S.U., but there is no indication of direct contact w/ them by the CIA.

In regard to the other 22 defectors, <sup>the file review indicates that</sup> there is no record of direct CIA contact w/ 18 of them. Again, some of these files contain a report from a source who reported

It becomes clear from the review of files on these defs. that debriefing of defectors was in fact somewhat of a random occurrence. However, in the instances ~~where~~ <sup>in which</sup> the Ag. did choose to debrief returning Am. def., the Ag. appears <sup>to have been</sup> ~~was~~ <sup>desirous</sup> to be interested in <sup>mainly</sup> topics of general interest <sup>regarding</sup> U.S. life in certain areas.

of the Sov. U. In this regard, QO — Where are you.

The persons who were debriefed were similar to D in that they left & ret. w/i the same general time period & had spent their time in the S. U. in areas of interest to the CIA.

These int. deb. were conducted of the other 2 defs. E.g. W., a plastics expert w/c. A.C. whose def. to the S. U. in 1959 was highly publicized, ret. to the U.S. in 6/63. W had been employed in the S. U. at the Sov. Soviet Inst. of Polytech. Plastics. Shortly after his return, he was debriefed in his home territory ~~by~~ <sup>from</sup> C.I.A. from 00/6, 5/6/63 to 6/6/63. It was decided that a more ext. debriefing was in order b/c W was subsequently brought to the Washington where he was deb. for a period of 2 wks. The deb. reports incl. a descr. of W's life in the CIA's assess. of him as well as a log. of info. regarding life in the S. U., W's work there & being info. on persons he had met during his residence there.

Similarly, Vito Giacalone who had lived in the S. U. for nearly 4 yrs., was selected for purposes of debriefing shortly after his ret. to the U.S. in late June of 1963. His initial debriefing included such subjs. as his motivation to defect to USSR as well as activities engaged in during Moscow stay, relocation from Moscow to Kiev; general aspects of life such as residence costs & costs of living. The Ag. felt that they would be interested in eliciting more info. <sup>on such topics</sup> re: life in the S. U. as cost of living, med. care, consumer goods, highway/highways, transport, restrictions w/in Kiev.

While the CIA felt it was feasible to debrief R more thoroughly due to his current status of trying to regain U.S. cit.
