Report - FBI

Info obtained from two informants, MMT-1 and MMT-2.

two persons, Jose Joaquin De La Caudad Sarmiento Perdomo, former official of the Castro gov., and Jose Paz Novas, former U.S. Cuban Intelligence known as "G-2", furnished signed statements identifying Argues as an intelligence agent in the U.S. for Juan Orta, Sec. to Fidel Castro.

IRS, Miami, stated that subj returned to Miami from Havana, 11-10-60, after going to Cuba but losing train & returning to Miami; now willing to coop with U.S. gov.

On 11-14-60 Argues furnished sworn statement to IRS that he never acted as an Intel. agent of the present Cuban gov., but admitted writing letters to Orta re: Batista people. He said he did not receive money or instructions from Orta.

Perdomo - voluntary statement - from Aug 1959 until Jan 1960 - Dir general of the Fiscal Security Dep't of Treasury - Cuban government.

left during January 1960 - U.S.

In Oct or Nov 1959, in Havana, Cuba, Juan Orta, the Sec to Castro, sent him about 3 or 4 letters from Manuel Argues. These letters related to various persons working for the dep't of treasury who were suspected of making conspiracies against the gov of Castro.
Orta told him to inv. them personally -

✓ Specifically, he says he can recall that one of these letters mentioned a woman who worked for the Special Fund of Public Works in Havana. The letter said she was passing frequently between Cuba + Miami and that perhaps she was carrying messages of anti-Castro elements, between Miami + Havana, in relation to conspiracies against the gov of Castro.

Orta also told this guy that he could use the services of Paul Ros to locate Manuel Argues also, in about Oct - Nov, 1959, a Cuban named Frank Bestard, who said he was working for Raul Castro, told him that Argues was at that time an agent in Miami, FL, for Juan Orta.

also, a man known as Mario Aguerreterre, who worked for me in Fiscal Security in Havana, told me about Aug, 1959, that he was transporting written messages of Argues ~~to~~ in Miami to Argues in Havana.

saw he also heard Orta telling some other Cuban in Orta's office that Orta was paying Argues $250.00/month for intelligence work.

saw Argues had a job as clerk in the Hotel American in Miami during 1959 and first part of 1960.

also, about the end of 1959, the Consul General of Cuba, in Miami, from before, Mr. Laycano, told me that a Cuban female, the manager of the Hotel ~~Americana~~ America, and her daughter, whom I do not know by name, were working under Argues in the intelligence group of Orta.

On 12-1-60, Azuere gave a voluntary statement to the FBI - Kelly & William P. Holloman.

B32 says that he worked as a sort of publicity man for the Cuban Tourist Commission at Miami, FL for a little less than one year; he registered with the US Justice Dept as an agent of a foreign principal during Jan, 1960, in connection with this job.
