He said after 2 weeks w/ her Marina spoke openly of opposition to the Sov Regime & said she wanted to marry a foreigner so she could leave USSR.

Reggab didn't want to marry her. He had a fiancée in Morocco, 6/61-9/61 - went back to Morocco for vacation. On return Bourla-kova told him that she hadn't seen Marina for a month. He never heard of it.

He didn't think MO belonged to Komsomol.
He knew girls in Komsomol were supposed to report on foreigners.

Reggab said he had a photo of Marina w/ a letter from her dated 6/1 or 7/6/61 - Casablanca. Reggab said he would need official assistance to find the letter & photo among his effects in Casablanca.

Reggab said MO was loved, promoted & a sad face. He stated that she submitted to "his every wish".

His wife went to WH, State & FBI newspapers

& would be in Berlin again on 1 March
