RECEIVED

Information set out herein pertains to the three Cubans who were arrested by the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) on September 8, 1967, for possession of a machine gun.

On September 20, 1967, Gene E. Pycatt, Investigator, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), Los Angeles, advised that there was no record available concerning one of the arrestees, Jose Miguel Gomez-Morrell. The Latin-American Subversive Index of INS, Los Angeles, and the I-53 file (annual address report cards for 1967) were checked for all three, and no record could be found identical with any of them.

Investigator Pycatt advised that on September 8, 1967, he briefly interviewed the three: Gomez-Morrell, Angel Alfredo Vigo-Villa and Luis Alberto De La Olivera-Gonzalez, accompanied by Anthony M. Veich and Richard Witham, Special Investigators, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division (ATTD), U. S. Treasury Department, at the North Hollywood Division, LAPD. At that time, they determined that the weapon in the possession of the above three at the time of their arrest was not an automatic weapon. There was no indication of any organizational connection on the part of the three men, although Olivera said that he had been a member of Brigade 3506, which participated in the unsuccessful invasion of Cuba in April 1961. No further investigation is being conducted by INS concerning this matter.

Investigator Pycatt stated that Vigo-Villa had in his possession a receipt for the gun, dated September 7, 1967, which described it as a Caliber .30, "Riflematic Machine, Dunellen, N. J."--Serial No. 0741. According to the receipt for the gun, it was purchased by Frank Rose, 5713 Elmer Avenue, North Hollywood, California, on September 7, 1967, from Western Surplus, 5252 Lanersham Boulevard. Also included on the receipt were two boxes of ammunition and two clips, for a total cost of $132.21. Vigo told Investigator Pycatt that Rose is a Cuban, and that they were going to buy the gun from him. While he was in jail, Vigo telephoned Mercedes Perez, telephone number 665-1236. The purpose of this call was not known.

ANTI-FIDEL CASTRO ACTIVITIES

File No. A12-547-351, for Angel Alfredo Vigo-Villa, was reviewed at INS, Los Angeles, on September 20, 1967. This file revealed that Vigo was born on April 29, 1943, in Camaguey, Cuba, and entered the United States on March 25, 1961, at Miami, Florida, via Pan American Airways Flight 432. He was an O-1 immigrant, had Cuban Passport No. 62227 issued by the Ministry of State, Havana, Cuba, on October 14, 1960, valid to October 14, 1965, and Immigrant Visa No. 1541 issued on March 24, 1961, to expire July 23, 1961.

In his application for Immigrant Visa and Foreign Registration dated March 24, 1961, filed with the U. S. Consulate, Kingston, Jamaica, Vigo gave his address as 76 Hanover Street, and his occupation as a student. He was described as:

In an application for an Alien Registration Receipt Card, Form I-151, on July 13, 1967, Vigo showed his residence as 565 Northeast 160th Terrace, North Miami Beach, Florida. This application was approved.

A review of the file of Luis Alberto De La Caridad Olivera-Gonzalez, Alien Registration Number 11-375-721, at INS, Los Angeles on September 20, 1967, showed that Olivera was born on July 10, 1926, in Cuba. He entered the United States at Charleston, South Carolina on February 1, 1960, by jumping ship. He was ordered detained on board the ship, the "Sula" (Liberian) through refusal of a D-1 landing permit on arrival at Wilmington, North Carolina, on January 17, 1960, and deserted the ship at Charleston on February 1, 1960. A notation in the file shows that evidence indicated he deserted the ship on a previous trip to the U. S. and was apprehended and returned to the ship at Newark, New Jersey, in December 1959. He had Cuban Passport #33593, valid to December 12, 1964.

ANTI-FIDEL CASTRO ACTIVITIES

As of October 26, 1961, Olivera's address was shown as 476 Southwest Fourth Street, Miami, Florida. He was described (as of February 10, 1960) as white, male; five feet, seven inches; 150 pounds; brown hair; green eyes.

A memorandum dated December 29, 1959, by Robert J. Lyness, Investigator, INS, appears in the file. This concerns the desertion of Olivera on December 28, 1959, from the "SS Sula G" at Carteret, New Jersey. On a calendar in Olivera's bunk was the name Eugenio Nieves, 20 Roosevelt Avenue, Carteret, written in ink. Mrs. Nieves was interviewed at above address, and said she saw Olivera the day before, and believed he was friendly with Teresa Guzman, 51 Hudson Street, Carteret, New Jersey. He was located at latter address, with Teresa Guzman. She telephoned her husband who returned to the house. All said Olivera would be killed for political activities if he were returned to Cuba. Olivera produced a letter alleging he was elected councilman in his town in 1953. He said he had joined the "Sula G" 15 days before in Santa Lucia, Cuba, and that he had paid $200 for a Cuban Passport and exit permit from the Cuban Revolutionary Police.

Olivera was interviewed under oath by Robert H. Irish, Investigator, INS, on February 10, 1960, at Miami. He said he last entered the U. S. on February 1, 1960, at Charleston, South Carolina, by jumping a ship flying the Liberian flag. The captain knew he previously left the ship at Carteret, New Jersey, about December 2, 1959. He said he was picked up and was put back on the ship, but jumped ship at Charleston as he did not want to return to Cuba for fear he would be prosecuted. He claimed he was president of the Anti-Communist Youth Movement in Cuba, and said he had been arrested 10 or 12 times in Cuba for fighting Communism, and was incarcerated two or three days each time. He said his father, Luis Olivera was dead, and that his mother, Ramona Gonzalez, was living at Luz Caballero No. 125, Guanajay, Cuba. He said he was single and that he could not return to Cuba because of political reasons.

As of February 10, 1960, Olivera lived at 421 Northwest Fifteenth Avenue, Miami, Florida.

RECEIVED
DOJ
- At a hearing on April 4, 1960, at INS, Miami, Florida, Olivera was released on conditional parole, to report the first Monday of each month at INS, Miami. On April 18, 1960, he was ordered deported to Cuba, pursuant to Section 243, Immigration and Nationality Act.

ANTI-FIDEL CASTRO ACTIVITIES

On April 25, 1960, the Caribbean Sea Corporation, c/o Marinus, Incorporated, 29 Broadway, New York 6, New York, was advised of the deportation order against Olivera. A copy of this was sent to Palmeto Shipping Company, Post Office Box 842, Charleston, South Carolina.

By letter April 29, 1960, to INS, Marinus, Incorporated, requested INS to arrange transportation for Olivera's deportation and said Marinus should be billed for the charges.

By memorandum dated June 21, 1960, Olivera was one of five Cubans listed as having been granted permission (in accordance with a memorandum dated April 12, 1960, of the Assistant Commissioner, Examinations, Central Office, INS, regarding Cuban Nationals) to change his domicile from Miami to Garden Grove, California, to work for the Rubber Corporation of California, Post Office Box 278, Garden Grove, California.

An order of Release on Recognizance for Olivera on August 17, 1960, stated he should not travel outside Florida without written permission from INS, Miami, Florida.

On August 23, 1960, he was advised he was released on conditional parole.

Olivera's departure from the U. S. on August 23, 1960, was verified by Joseph E. Geary, Chief, Deportation Section, INS, Washington, D. C.

As of October 12, 1961, Olivera's address was 476 Southwest Fourth, Miami, Florida. His previous address was 3625 Northwest Eleventh, Miami. As of June 30, 1960, he lived at latter address and showed a previous address of 1504 West Flagler Street, Miami.

The Warrant of Deportation, dated April 18, 1960, in Olivera's file shows the notation on the reverse side: "Subject's departure from the U. S., August 23, 1960, verified by G. E. of Central Office. Port of departure and destination unknown. Mary F. Baily, Dep. Docket Clerk."
