Interdepartmental Coordinating Committee of Cuban Affairs:

Movement of Subversives and Subversive Trainees (C)

1. On 8 March 1963, the President approved comprehensive US program dealing with movement of subversives and subversive trainees to and from Cuba.

2. Actions within the primary responsibility of the JCS are:

a. Continue current US sea and air surveillance of the Caribbean area contiguous to Cuba.

b. Continue development of US communications in Latin America.

c. Study feasibility and desirability of establishing intelligence centers at CINCARIB and CARIBSEAFRON headquarters for rapid dissemination of intelligence on the movement of subversives.

d. Establish a coordinated Caribbean surveillance system involving:

(1) Continued US close-in surveillance of Cuba.

(2) A US military alerting system, upon completion of study referred to in subparagraph 2 c, above.

(3) US assistance in final interception in territorial waters, upon request by country concerned.
