Subject: REVIEW OF WARREN COMMISSION DOCUMENT 729a IN ACCORDANCE WITH FREEDOM OF INFORMATION-PRIVACY
ACTS APPEAL OF JOHN R. WOODS II

Per your request, Warren Commission Document 729a has been reviewed for possible declassification and the results of this review are as follows:

Commission Document 729 contains certain information which cannot be made available to the general public. This information is currently and properly classified pursuant to Executive Order 11652 in the interest of the national defense and/or foreign policy. Under Title 5, United States Code, Section 552 (b)(1), Document 729a is classified "Confidential" and is exempt from disclosure. Document 729a is exempt from GDS in Category one, as described in Executive Order 11652, and is excluded from automatic downgrading and/or declassification.

The information within the document originated with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP). RCMP Security Service data forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation retains all designated security classification and is not to be disseminated outside the Bureau. Intelligence material forwarded to the Bureau, is protected in Canada by the Canadian Government's Cabinet Directive 46. Intelligence material is considered an "exempted record" by this Directive, which means a record that contains information the release of which:

Mr. John R. Woods II

- 1) would be contrary to law;
- 2) is restricted pursuant to an agreement made between the Government of Canada and any other government;
- 3) might be considered by any government to be a breach of faith on the part of the Government of Canada;
- 4) might embarrass the Government of Canada in its relations with any other government;
- 5) might violate the right of privacy of any individual or a record that relates to security and intelligence.

This document is classified "Confidential" in order to protect information which would reveal cooperation between the Bureau and a foreign law enforcement agency.
