COMMISSION No. 540
UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

March 3, 1934

GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT
JEANNE DE MOHRENSCHILDT

Other Individuals and Organizations
Involved or Interviewed

DECLASSIFIED BY 983 RDD/KSR
ON 1-11-93 (JFK)

On February 28, 1934, T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, stated that a check of the Mexican Immigration records maintained by the Mexican Ministry of the Interior (Gobernacion), Mexico, D. F., disclosed file #4/351.0"60"/29224 concerning GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT and his wife, JEANNE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, both United States citizens. According to this file, GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, a petroleum geologist and engineer, had directed a communication from 139-40 Republic National Bank Building, Dallas, Texas, on June 3, 1930, to the Secretary of Gobernacion, asking for permission for he and his wife, JEANNE, to enter Mexico for a period of eleven months in order to do research in the fields of art, archaeology and geology while traveling through Mexico from the United States border to Central America and Panama.

According to this file, the MOHRENSCHILDTs planned to do most of their work in the State of Chiapas, Mexico. MOHRENSCHILDT indicated that his work would be published in "Life Magazine" and the "National Geographic Magazine" and indicated that he was a friend of ANTONIO GARCIA ROJAS, Director of Mexican Petroleum Exploration.

The Secretary of Gobernacion referred this matter to EUSEBIO DAVALOS HURTADO, Director of the Mexican Institute of Anthropology and History, who informed Gobernacion that MOHRENSCHILDT had not been given permission by that Institute to do archaeological research in Mexico. Subsequently, the Secretary of Gobernacion informed MOHRENSCHILDT that he would have to first obtain permission from the Mexican Institute of Anthropology and History of the Ministry of Public Education, Mexico, D. F., prior to soliciting the permission of Gobernacion to enter the country for the afore-mentioned purposes.

The files of Gobernacion contained no information concerning the MOHRENSCHILDTs since August 27, 1960, no indication that the MOHRENSCHILDTs had corresponded with Gobernacion since that time, and no indication as to whether or not they subsequently entered Mexico.

On February 29, 1964, Colonel CARLOS ESPINOSA FELIX, Chief, Identification Section, Metropolitan Police, Mexico, D. F., stated that the records of that office contained no identifiable information concerning the subjects. Colonel ESPINOSA FELIX advised that the records of that office disclosed no derogatory information concerning LILIA PARDO VIUDA DE LARIN but indicated that she was fingerprinted for the issuance of driver's licenses on July 9, 1935, and March 26, 1942. In 1942, she gave an address of Lote 9, Fraccionamiento Acacias, Colonia Mixcoac, Mexico, D. F. He further stated that she had obtained Certificates of Good Conduct from that office for passport purposes on the following dates, at which time she gave the following addresses: April 18, 1951 -- Calle Yosemite No. 59, Colonia Napoles, Mexico, D. F.; May 4, 1960 -- Calle Miami No. 20, Colonia Napoles, Mexico, D. F.; August 19, 1960, Apartment No. 6, Tabasco No. 157, Mexico, D. F.

On March 3, 1964, SERGIO GARRIDO, Chief, Identification Section, Federal Judicial Police of Mexico, Mexico, D. F., and Miss ARMINDA REYES, Identification Section, Judicial Police of the Federal District and Territories, Mexico, D. F., advised that the records of their respective offices contained no identifiable information concerning the subjects or LILIA PARDO VIUDA DE LARIN.
