The Black Vault

The image shows a close-up of a heavy, metallic vault door. The door is partially open, revealing a complex internal mechanism with multiple locking bolts and a central handle. A bright blue light emanates from the gap between the door and the frame, creating a strong glow and casting shadows on the surrounding metal. The overall aesthetic is industrial and mysterious.

- born Antonio Angelo Annaloro in Villalba, Sicily on 5-21-10
- arrived in the U.S. less than 15 months after birth
- granted derivative citizenship through his father in 1946. Imm. officials were curious, however, as to how Bruno was born in 1910 when his father claimed to have been in the U.S. since 1906 (his mother did not go to the U.S. prior to his birth). Thus, with the choice of being declared illegitimate or illegally naturalized, Bruno said that his father secretly returned to Sicily in 1907 or 1908 & then had to flee back to the U.S. to avoid prosecution.

Bruno has avoided involving any of his family in Commission operations.
When his daughter, Jean, was married in 1962, Bruno sent invitations to Carlo Gambino and Steve Magaddino but recommended that they not show 1935 - 15-month suspended sentence and 3-yr probation for manufacturing illegal liquor.

1937 - $10 fine for disorderly conduct

1954 $600 fine and 2 yr probation for operating an illegal lottery.

By 1963 Bruno was described as the biggest numbers man in Phil.

Bruno entered the La Cosa Nostra sometime during the 1950's. His rise was rapid ever since.

Joseph Ida - head of the Philly mob from 1946 to 1959, fled to Italy on January 15, 1959.

p. 7 - Angelo's activities - Bruno had a casino - Casino Monte Carlo in Havana, Cuba.

close associate of Bruno - Charles J.
Costello - ~~bro~~ who lives in Miami on North Bayshore Drive.

- does not enjoy the best of health.

by SAs Pearce & Joseph A Veira at Calamario's business establishment, the A & T Catering Service, 11th and True Street, Phil, Bruno went to live in Florida because of his health somewhere ~~around 1950~~ in the latter 1950's.

Calamario said that Bruno ~~that he~~ had apparently lost large sums of money in Cuba as a result of the revolution.

p21 Phil PD report, Intelligence, furnished on 12-13-57, showed that Bruno's chief cum act was lottery & then illicit alcohol.

p23 Between April 1, 1957 and June, 1959, Bruno travelled intermittently between Miami, Cuba, and Philadelphia.

a conf. inf. advised on June 30, 1959 that Bruno apparently returned to Phil to stay - p24 - Newark Div. learned from a Phil conf. inf. on Oct 29, 1958. that a group of New Jersey racket men, numbering about 35, had organized a group to estab a gambling casino. Carl "Pappy" Spolito, the leader of this group. made a trip to Miami for 10 days. During this time he contacted Charles Tourine, aka "The Blade" - said that Tourine was one of the mob contacts for gambling in Havana & that Tourine had secured a gambling license from the Cuban gov. for the New Jersey syndicate.

p26 By June, 1959, it appears that Bruno liquidated his assets in Cuba & returned to Phil.

p. 42.

T-2 in March, 1959, stated that Cuban parties had access to 7 million Cuban dollars (pesos) and wished to convert this into American currency. Angelo Bruno was one of these people. T-2 also said that this money would possibly be obtained from a former Cuban General who fled Cuba when Batista was overthrown.

SA J. Robert Pearce that Angelo Bruno's wife, Sue, recently said that Bruno had $1,000,000 invested in a Havana gambling casino - said that the money not lost but at the present time Bruno was unable to get the money out of Cuba.

During Oct 1960 Phil C. I. T-45 advised SA Dale M. Hestand that Bruno had said that he arranged through Lloyds of London & an undisclosed insurance agent to secure his gambling casino, unidentified, for an undisclosed amount. The insur agent, accord to Bruno, had to manipulate the paper to give Bruno 180,000 - explained that Bruno said that the casino had caught file & that the premiums at the time Carter took on power & that the premiums had lapsed - agent manipulated paper. - Bruno expressed that agent refused $20,000 for the favor.
